The Rocky Mountain News, in its Wednesday issue, said:
 From all sections of the country are coming today reports of renewed activity in the most important lines of business endeavor. Apparently the pulse of business, which has been beating out feebly for a good many months, and which weakened noticeably following the breaking out of the war in Europe, has been stimulated in some effective way, and the sick patient is showing remarkable signs of response.
 The steel plant at Gary, Ind., increased operations Monday, and 6,000 men who had been temporarily laid off were put back to work. A high official of the company which operates the plant—that is, the United States Steel corporation—had this to say of conditions that resulted in the renewal of activity at Gary:
 "The bottom has dropped out of the business depression in the United States. From now on we expect an upward trend in the business thermometer all over the nation."
 At Kokomo, Ind., the big steel and wire plant which has been practically shut down for some time resumed operations Tuesday, and 2,000 men were put to work. The Pittsburg Plate Glass company announced that it would spend $200,000 in improvements at once, and a big ammunition factory at Alton, Ill., is working a full force night and day to turn out immense orders it has received from Europe. Other ammunition factories are operating under the same conditions.
 At Pittsburg new orders have been received in the past week for 18,000 tons of steel bars. The New Haven factory of the Winchester Arms company is operating 5,000 men day and night. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad announces that it will spend $13,000,000 in the next three years in the electrification of mountain lines.
 Similar reports come from every section of the country. The federal reserve bank in Chicago received more than $30,000,000 of reserve deposits Monday, and interest rates were reduced from 7 per cent to below 6 per cent. Apparently money is plentiful, despite the extraordinary demand for food abroad.
 It has been a good many months since there has been so optimistic a tone among the business men of this country as there is today. The country's crops are large and prices good. Practically every industry in this country, with the single exception of the cotton growing industry, is fundamentally in a healthful condition. Merchants and manufacturers are beginning to realize the opportunities the European war has brought to them, and to protect themselves against the trade disadvantages it has brought by the development of new markets.
 The elections are over and politics need not worry the country at large for two years more. Everybody will have an opportunity to get down to business again. The pulse of business promises to grow stronger daily now until the patient is again in robust health.

Watch for Foot and Mouth Disease
 The foot and mouth disease, which has been the source of heavy losses in several eastern states, has not reached Nebraska so far as is known, but farmers are advised by the Nebraska College of Agriculture to watch for any outbreak and report it to the state veterinarian. As the disease is extremely infectious, the most rigid care must be taken. The first symptoms are a chill followed by a fever, and a day or two later by blisters on the tongue and mouth. Eruptions similar to those on the mouth appear at the coronet and between the digits of the feet. One of the prominent symptoms is the champing of the jaws and the driving of the saliva. On a cow, eruptions may appear on the udder. The blisters are later ruptured, leaving sore spots. The soreness of the mouth, by keeping the animal from drinking and eating, greatly weakens the victim and often causes death.

The New Line Through Central Wyo.

The Burlington-Colorado & Southern joint main line between Denver, Cheyenne and Billings was opened October 18th. The new line directly connects Denver and Cheyenne with the fast developing localities about Douglas and Casper, with the famous hot springs resort, Thermopolis, and with the rich agricultural section of North Wyoming—the Big Horn Basin. It is unusually fortunate in its geographical location, as it traverses Wyoming's new agricultural and industrial localities, and connects the whole with the Burlington transportation system so closely as to lead to a rapid development of the state of Wyoming.
 Ask for the Burlington's Red Folder; note the relation of the new railroad to the Burlington System east thereof. This new road illustrates the steady pioneer work of the Burlington in its effort to open up the best agricultural, live stock, and mineral regions of the West.
 Tell your friends back east about the new line and the possibilities of increased land values in Wyoming and the North Platte Valley.

try. The meeting was held there on Monday and Tuesday. He expects to return to Alliance Friday.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
 Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.
