FILTHY STREETS AND ALLEYS

The council informally discussed the condition of the streets and alleys at the special meeting Monday night and decided that it was the worst ever. Cleanliness is the exception instead of the rule. Everywhere they had investigated ashes, tin cans, and rubbish had been allowed to accumulate for months. The neglect of vaults was found to constitute a grave menace to the public health. Therefore, the council has decided that cleanup is the order of the day and are going to conduct an active campaign along that line.

Service Complaints Should be Specific

Our telephone service must be prompt and accurate. This is the standard we endeavor to accomplish, but we must have the co-operation of every subscriber.

We want specific reports of unsatisfactory service. We can do nothing with such a complaint as the "service is bad."

Clearing the Trouble

In making a complaint, please give us your telephone number, and tell us just what happened and at exactly what time. When we get definite information we can take off our coats, roll up our sleeves and get right after the trouble and remedy it.

Visits Brother Here

Atty. C. W. Gilman left last night for Tulsa, Okla., after visiting several days at the home of his brother, Atty. B. F. Gilman, of this city. Mr. Gilman was an early settler in Box Butte county but left here to go to Wisconsin about twenty years ago. Mrs. Gilman, who accompanied him here, left at noon today for Great Falls, Mont., where she will visit relatives.
