

LOCAL GLEANINGS

From Saturday's Daily:

H. C. McMillan just arrived from Grand Junction, Colo., with a car of fine eating apples. The apples will be on the city track.

Miss Sadie Reade of Omaha left for her home Thursday night, having been called to Alliance by the sickness and death of her brother, C. W. Reade.

A. T. Seybolt of Bridgeport, Morrill county's genial abstractor of titles, was in Alliance on business yesterday. Having a little time to spare on account of the outgoing Denver train being late, he favored us with a pleasant call.

A. C. McCorkle, a cherry county ranchman and cousin of J. C. McCorkle, was in Alliance on business one day this week. On his return home he stopped at Hyannis to take in the "Home Day". His ranch is forty-five miles northeast of that town.

J. H. Lunsford, well known Lake-side ranchman, was transacting business in Alliance today. He came up in his auto this forenoon and will return this evening.

Mrs. A. D. Snow and daughter Arvilla arrived home Friday morning from a three weeks' vacation and pleasure trip in Colorado. They went from Alliance to Denver and from Denver to Colorado Springs and Manitou, and then to Longmont where both have friends. They report having a fine time and seeing beautiful scenery.

R. W. Reed and wife of Bruch, Colo., arrived Friday on 303, after an unsuccessful attempt to reach Alliance by auto in time for the funeral of Chas. W. Reade which was held Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Darling decided that they would get better acquainted in Hyannis than being there one day would permit, accordingly they went down on Wednesday and remained until Friday.

Mrs. Mae Grime, of Hemingford, was in Alliance today with her daughter.

C. W. Jeffers left Sunday night for Lincoln, where he goes as a delegate to the I. O. O. F. grand lodge from Alliance. John Snyder, accompanied by Mrs. Snyder, left Sunday morning for the same place. John is a delegate for the Encampment and an alternate to the I. O. O. F. grand lodge. Mrs. Snyder is a delegate for the Rebekah lodge.

From Wednesday's Daily: The Ladies Guild met with Mrs. B. F. Copeland Wednesday afternoon.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold a meeting on Thursday afternoon of this week to take the place of the meeting which was withdrawn last Thursday. Mrs. Tash, hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bowman left on No. 42 last night for an extended trip throughout the east. They will visit at Lincoln, Omaha, Chicago and Michigan points, and finally end their trip at Galesburg, Mich., where they will remain for the winter.

Mrs. Jake Fritz and Mr. and Mrs. Will Forster and family arrived on the Denver last night from Smithfield, Nebr., where they have been visiting relatives. While here they are visiting with Mrs. Julia Hale and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Thomas. They intend to leave for their home at Gordon the latter part of the week.

Vernor Moore and Fred A. Pochon, of Strasburger, made Alliance a call on land office business Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

George Fleming is moving his tobacco and confectionary store to the Mounts building today.

Eugene Burton returned this noon from a trip on the river.

Clark Olds was an Alliance visitor Tuesday, coming from Hemingford in his auto.

Miss Louisa E. Hughes is in Alliance from Strasburger, on land office business.

L. A. Fossey, of Morrill, was in the city Monday. He visited with his brother-in-law, E. W. Ray.

T. H. Beeson, of the Nebraska Telephone Company, went south this noon on a business trip.
