

Exchange Gossip

Judge Westover and J. D. Scott returned Saturday evening from Alliance where they had been for three weeks holding court. Mrs. Westover, who had been over there for a week visiting returned with them. * * * Bert A. Fernengel took his departure Monday morning for somewhere and tacked a sign on his door to the effect that his tailor shop would be closed until Wednesday or Thursday morning. Bert has been prospecting in other towns quite frequently of late, and we hear rumors that he is looking up a new location. Bert returned Wednesday and informed us that he had purchased a tailor shop at Alliance and this would be his last week in Rushville. We know of no one who will be so much missed in Rushville as Bert.—Rushville Standard.

Mrs. Margareta Schmidt of Mason City, who has been missing from her home since the first of April, has at last been traced to a point in Montana, and her family hope that they may be able to definitely locate her in a short time. Mrs. Schmidt was supposed to have bought a ticket for Broken Bow on April 1, but later investigation showed that she had purchased it for Alliance. It is thought her mind has fallen here. She is 49 years of age and the wife of Matthias Schmidt of Mason City.—Omaha Bee.

A. V. Gavin, chief dispatcher of the Burlington, with headquarters at Alliance, paid the local office a business visit on Wednesday. He was accompanied by E. W. Bell, also of Alliance.—Broken Bow Chief.

J. T. Wiker and wife, of Alliance, were in the city yesterday and this morning and succeeded in disposing of several pianos at Fort Robinson, in which business they are engaged. They returned to Alliance this morning with Geo. Snyder and C. H. Carmine in the car of the latter. Messrs. Carmine and Snyder were demonstrating the Overland cars, for which they are agents.—Crawford Tribune.

Mr. Bicknell of Alliance spent a couple of days in Bridgeport this week, looking over the field with a view to establishing a creamery and ice cream plant here. The advantages of Bridgeport as a shipping point appeals to Mr. Bicknell and if he is given sufficient encouragement he will engage in business here. It is understood he expects the business men of Bridgeport and patrons of the creamery to take $5,000 in stock in the creamery. He will return shortly to submit his proposition to those who may be interested.—Bridgeport News-Blade.

Superintendent W. M. Weidenhamer, Trainmaster J. D. Nelson, and Roadmaster C. N. Johnson, of Alliance division of the Burlington, visited Theford Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. They were on a tour of inspection. The conditions here were found quite satisfactory with the exception of the super-abundance of freight scattered about the right of way near the depot. On discovering that the freight room was filled to overflowing there was a quick subsiding of the rising waters. Station Agent R. E. Jones and helper Marvin Upson contemplate the visit with pleasure.—Theford Herald.

Alliance is making a campaign to clean out the hoboes and undesirable elements from their city. * * * We notice by the Alliance papers that that city has their band reorganized and are led to remark that Minatare would do well to encourage the same kind of a move here. There is plenty of good talent in Minatare to organize as good a band as can be found in the west.—Minatare Reporter.

The Alliance and Bingham people were much stirred up over a report that a man four miles east of Bingham had been found murdered. A tramp drifted into Bingham and told the story of his making such a find. People from both towns made up searching parties but no trace found of the supposed dead man. It will be remembered here that such a story was told by a stranger of finding three dead men up in the sandhills, and it proved to be purely a fabrication, although in this instance the party making the find accompanied the searching party and took them to the spot where he said he saw them lying, and stoutly maintained until the last that he had actually seen the corpses.—Oshkosh Herald.

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Files of The Alliance Herald of March 9, 1905

Passenger train No. 44, of yesterday, in charge of Conductor McDonald, is stuck in the snow eight miles this side of Deadwood. No. 43, in charge of Conductor McClellan, is laid up at Hill City on account of the snow. The worst blizzard of the season is raging in the Black Hills. Snow is from two to three feet deep and drifting badly.

