ALLIANCE, BOX BUTTE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1914

NO. 1

DISTRICT OFFICERS AND TEACHERS

Assessed Valuation, Levy, Census and Months of School

USEFUL INFORMATION

INTRODUCTION

On this page is given most of the contents of a school bulletin issued this month by Miss Della M. Reed, county superintendent of public instruction of Box Butte county, Nebraska, and half-time county superintendent, and the incoming county superintendent, Miss Opal Russell. The bulletins were mailed to district officers and teachers, but many others who are interested in the schools of this county will find information herein that will be interesting and convenient for them to have for reference.

During Miss Reed's incumbency of the office of county superintendent The Herald had endeavored to be helpful to her and all others of its readers who are connected with the cause of education. It is a great pleasure to note the splendid success she has attained in the administration of the affairs of the office and her well deserved popularity.

EXPLANATION

The following statement contains a list of the school district officers and teachers of Box Butte county for 1914-15, the number of months school is held in each district, school census for 1914 showing the number of children of school age, total assessed valuation, and the school tax levy. In order to condense the statement as much as possible, some words are not repeated for each district, but the statement will be easily understood by remembering that after the school district number the facts concerning it are given in the following order, except in the Alliance district, where the board of education consists of six members:

- Name of director.
- Name of moderator.
- Name of treasurer.
- Name of teacher or teachers.
- Number months school.
- Census, showing number of children of school age.
- Total assessed valuation.
- Number of mills school levy.

Map showing sections R 52, R 51, R 50, R 49, R 48, R 47 and T 28, T 27, T 26, T 25, T. The map is a grid of 36x36 sections with handwritten numbers and letters indicating specific sections and townships.

Correction: District No. 72, in Tp. 28, R. 51, should be No. 76. District No. 41 has been divided since the above map was made. A line should be drawn from east to west across Sections 34, 35 and 36. The part of the district north of the line is now District No. 100.
