

The WEEK'S DOINGS

W. E. Spencer, manager of the Alliance Creamery and Produce Co., went to Omaha on 4 today and will remain until Sunday attending to business matters.

Mrs. Nellie Wilson, city librarian, went to Omaha today for a few days visit.

Mrs. Gilbert W. Emery came in from Bridgeport today to attend the teachers' convention and to visit with home folks.

Barney Shepard came down from Hemingford today to attend to business matters.

Nice, juicy steaks and pork loins. You will always find them at A. D. Rodgers' Grocery Store.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Ryan will leave tonight for Omaha to attend the funeral of Mr. Ryan's cousin, Tom Ryan, who died Wednesday.

Cecil Clark, a teacher in the Hemingford district, came down today to attend the convention.

Fred Gilbert, deputy Yeoman organizer, returned home today from Hemingford, where he had been for the past several days organizing a lodge. Mr. Gilbert reports good success, and the lodge there will start out with a healthy membership.

J. J. McKenna, brother-in-law of D. G. Bates, the Singer sewing machine man, arrived today from San Francisco for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bates.

Furniture and rugs for sale at sacrifice prices. GEO. J. HAND. 16-4f-5341

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Maloney spent Sunday in Hyannis.

The Alliance Grocery Company are having their store room remodeled. New fixtures are being installed.

H. S. Coulson of Sturbin, Grant county, stopped over in Alliance for the J. E. Wilson public sale which was to have been held today but which was postponed one week on account of bad weather.

Dr. C. E. Slagle is in Omaha attending clinic. He left Sunday and expects to return Saturday or Sunday.

Furniture and rugs for sale at sacrifice prices. GEO. J. HAND. 16-4f-5341

Mrs. Al Sieffert expects to leave next Wednesday for an extended eastern visit to her old home. She will go first to Broken Bow, Neb., where she will visit for some time. She will then go on to Ottawa, Ill. She expects to be gone about two months.

B. V. Reeves has received word from the superintendent of the I. O. O. F. home at York that some of the children in the home were confined with smallpox, his oldest daughter being one of those afflicted.

L. F. McCarthy, who was sent from Alliance to the asylum at Hastings last week, in custody of Sheriff Cal Cox, was released from there after being held for a few days. His mental troubles were blamed mostly to too much liquor and after getting sobered up he appeared to be in good mental condition. He has gone to the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Sturm, in the eastern part of the state.

Nice, juicy steaks and pork loins. You will always find them at A. D. Rodgers' Grocery Store.

If you know an item of interest, don't fail to phone The Herald. We are trying to print all the news, but occasionally an item of importance gets past us. Let us know who is visiting you or who you are visiting. We'll appreciate it.

M. W. Dineen was here from Geneva Tuesday looking after business matters. Mr. Dineen is one of the old-timers in the Geneva neighborhood, having lived there for the past sixteen years, four of which he spent as sheriff of Fillman county. He was very favorably impressed with Alliance, and it is probable that he will decide to locate here in the near future.

The Alliance Male Quartette will open the program at the district declamatory contest, which will be held at the opera house tonight, and will render several selections throughout the evening. This is one of Alliance's newest musical organizations, and they are meeting with an encouraging reception.

Mrs. L. S. Gosmer was here from Hemingford Tuesday and Wednesday preparing her graduating program at the School of Music.

Furniture and rugs for sale at sacrifice prices. GEO. J. HAND. 16-4f-5341

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Beckwood arrived Tuesday morning from Waco, Texas, for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

The steel window shutters for the court house have arrived and are now installed. There are ten of the window shutters, each window in the vaults being so equipped. These make the possibility of fire or entrance from the outside impossible.

New plate glass windows were installed in the Norton business block the first of this week to replace the ones which were recently broken.

The principal streets have been put through a course of dragging during the past few days, which has greatly improved them.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rhodes arrived Tuesday from Skiatook, Oklahoma, Mr. Rhodes having joined The Herald force. The newcomers are Alliance boosters already, as they are well pleased with the town and people.

