Putting on Monster Sale

One of the largest sales ever held in Box Butte county is the big closing out sale at Hemingford of the Hemingford Mercantile Company, which started today and which lasts until September 5. This is a bona fide sale and many bargains will be found here. Attention is called to the large advertisement announcing the sale elsewhere in this paper.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT

P. M. WHITEHEAD.
Gothenburg, Neb.
Democrat and People's Independent.

Fellow Citizens:
Do you realize that today, 11,000 instructors, nearly 400,000 children and youth, and a yearly expenditure for education of over $8,000,000 summon you to choose a candidate for state superintendent?

I offer for the service of the state an educational training gained at Eureka College, Illinois, at the Peru Normal, and at the University of Nebraska. I offer twenty years experience as a teacher, including three years in rural schools, service in a Junior State Normal, and ten years as city superintendent, at Gothenburg. I am at present a member of the School Law Revision Commission.

My training in school, my experience as an educator, and the observations of twenty-three years, give me the following settled convictions:
That all the children of all the people, are entitled to an equal amount of equally good training.

That this can be secured without any loss to those who now enjoy the best advantages.

That the humblest teacher in the most remote district is entitled to equal consideration with the highest salaried educator in the state.

That absolute merit is the only proper basis for the employment and promotion of teachers.

That the offices of state and county superintendent should be taken entirely out of politics.

That the constitution should be amended, forever prohibiting the sale of another acre of our public school land.

Never before in the history of Nebraska, was there greater opportunity for real constructive service, than is offered today in the administration of the department of education.

Our institutions of learning and the great profession of education in this state must cease to suffer at the hands of factional strife and jealous quarrel. I am absolutely opposed to ruling rule of every kind and character in Nebraska school affairs, and am unqualifiedly committed to a fair and impartial consideration of the claims of every educational interest in the state, and upon this high plane, I shall administer the office, if nominated and elected.

Your most serious consideration is invited, and your support is solicited by the undersigned, who covets the honor of serving the people of Nebraska in this great office.

Very Respectfully Yours,
P. M. WHITEHEAD.

Supt Earl M. Cline
FOR STATE SUPERINTENDENT

From The Alliance Herald, March 26, 1914:

Too often the importance of a public office is measured by the amount of patronage it has to dispense. Much is being said now regarding prospective gubernatorial candidates in Nebraska, but there is not much talk about candidates for other state offices.

In the opinion of The Herald there is not a more important state office to be filled by the next election than that of state superintendent of public instruction, considered in relation to the welfare of the rising generation. The writer of this was for many years engaged in public school work, and as an editor watches with great interest the progress of the cause of education in Nebraska.

If capable men are nominated by all of the political parties, there can be no doubt of the election of a man who will fill the office efficiently. For the democratic nomination for state superintendent of public instruction, The Herald begs to submit the name of a virile schoolman who has already made his impress upon the educational system of Nebraska, but who is young enough to have yet many years of usefulness before him.

Superintendent Earl M. Cline of the Geneva city schools possesses qualifications that particularly fit him for the office of state superintendent. Altho an eastern Nebraska man, he has a warm place in the hearts of the people in the western part of the state on account of having been principal of the Sidney High school and the Alliance State Junior Normal. It is not possible to enumerate all of Mr. Cline's qualifications in one short editorial. He is a Nebraska product and a man of liberal education. He was educated in the public schools of Falls City, the Peru State Normal school, and the University of Nebraska. At the University he spent two years in the study of law, which eminently qualified him for his appointment, made by Governor Morehead, to a place on the commission to recommend a revision of the school laws of Nebraska. This commission was provided for by resolution of the legislature at its last session. It is generally expected that at the next session important legislation affecting the schools of the state will be proposed. In that event the state superintendent will have much weight in advising new school laws and amending existing statutes. We do not know of another man, available for the democratic nomination, who combines to so great a degree the qualifications of an experienced and successful educator with the learning of a practical attorney.

For the reasons above mentioned, and others that could be named, The Herald suggests the name of Supt. Earl M. Cline of Geneva for the democratic nomination for state superintendent of public instruction, and will be delighted to see the democratic press of the state give the suggestion a cordial reception.

Hon G. J. Hunt
FOR CHIEF JUSTICE SUPREME COURT

Judge Hunt is a western Nebraska man, practicing law at Bridgeport.

Mr. Hunt is one of the well known lawyers in the state, having practiced law for a number of years both in eastern and western Nebraska.

A native of Maryland, Judge Hunt came to Omaha over thirty years ago after graduating from Washington College. His first legal experience was obtained in the office of Captain Richards, who took him into partnership under the firm name of Richards & Hunt. Later, he became a member of the law firm of Congdon, Clarkson & Hunt.

About twenty years ago, he became interested and was one of the leaders in developing a large irrigation project in western Nebraska. Ten years ago, on account of his extensive interests in irrigation projects, he moved to Bridgeport where, by his efforts, the Belmont canal was made one of the successful canals of the state.

GEORGE E. HALL

Franklin, Nebraska

Democratic and People's Independent Candidate for State Treasurer
Mr. Hall is forty-four years old; has lived in Nebraska all his life; was raised on the farm and educated in the country schools and State University; has been in the banking business since 1891, and is well qualified for this office.

He was nominated in 1910 for this office and came within 1,532 votes of being elected. In 1912 he was again nominated and was given 800 votes more than President Wilson in this state. This is a good endorsement. He is a hard worker and a free giver for the good of the party.

The Columbus convention wrote his platform, and he heartily endorses every word of it. He and the party will appreciate your support.

VOTE FOR

Woodruff Ball

OF CHERRY COUNTY

Republican Candidate for

State Senator

NOMINATION

From 28th Senatorial District

Connected with the Live Stock Business in this district over 15 years. Made final proof on original homestead in August, 1903, under the 5-year act. This was the land involved in the "Beer Bottle Corner case."

Made final proof on Kinkaid Additional in July, 1910.

Member of the present State Forestry Commission. Has secured $15,000.00 additional funds for forestry work in Nebraska from the general government.

Has secured the permanent retention of the National Forest Reserve in this state for the benefit of the present and future generations.

Has labored persistently to secure from the general government an appropriation with which to conduct experiments to increase the quality and quantity of grazing or forage grasses in the sand hills. This should enhance the value of all sandhill lands.

Initiated the fight which wrote into the present State Live Stock Sanitary Board Law the requirement that the cattlemen thereon must reside in Western Nebraska.

Conceived the idea of and promoted "The Northwest Round-Up" Association.

From the above it will be seen that Mr. Ball is closely identified with the interests of the 28th Senatorial District, equipped with experience to know its needs and thoroughly capable of safeguarding and promoting its legislative requirements.

You can make no mistake in supporting the candidacy of Mr. Ball.
