The 36x66 addition to the Nicolai garage is being completed, and is being floored with concrete throughout. The increasing business at the Reo garage has necessitated the building of this addition, and as soon as it is completed there will be plenty of room. Mr. Nicolai anticipates a good automobile business this spring and summer, and is preparing to handle his share of it.

C. E. Wills, in charge of the government drainage project near Mitchell, passed through Alliance Tuesday enroute for the east on a business and pleasure trip.

Run your auto on Raco-Gasoline. More power and greater efficiency. At the Reo Garage, 18c per gallon. 17-1f-5345

W. H. Zehrung & Co. are now back in business in Alliance. They have purchased a new auto truck, and are going after the business in earnest. As their ad states, they do painting and paper hanging, auto and sign painting and rug cleaning, and guarantee satisfaction. The new company is starting right by advertising in The Herald, and they will no doubt enjoy a good business.

The next Commercial Club smoker is April 12, at the opera house.

Those present were Misses Helen Hewitt, Ruth Nation, Nellie Wright, Ruth Sturgeon, Izetta Renwald, Edith Vanderwart, Dolly Hagaman, Nina Whaley and Miss Canfield.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to Miss Anna K. Sorenson and Richard S. Smith, both of Angola, and they were united in marriage the same day by Rev. Baker at the Methodist parsonage. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Severin Sorenson. Mr. Smith is a contractor at Angola. The best wishes of their friends go with them in wishing them a smooth voyage on the sometimes ruffled sea of matrimony.

In conversation with a Herald representative Friday, Judge W. W. Wood, commissioner of the local land office, stated that this was the worst winter he had seen in the country for thirty years. He had been living here. Eight years ago, according to Mr. Wood, the leaves were very noticeable on the trees, and there were signs of spring everywhere. The exceptionally bad weather of this year has been general, and this part of the country has been no more unfortunate than all other places.

Mrs. George E. Davis, Worthy Matron of the Alliance Chapter O. E. S., went to Seneca last Saturday accompanied by eleven other members of the local chapter, where a new chapter was constituted. The party was joined at Hyannis by three members of that chapter, who assisted them in exemplifying the work. The visitors were afterward treated to an elegant banquet. On Sunday Mrs. Davis went to Kimball where she constituted another chapter, officers from Sidney exemplifying the work on Monday afternoon, and the officers of the Pine Bluff, Wyo., chapter taking charge Monday evening. Five Bros. musical evangelists, have been secured by the Christian church, and meetings are being held the latter part of this week and the first of next. These people have an excellent reputation, and those who have already heard them claim it is an extraordinary attraction. They have about $2,500 worth of musical instruments. A cordial invitation is extended everyone to attend these meetings.

Told That There Was No Cure for Him

"After suffering for over twenty years with indigestion and having some of the best doctors here tell me there was no cure for me, I think it only right to tell you for the sake of other sufferers as well as your own satisfaction that a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets not only relieved me but cured me within two months although I am a man of 65 years," writes Jul. Grobien, Houston, Texas. Obtainable everywhere.
