Scottsbluff Woman Comes to Alliance to Wed but Changes Mind Before Time Set Arrives

A young ranchman living near Scottsbluff, accompanied by a some young woman, arrived in Alliance Saturday noon and stopped at one of the local hotels. In the afternoon the young man, who was twenty-five years of age, went to the county judge's office and secured a marriage license. The woman also gave her age as twenty-five years.

The time for the marriage ceremony was set for 7:30 o'clock, and the groom-to-be went ahead with the preparations. But at 7:15, just fifteen minutes before the time set. she changed her mind and absolutely Thursday of this week. refused to go ahead as per arrangements.

The man begged and begged but to no avail. The woman had changod her mind and would not listen to his pleadings. He finally gave up and returned the license to the judge. The couple were compelled to stay in town until this noon, when they took the train back to their
