

MALINDA NEWS

Malinda, Nebr., March 6 — Still plenty of winter.

There is some complaint about the scarcity of feed on account of the continued cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Beyer and children were visitors at L. A. Dean's Sunday.

Joe Derr has a pretty cold job hauling water from L. A. Dean's this cold weather.

We would be glad to see spring open up and hear the joyous notes of the birds once more.

L. A. Dean made a business trip to Minatare Monday, returning Tuesday. He had a very rough trip of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Derr were visitors at L. A. Dean's, Wednesday.

J. W. Meek has taken charge of his cattle and is still grazing them on the Gaines Chapman ranch when the weather will permit, having leased it until April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Derr, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Miller and Troy Wentz were guests at Jos Derr's, Sunday.

Dear Friend:—

OUR RULES

When either my clerk or myself sell you a suit we strictly enforce this rule—we fit you or we won't sell you. We don't sell you a suit the coat of which you find a little too low or a little too high in the neck when you get home. You will not find the trousers too long or too short, and you will not find any other defect either. Nothing of that sort to our suits. They must fit right before they go out.

Another rule: Wool must be wool, not part cotton.

Another rule: The price is the same to everybody, and the lowest that good honest goods can be sold for.

A third rule: If by mistake anything should go wrong, or an error be made, I stand ready and willing to make good. And you won't be made to feel uncomfortable when you bring the goods back, either.

Will you take time some day to visit my store? Then you can judge if it is, or if it is not, the best place to buy.

Will you take time to see if my suits for $12.50, $15, $20, and $25, are not the best—and much the best—around this section for the price?

Will you take time to look? Will you?

Yours very truly,

E. G. Laing,
