HOW CHILDREN GROW

Children grow by nourishment—not overloaded stomachs or rich foods but qualities that are readily converted into life-sustaining blood; too often their digestive powers cannot procure these qualities from ordinary foods which results in weakness, dullness and sickness.

If your children are under-size, under-weight, catch cold easily, are languid, backward, pale or frail, give them Scott's Emulsion which is pure medicinal nourishment. It sharpens the appetite, builds healthy flesh, firm muscles and active brains. Scott's is growing-food for children. Refuse alcoholic substitutes.

A BIT OF ADVICE
First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment

If you suffer from backache, headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble—they are recommended by thousands. Can residents desire more convincing proof than the statement of a citizen of this locality?

R. W. Gaylord, North Moorehead St., Chadron, Nebr., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for about fifteen years and I would not be without them in the house. Some time ago I suffered severely from weak kidneys. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and one box removed the attack. I highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from backache or other symptoms of kidney complaint."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Gaylord had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HERALD REACHES ALASKA WILDS

'Gene' Heath, Former Well Known Box Butte County Newspaper Man, Heard from Again

The following is furnished by F. M. Broome, who received the paper spoken of.

Twenty-five years ago 'Gene' Heath one of the widest known newspaper men that ever published a paper in the western states at that time, pulled out from Box Butte county with his family on a schooner drawn by four small mules. His destination was toward the setting sun with no particular location in view. During all of these years he was lost to sight altho not lost to memory of many Nebraska friends and now there comes drifting thru the post-offices a copy of the "Mail" published at Ketchikan, Alaska. No name appears on the paper to indicate who the publisher may be and none is needed for all that any one of his old friends need do is to read the articles published and they know that it is the same 'Gene' Heath whose writings in the early days of the Grip compelled people to read them whether they wanted to or not but generally they wanted to. Among the articles in the paper received, dated July 11, 1914, the following will prove of interest:

One entitled, "Back in the Old Days," reads:

We are in receipt of three copies of the Alliance Herald, published at Alliance, Nebraska, by John, Lloyd and Carl Thomas. Alliance and Box Butte county was our old stamping grounds 25 years ago and many of our old associates in crime still live in that locality. What interests us most is a natural cut of our old partner in the newspaper business, F. M. Broome. Frank is running for the legislature, and accompanying his picture is his declaration of principles or running platform. We should like to help him out if we could, and will state that in those days he was honest and true, but midst the cruel battle of 25 years, the unceasing tussel for biscuits, we wonder whether he has remained true and good like we have.

Another one entitled "The Call of the Wild" is a literary gem and reads as follows:

Last Wednesday forenoon, during a howling southeaster while the seagulls screeched their defiance and the hardy fisherman, in his oil skins and sou'wester, gazed off toward the hurrying clouds, Ed Walker, Mrs. Walker and Gaston, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGraw and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Otto (daughters and sons-in-law) in a happy cheerful frame of mind, packed their camp outfit in the little launch and hiked out on a picnicing excursion. Crazy? No—no more so than the rest of us. It's "the call of the wild," the luring whisper of nature, that to the sturdy pioneer is stronger than the bonds of society and even vies with the love of home surroundings. In the early days Ed Walker was on the plains of Texas with his rifle as a companion. How can four walls hold such a type? Think you that storm or rain holds any terrors for such as he? Each laughing, bounding mountain stream and each mammoth spruce or hemlock as it shudders in the storm bids him come. Each wild bird call is music he cannot withstand. Think you that gold alone lured us all to his land? 'Twas the call of nature to communion with congenial spirits. Crazy? No. 'Tis he who hears not this call, who toils and sweats and schemes for gain and dies in the harness who is crazy.
