Killing Prairie Dogs

Is your land infested with prairie dogs? Is your range damaged and your crops endangered with this pest? For thirty-five years I have been killing these pests with a method of my own that does the work quickly and surely. My outfit will operate in western Nebraska during the coming season.

Anyone desiring the prairie dogs on their land killed should communicate with me without delay. My contract price for the work is only thirty-five cents per acre and I charge only for the ground that is infested with the dogs. I will sell the rights for this business for this part of Nebraska to any reliable person or persons.

Call on or write me at the Nebraska Rooming House, in Alliance. If I am not there you can see my representative. Or call at The Herald office and they will locate me for you.

SURPRISES MANY IN ALLIANCE

The QUICK action of simple buck-thorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis, is surprising Alliance people. Many have found that this simple remedy drains so much foul matter from the system that A SINGLE DOSE relieves constipation, sour stomach and gas on the stomach almost immediately. Adler-ika is the most thorough bowel cleanser ever sold. H. THIELE, Druggist.

Exchange Gossip

The three children of Chas. Loosvelt came over from Alliance Saturday. They have been attending school there. Mrs. Loosvelt came up to meet them. * * * W. W. Wood, of Alliance, now being a man of leisure, having yielded his office to his successor, T. J. O'Keefe, was a Rushville visitor Saturday, remaining several days on business. Mr. Wood is so much thinner than he used to be, when residing here, that some of his friends did not recognize him. However, he assures us he is well, in health, though rheumatism has bothered him a good deal this year.—Rushville Recorder.

The Alliance boosters visited Gering yesterday as per announcement, about a dozen autos making the trip here, several having been laid out on the route. Secretary Fisher of the Commercial Club, Geo. Mollring, A. D. Rodgers and others were in the party, and they put up a strong bunch of talk for the big stock convention week, June 15 to 18.—Gering Courier.

H. E. Rhodes, representative of the Alliance Herald, was a pleasant caller yesterday, and looked over our new machine. He was with the booster club, and was well pleased with the reception given him in the city. * * * Yesterday eleven autos carrying some sixty business men and city officials of Alliance, arrived in our city and distributed advertising and souvenirs to our citizens, inviting us to attend the Stockmen's Convention, which will be held in that city June 14 to 18, and at which time the people over there expect to put on a great celebration, and it is figured that stockmen from the panhandle of Nebraska will be there in force. This annual event has for a number of years been a great event to the people of the northwestern part of the state, and Alliance has always given the public a splendid entertainment. Every stockman from this part of the country will find it to his advantage to attend the meeting this year.—Scottsbluff Republican.

The booster crowd from Alliance, about twenty cars, were in through this place on schedule time Monday morning. The unsettled weather was responsible most likely for there not being many times as many cars making the trip. * * * J. R. Blackmer made an over-Sunday night visit in Alliance, returning on No. 43. He was disappointed in not getting his mail before going on out home, but Monday was a legal holiday, and Uncle Sam's postoffice officials are to keep closed shop, except for stated hours. * * * Messrs. Fisher and Rundin, commercial club secretaries, were here from Alliance, about noon Saturday, putting out markers and signs along the Denver-Deadwood loop cut-off between Alliance and Crawford. The iron pipe markers are placed at the turns of the road, and the markers are practically indestructible, and on them one may learn the distance to the larger towns, each way.—Marsland Tribune.

Robert Graham, Simon Spry and Arthur Feagins and wife autoted to Broadwater Tuesday for the Bennett-Wright wedding. * * * Arthur Feagins has sold his ranch in the sand hills and purchased business property in Alliance where he expects to move in the near future.—Broadwater News.

A loud explosion startled many of Bridgeport's people last Wednesday night and wonder grew as to what had happened. Ed Slimm had been repairing the tank of his automobile and having it drained thoroughly was heating it over a blaze to remove the pipe. It is presumed gas was generated from the gasoline fumes, and the result was that both ends of the tank were blown out while Ed was holding it in his hands. It is a miracle how he escaped, but he has only one damaged finger to show as a result of his experience and he has another tank installed to replace the old one.—Bridgeport News-Blade.

Some eleven autos loaded with Alliance boosters are in Scottsbluff this afternoon, in an effort to create interest in the Stockmen's Convention soon to be held in that city. The company was headed by Secretary W. D. Fisher, of the Alliance Commercial Club, one of the liveliest wires in western Nebraska, and a man who is doing a lot of profitable advertising of Alliance and its resources. A balloon ascension had been advertised, and a large crowd gathered, but Mr. Fisher was unfortunate and after two attempts gave up the idea.

The following counties will have their special days at the Stockmen's Convention at Alliance: June 16, Grant, Hooker, Garden, Thomas and Sheridan; June 17, Morrill, Scotts Bluff, Cheyenne Kimball and Banner; June 18, Dawes, Sioux and Box Butte.—Scottsbluff Star-Herald.

About 12:30 p. m. Monday the Alliance boosters arrived in the city and were met by a delegation of the Crawford people at the outskirts of the city and escorted to the public square. The Crawford Chamber of Commerce band was out and met the visitors at South Second street. There were seventeen cars of the boosters and after they had taken dinner at the several hosteries they were shown about the city and taken to Ft. Robinson. The visitors expressed themselves as being well pleased with the reception accorded them by the Crawford people and promise to return the compliment when the Crawford boosters go to Alliance. About 3 o'clock the visitors started for Chadron where they expected to take supper and then continue to Alliance. They were all good fellows and a cordial welcome is extended to them to visit our city again.—Crawford Courier.

Link Lowry of Alliance was in town Thursday in the interest of his automobile business.—Bayard Transcript.

Judge W. H. Westover spent several hours between trains in this city on Tuesday, being on his return home from Alliance, where he held a short session of court. * * * Mrs. J. M. Willis, of Alliance, left Wednesday morning for her home, after a several days visit at the L. T. Poole home in this city.—Crawford Tribune.

Miss Lena Westover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Westover, who have a ranch northeast of Ashby, has returned home for the summer vacation, having been a student at St. Agnes academy in Alliance during the past year.—Hyannis Tribune.

Mrs. R. Rawley returned Tuesday from Alliance, having attended the commencement exercises of the high school at that place as one of the graduates was her daughter.—Ashby Argus.

Many Reo Automobiles
J. L. Nicolai, proprietor of the Reo Garage, has received another carload of the late Reo autos. He now has a full stock of both "Fours" and "Sixes" but at the rate they have been going they will not last long. The Reo is a very popular western car.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Brush this through faded, lifeless locks and they become dark, glossy, youthful.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

WILL ERECT BRONZE STATUE

Noted Sculptor Passes Thru Alliance Enroute to Lead, S. D.

F. L. Kimball, the Lincoln sculptor, passed thru Alliance yesterday morning enroute to Lead, S. D., where he went to meet a committee having in charge the erection of a statue of Thomas Johnston Grier, late general superintendent of the Homestake mine. The statue, which is to be of bronze, seven feet tall, will be erected in the city of Lead and will be paid for by popular subscription among employees of the Homestake and others who wish to honor the memory of Mr. Grier.

Mr. Kimball, who is a member of the firm of Kimball Brothers, Lincoln, has acquired a fine reputation as a sculptor. At Lead he will probably come into competition with sculptors from Chicago and other large cities. If he succeeds in landing the order, he will have placed another "feather in his cap" as a sculptor. Readers of this paper, who are mostly Nebraskans, will join The Herald in wishing him success at Lead.
