Sheriff's Sale
By virtue of an order of sale directed to me from the Clerk of the District Court of Box Butte County, Nebraska, on the 6th day of May, 1914, said Court rendered a decree in favor of Edson E. Reeder versus Plaintiff, and against John Treilweiler, Mrs. Treilweiler, wife of John Treilweiler, first and real name unknown, Mary J. Baumgardner, James N. Field, Andrew Sohler and John Doe as Defendants, for the sum of Twelve Hundred Twenty-Three dollars and forty cents, and accruing costs, I have levied upon the following described real estate taken as the property of said Defendants, to satisfy said judgment, to-wit: The Southeast Quarter (SE¹/₄) of Section Twenty (20), in Township Twenty-eight (28), North of Range Forty-seven (47), West of the Sixth Principal Meridian, in Box Butte County, Nebraska.
And will offer the same for sale to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, on the 8th day of January, A. D. 1915, in front of the west court house door at Alliance, Box Butte County, Nebraska (that being the building wherein the last term of Court was held), at the hour of one o'clock p. m., of said day, when and where due notice will be given by the undersigned.
Dated November 25th, 1914.
C. COX, Sheriff of Said County.

Mrs. McClain's Experience With Croup.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was subject to croup, and I was always alarmed at such times. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy proved far better than any other for this trouble. It always relieved him quickly. I am never without it in the house for I know it is a positive cure for croup," writes Mrs. W. R. McClain, Blainville, Pa. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

Sick Headache.
Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

LOCAL NEWS

Jasen Sheldon from Canton who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Joseph hospital recently has gone to his home fully recovered.

Marie Nolan was operated on at St. Joseph Hospital Monday, December 28, for throat trouble. She is getting along nicely at this time.

Eveline Kuhn was operated on for throat trouble Tuesday morning and is making a good recovery.

Alex Hill, of Ellsworth, an old time resident of this part of the country, suffered a stroke of apoplexy Saturday morning, December 26, and for a time it was thought he could not recover. Dr. Slagle was called to see him. His many friends will be pleased to know that he is some better at this time.

Margaret Triplett was operated on at St. Joseph Hospital Wednesday morning, December 30, and is reported by Dr. Slagle to have made reasonably good progress toward recovery. Her health has been bad for some time and considering the severity of the operation and her present state of health, more or less anxiety is felt by her friends. We are glad to know she is recovering from the operation.

CALIFORNIA CALLS YOU
Do You Want to Go to the Panama-Pacific Exposition At San Francisco As a Guest of Farm, Stock & Home
The Northwest's Foremost Farm Paper.
If you do, fill out the coupon below and mail it and find out all about it.
WRITE TODAY. DO NOT DELAY.
The trip is undoubtedly the most interesting, enjoyable and profitable that can be found anywhere in the world. The mere journey itself will be a succession of beautiful, ever-changing scenes, replete with romantic and historical associations. And besides that beautiful journey, there is California and the greatest Exposition the world has known! To mention in detail all that will be seen would be to print a guide book of the West and combine it with a comprehensive catalog of human achievement. For the Panama-Pacific Exposition will be nothing less than an exhibit of the accomplishments of civilization, shown under the very best conditions, in surroundings as beautiful as art and money can make them.