A reception and banquet was tendered to John R. Phelan, who was promoted from division superintendent to general superintendent of the Burlington here. More than 60 of the most prominent citizens were at the banquet. Among the guests were J. Kridelbaugh, agent at Omaha, R. D. Smith, superintendent of motive power west of the Missouri river, E. W. Fitt, assistant superintendent of motive power, D. F. McFarland, division superintendent, Sterling, Colo., and B. S. Marvin, trainmaster, Sterling, Colo.

All arrangements for the organization of the Knights of Columbus in this city have been perfected, and the work of initiation will take place Sunday afternoon and evening at the Elks Hall. The banquet, which promises to be an elaborate affair, will be held at the opera house.

The Elks hall is about ready for the initiation Saturday night. The partitions are in, the plastering is about all done, and the painting and plumbing about completed. The committee on entertainment have made all arrangements to meet the incoming trains from the east, west and south. The city is decorated in purple and white, the Elks colors, in honor of the occasion.

At an early hour yesterday morning, thieves broke into "The Right" clothing store and carried off enough goods to start a haberdashery.

The new city officials took charge Tuesday night. The following committees were appointed by Mayor Buechsenstein and ratified by the council: Finance and purchasing, Mollring and MacRae; fire and water, Mollring and Joder; ordinance, Franklin and MacRae; street and alley, Joder and MacRae; license, Mollring and MacRae; printing and claims, Mollring and MacRae; health, Franklin and Joder; president of the council, F. H. Mollring; attorney, R. C. Noleman; city physician, Dr. H. H. Bellwood; scavenger, Nathan Taylor; marshal and street commissioner, M. A. Shay; city treasurer and water commissioner, F. M. Knight; the Herald was designated as the official city paper.

The gong on the burglar alarm at the First National Bank got started in some manner, and awoke people all over town. Glen Hampton, the cashier, was called from the opera house where he was attending a show to shut the thing off, which he did.

How Mrs. Harrod Got Rid of Her Stomach Trouble

"I suffered with stomach trouble for years and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them at our drug store. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness after eating and from pain in the stomach," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Fort Wayne, Ind. Obtainable everywhere.

Miss Jane Adams has been made chairman of the Peace Conference at The Hague. Now there are a lot of men in Alliance (all married of course) who will agree that a woman has no business in a place where peace is concerned.

A headline states that "there is a handsome profit in the hauling of meat". Most of us are of the opinion that all the profit is in selling it.

A ranchman near Sheridan, Wyoming, killed a man whom he found in his house upon his return. Moral: Keep out of some other man's house.

Why should a woman try to know a man's mind, when she don't even know her own?

WHOLE FAMILY DEPENDENT

Mr. E. Williams, Hamilton, Ohio, writes: "Our whole family depend on Pine-Tar-Honey." Maybe someone in your family has a severe cold—perhaps it is the baby. The original Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is an ever ready household remedy—it gives immediate relief. Pine-Tar-Honey penetrates the linings of the Throat and Lungs, destroys the Germs, and allows Nature to act. At your druggist, 25c. Adv.—No. 3.

Meeting of School Board

The school board meeting was held Monday evening, and at this meeting the new members, Mrs. I. E. Tash and Edgar Martin, took the places of Mrs. C. E. Wills and W. E. Spencer for the three year terms.

It was decided to carry the Beck case to the supreme court. It will be remembered that in the district court last month, the plaintiff was awarded a verdict of $1,000.

The usual number of sundry bills were allowed.

Booster Club Campaign

Announcement

The Practical Advertising Company, of Springfield, Ill., is going to organize a Booster Club in this community.

Community Builders

This company comes with a reputation as a community helper. Through interchange of ideas, each Booster town gains something from other Booster towns. Each member of the Booster Club, besides the material benefits offered, is given a thorough correspondence course in modern business methods. Many young people have risen to positions of trust and responsibility through the direct influence of their Booster Club training.

Besides the business training received, the members of the Booster Club are going to have social amusement. There will be entertainment galore, not only for the Boosters, but for their friends as well.

We are looking forward to a very pleasant time.
