Geo. D. Workman

OBITUARY

Miss Ida Pilger was born at Stanton, Nebraska, October 18, 1883. She attended school at Hooper, Nebraska, where she graduated. At the age of fourteen she was baptized in the Methodist church and lived with her parents at Hooper until she was seventeen years of age, when they moved to Alliance, in the spring of 1900.

On February 6, 1901, she was married to George A. Hills. They made their home most of the time at Alliance until her death, on June 2, 1915. The funeral service was held at the First Presbyterian church on Friday, June 4, the funeral being conducted by Rev. McIntyre. Members of the I. O. O. F., M. B. A., and F. O. E. lodges acted as pallbearers. Mrs. Hills is survived by her husband, George A. Hills; her father, Julius Pilger; and two sisters, Miss Violet Pilger and Mrs. Mildred Woodward.

The funeral was attended by the father of Mrs. Hills and by her sister, Miss Violet Pilger, and by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clough, of Minatare, relatives of Mr. Hills. There were many beautiful floral remembrances. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the floral remembrances, the wreaths, the many kind words, acts and expressions of sympathy rendered during the sickness and death of our beloved wife, daughter and sister, Mrs. Geo. A. Hills.

Resolutions of Condolence

WHEREAS, our Heavenly Father, in his all wise goodness, has seen fit to remove from this earth the beloved wife of our brother, George A. Hills, we, the members of Alliance lodge No. 168, I. O. O. F., in session assembled this 8th day of June, 1915, RESOLVE that we extend our sympathy to our brother, Geo. A. Hills, in this bereavement and in his hour of grief.

RESOLVED that we publish a copy of this resolution in the local newspapers and that a copy be forwarded to Brother Hills.
