Important Happenings of 1914 In Pictorial Review

JANUARY—GENERAL VILLA—General Villa was active in northern Mexico in January, advancing on Torreón. Lieut. Becker won a new trial in February, but the gun men he hired to kill Gumbler Rosenthal were condemned to death. Many lives were lost in March by the burning of a tent colony in the Colorado labor war. American marines landed at Vera Cruz April 21, losing seventeen killed and fifty-seven wounded. The steamer Empress of Ireland was sunk in the St. Lawrence by the Storstad May 28, 1,024 being drowned. Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria and his wife were assassinated June 28 by Gavrilo Princip, starting the great war in Europe. Actual hostilities started by the bombardment of Belgrade after Austria formally declared war on Serbia July 28. Louvain, Belgium, was burned Aug. 28. On Sept 3 Pope Benedict XV. was elected as the successor of Pope Pius X., who died Aug. 20. George Stallings and the Boston Braves defeated the Athletics in four straight games in October. During November thousands of Belgians, made homeless by the conflict, sought refuge elsewhere. Hospitals in all the belligerent countries were filled with wounded.

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't stay gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur darkens hair so naturally that nobody can tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 60 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

ELEGANT NEW YEAR GREETING

"Alliance's Most Pleasant Store" Sends Out a Beautiful Souvenir to Customers

The prettiest piece of printing in the form of a New Year's greeting that has been done in Alliance this year has just been issued from The Herald job department for the George A. Mollring store. This establishment has earned a reputation for good taste in its appointments, and the New Year brochure is in keeping with the general tone of his store. As a window trimmer, Mr. W. A. Mollring is a expert. His handiwork displayed in the Box Butte avenue front of the store is the admiration of many passers-by.

Under an appropriate initial ornament there is printed in artistic type on the New Year's greeting the following:

Greetings, 1915
Are you sending greetings to those of your many friends and wish you a happy and prosperous New Year.
Respectfully,
GEORGE A. MOLLRING
Alliance's Most Pleasant Store
Mrs. L. Z. Holloway,
Mrs. Cora Lewis,
Avis Joder,
Grace Spacht,
W. A. Mollring.

We Resolve
To keep sweet.
To boom business.
To stand by our guns.
To tell half we know.
To ventilate evil if we get licked twice a day.
To work for our town, our people and our country.
To be moderate in common things and hasty in few.
To pay our debts if our subscribers will pay us.
To work—since we see no way out of it.
To meddle with no one and tell you about everybody.
To give business men the best advertising medium in the country.
To make everyone that takes this paper so glad they'll recommend it to their neighbors and send it to their friends.

To come to you first, to tell you the most and please you the best, or in other words, first for news, best for home, and good for all.

they can get out of their muscles and can hope for no great change in the future, the minority use their physical capacity as a supplement to their mental capacity and expect all things of their futures. The dividing line is training, another name for education. In youth, now, you decide how you will be classed later on. Let's measure, if possible, the dollars and cents value of going to school. In the United States as a whole, taking conditions by and large, the uneducated man can not hope for more than $1.50 a day for 300 working days, or $450 a year. We'll give him the generous allowance of forty working years. Total income $18,000. Take the low estimate of $1,000 a year for the educated man. In forty years he gets $22,000 more than the untrained man. The average difference in education is less than 2,200 days. But during it 2,200, the average return earning a lifetime for each day in school is $10. Ten dollars a day! Can you beat it?"

Some New Year Advice

Don't wait for the wagon while the walking is good.
Don't grieve over spilt milk while there's one cow left in the pasture.
Don't say the world is growing worse when you are doing nothing to make it better.
Don't tell the world your troubles. You can't borrow ten dollars on them.
Don't let the grass grow under your feet. The cows can't get at it there.

One or Two?

The statement by an Iowa newspaper that one of our candidates for supreme judge was a lawyer and a gentleman puts us in mind of the Irishman who was taking a stroll thru a cemetery. He noticed this inscription on a tombstone: "Here lies the remains of a lawyer and an honest man." After gazing in profound silence for a few moments Pat exclaimed: "Begorra, who iver saw the looks of this—two men buried in wan grave?"

New Blower for Blacksmith Shop

W. L. Carroll who recently sold his interest in the H. U. Carpenter blacksmith shop to Mr. Carpenter and opened a shop for himself in the brick building on the alley back of Rodgers' grocery. He completed the equipment for the shop the first of last week by installing a new blower. Mr. Carroll subscribes for The Herald and orders an advertisement this week.

Queer Freak of Nature

Dr. L. W. Curtis, veterinarian, is exhibiting a jaw bone taken from a stallion formerly owned by Oscar Hale. In the jaw bone are twelve extra teeth, practically all in one bunch and starting from one spot. The animal was a valuable one and efforts were made to save its life by drilling through the jaw, etc., without success.

Measles at Lakeside

Dr. Geo. J. Hand was called to Lakeside the day before Christmas to attend to several cases of measles near there. There seems to be an epidemic of measles between Lakeside and Ellsworth.

Missouri is complaining of the smoke from the Arkansas forest fires. If the wind doesn't change soon we may have another war of cultures.

ORGANIZE NEW ASSOCIATION

Hemingford Men Organize for Purpose of Handling Farm Produce under Trade Commission

C. O. Rosenberger, F. W. Melick, Grant Melick, Jess Melick, Wilber Melick and Henry H. Tomlinson, of Hemingford, are organizing "The Federal Growers & Dealers' Association", for the purpose of handling farm products under the supervision of the federal trade commission. The articles of incorporation will be filed with this commission and will thus come under the direct supervision of the federal government.

The principal place of business will be at Hemingford, and according to the articles of incorporation the purpose of the organization is "to act in the capacity of growing and handling of farm products for the benefit of the incorporators and others in interstate and national shipments. To buy and sell to retail dealers, packing houses, mills and manufacturers of raw materials, consumers, national and international traders of all agriculture and live stock shipments."

Guaranteed Blacksmithing

Santa Claus for Captain Tuttle

Captain Smith P. Tuttle was agreeably surprised Christmas eve when on hearing a knock at his door, he arose and opened the door to find that there was a large stocking there, filled to the top with useful presents from his friends among the Eagles lodge.

One can't always judge a man's importance by the angle at which he wears his hat.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble—Neutralizes acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overdoing kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
