

BRING A DOLLAR
and
GET YOUR MONEY'S WORTH
HERE YOU ARE

2 50c Bottles Liquid Veneer, 2 Liquid Veneer Dust Cloths, all for $1 } 1 Liquid Veneer Polish mop, 1 Liquid Veneer Dust Cloth, 1 #1 size Liquid Veneer, all for $1

DOLLAR DAY ONLY

And But One Combination to a Customer

GEORGE D. DARLING

115-117 West 3rd Street

LOCAL NEWS

C. T. Pigman, assistant cashier of the First State Bank, went to Broken Bow Saturday on a business trip, returning Tuesday morning.

Fred Copey, brother of A. H. Copey, who has been seriously ill, is improving at this time.

J. W. Trumbull of Lincoln, special agent for the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, was here over Sunday, visiting his father-in-law, Wm. Rust, Sr.

Vern Leonard, son of W. S. Leonard of Alliance, visited with his parents here Saturday and Sunday. He is employed by the Burlington at Lincoln as assistant rate clerk.

Dick O'Bannon returned Wednesday morning from a three days' business trip to Seward.

Walter R. Metz, city attorney, celebrated his birthday Tuesday.

P. W. Brandt is suffering from frozen feet. While feeding cattle during the recent blizzard, he had the misfortune to have both feet badly frost bitten.

Roy Strong, Jr., who has been ill several weeks, is reported much better.

A. B. Tolliff, who conducted special sales in Alliance, went to Hot Springs Wednesday, where he will conduct a special sale.

Rev. Long, of Omaha, gave a very interesting talk at the Presbyterian church Wednesday night.

Mrs. F. T. Heipbrinker entertained a number of her lady friends at cards and a kensington Tuesday afternoon. A delightful lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Andrews won the prize for the most games and Mrs. Mitchell won the cut prize.

The first of the Lenten teas given by the Woman's Guild of the Episcopal church will be next Wednesday, February 24, at the parish house. Lunch will be served from 4 until 6 o'clock, and a cordial invitation is extended to all. Mesdames Anderson, Armour, Beckwith, Holsten and Miss Eunice Burnett will be hostesses.

The Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. J. J. Vance next Wednesday afternoon.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold an exchange at the Sugar Bowl candy store, beginning Saturday afternoon.

Word has been received from Miss Della M. Reed that she has reached Nampa, Idaho, and is enjoying a visit with her parents and friends.

Mrs. S. J. West, mother of Mrs. W. R. Cunningham, arrived from Schuyler, Nebraska, to spend the balance of the winter with her daughter.

Mrs. Beck, mother of George Darling, who expected to leave Sunday. The children of R. E. Driscoll are confined to their home on account of illness.

for her home in Long Beach, has been confined to her room, and it will undoubtedly be some time before she will be able to leave.

Dr. Slagle was called to Hemingford last Friday, when he operated on Nat Olds. The last report says he is improving rapidly.

Mrs. Rolla Johnson, who was operated on some two weeks ago at St. Joseph Hospital, returned to her home at Hemingford Wednesday.

Margaret Triplett is somewhat better the last few days.

The little son of J. M. Miller was operated on for throat trouble by Dr. Slagle last Saturday.

Mrs. T. M. Waller, who underwent a serious operation the first of the week, is still in quite dangerous condition.

Mrs. S. A. Smith entertained Rev. McIntyre of Alliance and Rev. Long of Omaha at dinner Wednesday.

Mrs. Hoffland, of Reno, spent a couple of days in Alliance Tuesday and Wednesday visiting her friend Mrs. R. T. Watson.

M. P. Nason has left his bachelor quarters to spend a week or ten days with his son in the country.

Charles Trenkle, who has been ill for some time, is not recovering as rapidly as was expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Frankle returned Wednesday noon from their trip, which took about three weeks.

R. R. Kincaid of Bingham was in Alliance Tuesday on business.

Mr. Rentfro of Bingham is in Alliance. He has a small boy at the hospital with an attack of appendicitis.

The Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. Campbell, on Laramie avenue, Friday afternoon.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. M. S. Hargraves Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. F. M. Knight left Monday noon for Omaha, Chicago and other eastern points on business.

Mrs. L. H. Mosher and Mrs. E. G. Laing entertained the Baptist Aid Society at the home of Mrs. Laing Wednesday.

Mrs. Percy Cogswell entertained the P. E. O. Society Monday afternoon.

Mrs. H. C. Redinbaugh entertained the Ladies' Circle of the Christian church Wednesday afternoon.

Mesdames W. E. Lotspeich, J. A. Hunter and C. A. Dow entertained the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lotspeich.

Mrs. Martha Miller, Mrs. Alice Bignell and Mrs. Alice Fuller were initiated in the Eastern Star Tuesday evening.

Michael Nolan and Bernard Holsten returned Monday morning from a short trip in the eastern part of the state on a vacation.

Rev. G. L. Freeborn of McCook was in Alliance on business the first of the week.

Miss Nellie Cook of Scottsbluff was visiting friends in Alliance this week.

H. O. Pugh, wire chief of the Nebraska Telephone Co., left the first of the week for Sidney, Kimball and Potter on business.

Elting Bennett, who has been quite ill for some time, is able to be out again.

Mrs. T. J. Hegeman is confined to her home on account of an attack of la grippe.

The financial statement of the First State Bank is published in this issue of The Herald. It makes interesting reading and shows a steady growth since this institution was established less than a year ago. A polished brass rail, with hanging curtain, has been placed in the First State Bank.

Will Erect Storage Warehouse
John R. Snyder the transfer man will erect this spring a new storage warehouse, 50x175 feet in size, to handle his storage business. The building will be fireproof, of brick, and will be located on a sidetrack on the 50x230 foot lot recently purchased by him, northwest of the electric light plant. The cost of the warehouse will be approximately $6,000.

The best banquet of the year will be the annual Commercial Club banquet to be held on Monday, March 1st. Get your tickets early.

German Services Sunday
There will be German services at Immanuel's Lutheran church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. There will be services at the Lutheran church, Hemingford, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

500 Pairs of
Ladies' High Top and Low SHOES

Special Price Dollar Day

$1.00

SHOE  STORE

DOLLAR DAY
Flannel Shirts
all colors and all sizes
Exceptional Bargains
$1.00
E. G. LAING

Our Dollar Day
Special

Ladies Shirtwaists regular $1.75

and $1.50 values,

Saturday only

$1.00

E. C. McCluer

We are preparing some exceptional

Dollar Day Bargains

and will have them on display in our windows

Your Choice of several Bargains for

$1.00

MILLER BROS.

House Furnishing Store

BARGAINS

— FOR YOU —

Saturday

- 1 box of 25 cigars and 50c cigar lighter for $1.00
- 3 50c pound boxes of candy, for $1.00
- 1 $1.50 two-pound box of candy, for $1.00
- 4 35c boxes Home City stationery, for $1.00
- 1 $1 bottle Rexall Hair Tonic and one jar shampoo, $1.00
- 14 large 10c bars Ivory Soap, for $1.00
- 5 bottles Laxative Fig Syrup, for $1.00
- 1 $1.50 Ideal all-bristle brush, for $1.00
- 1 $1.50 Wearever hot water bottle, for $1.00
- 1 $1 alarm clock and 1 pair 50c cuff buttons, for $1.00

HOLSTEN'S
The Rexall Store

FOR CASH

1 DOZEN NO. 2 EMP-SON'S CHAMPION BRAND PEAS	$1.00	40 pounds Cabbage	$1.00
30 pounds Parsnips	$1.00	15 pounds Rice	$1.00

MALLERY'S

DOLLAR DAY