WILL REPEAT ENTERTAINMENT

Old Time Entertainment to Be Repeated at Imperial Theatre on March 8th

The Old Time entertainment, rendered at the Christian church on Monday evening of this week, was so popular that it will be repeated at the Imperial Theatre Monday evening, March 8. Many people who did not get to attend the first performance will be at the second. The program was rendered by the Christian church choir and the church was packed, every one who attended being well satisfied. The reading for the evening was furnished by Mrs. W. J. Roche. The program was printed in The Herald February 11.

WINTER SALE - WINTER GOODS

Alliance Clothing Merchant Opens Sale Saturday that Will be of Interest to Herald Readers

E. G. Laing, proprietor of "Modern Clothes for Men", announces on page eight of this issue the opening on Saturday of a sale which will be known as a "Winter Sale of Winter Goods" and which will last until Saturday evening, March 6. Mr. Laing is making low prices of his entire stock of goods. Every day of the sale will be of interest to the customer who wants big value for his money.

LODGE IS GROWING

Nearly Three Hundred Members in Alliance Castle of the Royal Highlanders

Alliance Castle No. 43, Royal Highlanders, which was organized eighteen years ago, is steadily increasing in membership. At the present time there are approximately three hundred members, which gives it the largest membership of any lodge in Alliance. The officers and members are now making a strong effort to increase the membership to the five hundred mark.

A. D. Rodgers is Illustrious Protector and L. H. Highland is the secretary-treasurer of the lodge. The entertainment committee, who are making the social features of the lodge very valuable, are T. Percy Rolison, chairman; C. Louis Griffin, Agnes E. Duncan and Vivian Z. Holloway. The Washington dance given Monday evening at Gadsby hall, the home of the lodge, was well attended and a grand success. The waltz prize for the evening was given to Will Edwards and Ethel Nation. This was the second number of the contest which includes three numbers. The first number was won by George Nation and Mrs. Agnes Duncan. The next number of the contest is to be held March 4, next Thursday.

The grand prize of the contest will be awarded to the best couple out of the three winning prizes. The contest for the grand prize is to be held on St. Patrick's Day, Wednesday, March 17.

ELKS OPENING FAIR

Entertainment Committee Plan to Hold the Fair and Gala Week Following Easter Sunday

The entertainment committee of the Elks are planning to hold the fair and gala week during the week following Easter Sunday. A pay-as-you-enter dance will be held each evening and the balance of the new temple will be occupied by sale booths. A grand prize of $100 will be given and each night there will be a door prize of $10.

The entertainment committee is Ben J. Sallows, chairman, Bruce Mallory, secretary and treasurer, Percy Cogswell, Herbert Butler, Ward Rubendall, Fred Carlson and Chase Feagins.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Cora Lewis gave a birthday party Tuesday evening at her home on Toluca avenue, for her little son, Raymond. This was his tenth birthday, and ten little boys were invited to participate in a six o'clock dinner and spend the evening. The evening was spent in playing games of all sorts. There were two prizes given, one for the little boy who placed the head of a bear pinned on the wall the nearest to where it should be, and the other placing a fan in a Chinese lady's hand. The first was won by Robert Campbell, and the latter by Stanley Wright. The prizes consisted of boxes of candy. Those present were Lester and Charles Cross, John and Stanley Wright, Paul Wolverton, Howard Hodges, Robert Campbell, Jessie Gentry, Leland Messex, Cecil Wilson. Many gifts were presented to Raymond.

QUEER QUIRKS OF NEWS

Prague, Bohemia—Owing to a general strike of printers here the leading papers have been produced by photography from typewritten copy.

Beaver City, Neb.—A farmer near here had a cow he was going to butcher the next day. When he went to kill the animal he found the hide and head piled up in the stable yard. The carcass had been stolen.

Eustis, Neb.—The baseball fans could not wait for baseball weather and a game was played here recently in the snow. The contesting teams were from Eustis and Moorefield.

Dallas, Tex.—I. E. Langston has sued the Y. M. C. A. here for $15,000 actual damages and $15,000 exemplary damages caused by the death of his son in the swimming pool of the association.

New York—Dr. W. Franklin Wood of Bay Shore made a professional call recently without driving or walking. He used a breeches buoy to reach captain McDonald of the British bark Houghomont, which is aground near Fire Island. High waves prevented the physician using a boat.

Hong Kong, China—Many Chinese temples are fitted with bells so the worshipper may signal the gods that he is ready to pray.

Paterno, Italy—Red Cross workers hearing faint groans dug out a man who had been imprisoned for 25 days by the earthquake debris. He had lived on water and was uninjured.

Sligo, Colo.—When the leader of a coyote pack was killed here recently it was found that he was a big collie dog wearing a brass collar.

Trenton, N. J.—A wife was recently divorced because her husband objected to the songs she sang their baby.

Nagasaki, Japan—In Japan the owners of land only own the surface. Whatever may be discovered beneath the surface belongs to the government.

"Are caterpillars good to eat?" asked little Tommy at the dinner table.

"No," said his father; "what makes you ask a question like that while we are eating?"

"You had one on your lettuce, but it's gone now," replied Tommy.

FINGER-PIECE EYEGLASSES

You put them on and take them off without touching the lenses. The finger-piece type of eye-glass is the only model that holds the lenses in absolute alignment. The relative position of the lenses never changes, and because of this fact the wearer always has his glasses before his eyes in exactly the position and angle originally prescribed.
