

A MAIN LINE THRO' CENTRAL WYOMING

On October 18th the Burlington will inaugurate through passenger service between Denver and Billings over the new main line through the Big Horn Basin—through Cheyenne, Orin Junction, Casper and Thermopole. The establishment of through train service over this new main line of railroad is historic. It closes one of the last great breaks in the transportation system of the country, and offers for the first time to the social, commercial and agricultural activities of Wyoming and of the Middle West, direct means for intercourse and the exchange of commodities between Northern and Southern Wyoming—between the rich farming, live stock, coal and oil regions of the Big Horn Basin, in the North, and Cheyenne, the State Capital, and Denver, the Metropolis of the Rockies, on the South. The opening of this new line should prove a great stimulus to every farmer, stockraiser, and business man in Central and Northern Wyoming.

NORTHBOUND, the new train will leave Denver at 4:00 P. M. and arrive Billings, 6:20 the next afternoon; SOUTHBOUND, leave Billings 7:30 A. M. and arrive Denver, 12:05 the next noon. It will carry a cafe-parlor car in each direction for the daylight trip between Billings and Casper, and standard sleepers for the night trip between Casper and Denver.

Let me send you booklets descriptive of this new country, or answer your specific inquiries about opportunities for the farmer and business man.

Lloyd's Column

Recently an Oklahoma teacher told all the boys in Jimmie's class they were to get a speech for the closing Friday, absolutely without help from anyone. When Jimmie's time came, he stepped out before a large audience and said: "No one knows my piece but the Lord and me,"—and after looking at the ceiling for a moment he added: "I believe the Lord is the only one that knows it now."

The father of a large family was trying hard to read the evening paper.

"What's that terrible racket in the hall, Martha?" he protested.

"One of the children just fell down stairs."

"Well," he replied, turning over another page of the paper, "you tell the children if they can't fall down stairs quietly, they'll have to stop it."

Ralph Hayward's latest story:

Two Fort Worth traveling men were smoking and chatting outside a theater between acts, when the figure of a man shot from the fourth story of a hotel across the street and fell into a crumpled and inanimate heap on the pavement. The drummers rushed to the hapless man, raised him to his feet and shouted for a doctor. The victim quickly came to, thanked the drummers, and began to brush off his clothes. "Aren't you badly hurt?" asked one.

The Court Says

Cut the Price on Men's Clothing and Furnishings to Cost

That is our latest instructions from the judge of the court concerning the stock for which I am assignee.

This is the Grandest Opportunity for Alliance and Box Butte Men, Young Men and Boys to supply their winter needs at a real saving of money. One family made purchases here Saturday, after looking at goods and getting prices elsewhere on which according to their own figures they saved in actual cash $26.00. You may also.

BETWEEN

$6,000 and $7,000

Worth of Stock, Seasonable and Desirable

Every dollar's worth of this stock must be sold as soon as possible in order to make settlement with the creditors. Not a cent of profit will be charged on a single article, and many garments and articles of men's furnishings will be sold below cost.

Every resident knows this is a high grade stock. The summer goods have been pretty well disposed of but the winter assortment is not yet broken. If you men are as keen to save money, if you are as judicious in your trading, as your wives are, there will be one grand rush of the men of this vicinity to supply their needs while this winter stock of the high grade line is still unbroken.

135 SUITS OF CLOTHES—48 OVERCOATS

Such high grade lines as Peckham, Mickey Freeman, Adler Bros. & Co. Coopers, Wrights, Klossit, Mesco, and other brands of winter underwear.

400 PAIRS OF SHOES

Packard, Nettleton, Myres & Brocton. These are standard makes. All sizes, and prices below cost.

STETSON, MORA, AND GATE CITY HATS.

HUNDREDS OF OTHER ARTICLES AT COST OR BELOW COST.

The assortment is complete enough now to supply all your Winter needs, and you can save almost any amount up to $50 by buying here, according to what your needs may be.

"Are any bones broken," asked another. The flying man said "No." "Why did you jump?" he was asked. "Oh, a woman lied to me," growled the man, still brushing himself. "How's that to do with it?" persisted one of the drummers. "Oh, she said her husband was in Wichita!"—Omaha Nebraskan.

"This is Mrs. Mixin," said a woman's voice to the dairy company's telephone complaint clerk. "I want to know if the cows are contented?" "Wha-a-at?" asked the amazed clerk.

"I see that your rivals advertise that their cows are all contented," said she. "I will begin to take their milk unless I am assured that your cows are all happy, too."

The clerk begged her to hold the 'phone a moment. Then he gnawed the corner of his desk. When he returned to the 'phone he said:

"I've just been looking up the books, Madam, and I'm happy to say that we have not received a complaint from a single one of our cows."

PRESBYTERIAN ANNUAL SYNOD

Representatives from Six Presbyteries of Nebraska Assembled at Madison Last Week

The annual meeting of the Nebraska synod of the Presbyterian church convened in Madison on Wednesday of last week and continued in session until Monday. It was attended by Revs. D. W. Montgomery and W. M. Seel of Alliance and other ministers from this part of the state.

The synod is composed of six presbyteries. The one comprising this part of Nebraska is known as Box Butte presbytery. The moderator (that is, the presiding officer) of the synod is elected by those composing its membership. It is a custom to permit the presbyteries to take turns in nominating the moderator. This year it was Box Butte presbytery's turn to make the nomination. Accordingly Rev. Thomas C. Osborne, pastor of the Scottsbluff Presbyterian church, was selected for the position.

The many friends of Rev. D. W. Montgomery who read The Herald will be pleased to learn that he was re-elected to the position of district missionary for northwestern Nebraska, and highly complimented for the splendid work which he has done in this country.

F. M. BROOME

After a residence in Alliance since it was established and an active interest and part in every movement for the public welfare, there is nothing that may be said that people do not know about me.

If elected, I promise to represent all of our people in accord with the wishes of those residing within the district in an honorable and faithful manner and will do no act that will reflect discreditably upon people of the district or the state.

Respectfully,