Mrs. DeLos Barber came over on Monday from their ranch near Lakeside for a few days visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Cupp. Mrs. John Willetts arrived Monday from Butte, Montana, for a visit with Mrs. Barber, and will return with her to the ranch as soon as the weather will permit.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Johnson departed Tuesday night for Holdrege, where they will visit for a short time with relatives and friends. From Holdrege they will go to Ames, Iowa, where Mr. Johnson has the offer of a good position as manager of a creamery.

Postmaster Tash received an official communication from Washington the first of the week stating that the salary of Miss Edna J. Benedict was increased from $900 to $1,000 a year, and Fred E. Feagin's salary raised from $800 to $900, to become effective on April 1.

A. Gregory, city treasurer, returned this morning from a two weeks visit at Idaho Falls and Thermopolis, Idaho, where he and his family had been visiting with relatives and friends. He left his family at Thermopolis, as their daughter Mildred had contracted measles at that place, and they will follow as soon as she recovers.

C. R. Smith stopped off Thursday noon between trains to visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Bates, on his way home to Crawford from Mountain Home, California, where he had been to attend the general conference of the Seventh Day Adventists church.

Painters are at work on the inside of the Burlington station this week, and are making a great improvement in the appearance of the woodwork.

Mrs. T. P. Barry arrived Wednesday from Spokane and remained until Thursday noon visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. P. Wakeman. From here Mrs. Barry went to Antioch, where her husband now is and where they will make their future home.

All the visiting teachers are being well taken care of, and are loud in their praise of the hospitality being shown them. A committee compos-

Our Biggest Sale of Under-muslins

COMMENCES SATURDAY, MARCH 27

We invite you to come and compare these garments with others sold at even greater prices. They are made by the best known manufacturer in the trade.

STEIN-BLOCH SMART CLOTHES
W. R. HARPER
DEPARTMENT STORE
ALLIANCE, NEB.

The low price, high quality and variety of goods commends this sale to the woman who buys with a critical eye.

Spring Style Show Week

It is Easy to Understand Why Collegian Clothes Are Popular

Clothes which excel in service need no newspaper advertising; the men who wear them advertise them.

However, there is a special Collegian suit or two that we want to bring to the attention of every one who attends the style show, who are not familiar with

Collegian Clothes
$20 or $25

Both tailored to perfection. Both made with narrow shoulders, slim waist and soft front—one in the ultra novel Glen Urquhart Plaid, dark gray—the other in a light gray worsted check with a faint Purple Over Plaid.

Both all wool of the very best quality, with the personal guarantee of E. G. LAING, and backed up with the guarantee of Adler's Collegian Clothes.

E. G. Laing

"Modern Clothes for Men"

ALLIANCE : : NEBRASKA

HOTEL HARNEY

EUROPEAN

Chas. C. Sorensen,
Proprietor

14th and Harney Streets
Omaha, Nebraska

All outside rooms, with all modern conveniences. Located in center of business district.

On direct car line to South Omaha, Council Bluffs and all depots.

Strictly fireproof and modern.

Rates: With bath, $1.50 up.
Without bath, $1.

ALLIANCE FOLKS ASTONISH DRUGGIST

We sell many good medicines but we are told the mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka, is the best we ever sold. Alliance folks astonish us daily by telling how QUICKLY Adler-I-ka relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation. Many report that A SINGLE DOSE relieves these troubles almost IMMEDIATELY. We are glad we are Alliance agents for Adler-I-ka. H. Thiele, druggist.—Adv

Proper Treatment for Biliousness

For a long time Miss Lula Skelton, Churchville, N. Y., was bilious and had sick headache and dizzy spells. Chamberlain's Tablets were the only thing that gave her permanent relief. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Keep Your Bowels Regular

As everyone knows, the bowels are the sewerage system of the body, and it is of the greatest importance that they move once each day. If your bowels become constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets just after supper and they will correct the disorder. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

HERALD WANT ADS PAY.