Of course—we all know that clothes don't make the man, but we DO know that they make his appearance. The well-dressed man always shows up to best advantage, no matter where he goes. We don't believe in deceitfulness, but we do believe that every man is entitled to at least one good suit of clothes, an overcoat, a hat and a pair of shoes, and in these days of prosperity and the reasonable price of clothes any man can afford such an outfit. "Dress Up" is the national slogan these days, and every man can heed it. In preparation for the event we have secured a varied and classy showing of all that's new in

SANFORD SMITH IN TOILS

Negro Who Robbed Sunny Jim's Place Two Years Ago Returned to Alliance Too Soon

Because he violated his "parole" by returning to Alliance, Sanford Smith, a negro, was arrested last week and is languishing in the city jail. It was Smith who, about two years ago, entered Sunny Jim Donovan's place on Box Butte, removed the safe to the alley, broke it open with a rock and secured the contents, amounting to several dollars. Two times he has been assisted out of town by the police force, but just that many times he had a strong inclination to come back, both times to his sorrow. This time the police decided to give him enough of it—sufficient that when he is turned loose he will get out of town and stay.

Smith seems to be a ringleader among the colored gentry, and has a mean disposition when aroused, and he is aroused most of the time when he is at large. He is more than six feet tall and is built like a prizefighter, and he usually has his way when he gets on a rampage until an officer arrives on the scene.

Give Kickapoo Worm Killer a chance and if worms are there this humanly harmless remedy will eliminate the annoying parasites. 25c a box. Adv.—No 3

IDENTIFIED THE SHOP

But Pawnbroker at Lincoln Said Brenkley Didn't Pawn Anything in His Store

When Sheriff Cox was in Lincoln, at the time of taking Charley Brenkley to the penitentiary, he decided he would get the watch the prisoner had pawned and return it to the owner here, Ernest Becker. Just before being taken out to Lancaster Brenkley pointed out the pawnshop, and Sheriff Cox decided he would wait until his return into Lincoln to secure the stolen goods.

Enlisting the aid of the chief of police and a plain clothes man, he went to the pawnshop, but the owner denied that he had ever purchased such a watch, and it was found that he had not made a return on it in giving in his report to the police department, as Lincoln uses the same system as Alliance regarding money-lenders. Not to be outdone, Sheriff Cox returned to the penitentiary, secured the permission of the warden and returned to the pawnshop with Brenkley. Even facing this evidence the pawnbroker still denied that Brenkley had ever been in the store.

The police at Lincoln are still working on the case in hope that they may get evidence of some kind against the broker. They say that if he does not produce the watch or the amount of the loan, $3.75, they will revoke his license, and it is probable that the broker will hand over the amount before giving up his lucrative business.

KEELER BLOCK COMPLETED

Moving of Keeler-Coursey Garage to the New Home Will Start the First of Next Week

The new Keeler building on East Third street is now completed, and will be occupied by the Keeler-Coursey company with the Ford garage next week. The work of moving will probably be started Monday, and it will require three or four days to get the machinery and supplies moved and in operation.

The Keeler building is built especially for garage purposes, the front being nearly all plate glass and both sides of the building being fitted with many windows. The floor is entirely of concrete, and the building occupies a space of 50x130 feet. A space 25x50 feet has been reserved and fitted for a show room, and it will make an excellent place to exhibit the cars.

The work room is modern in all respects, and is equipped with the most modern machinery. There is storage space for sixty large cars. The second story extends twenty-five feet back from the front, and is the width of the building. Part of it is used for housekeeping rooms, and there is one large room especially fitted for a ladies' rest room which will be more than welcome, especially during Market Week.

The Keeler-Coursey garage is now one of the largest and best equipped in the state.

BOX BUTTE TO THE FRONT

Ranks Seventh in Average Wheat Yield per Acre over the State—State Crop 67,053,520 Bu.

Box Butte county ranks seventh in the average wheat yield per acre over the state for 1915, according to the table just issued by the state board of agriculture. In other words, there are sixty-eight counties with averages below that of Box Butte.

Nebraska's winter wheat crop this year will total 67,053,520 bushels, an increase of 3,267,260 bushels over last year. This estimate is based on the very conservative returns given to the precinct assessors of the state. The average bushel gain is nine-tenths, or a total of 19.7 bushels per acre, as against 18.8 for 1914. The 1914 crop totaled 3,300,000 bushels more than the 1913 crop, so the 1915 crop goes ahead of two years by more than 6,500,000 bushels.

Hamilton county leads this year in acreage, with 152,356 acres, but its average yield per acre is only 29.8. The lowest acreage was in Grant county—seven acres. Holt county has the lowest yield per acre, with fourteen bushels. Duell county heads the yield with an average of 39.6 bushels to the acre. Next in order come Burt county, with 28.7 bushels; Keith county, with 27.8 bushels; Lincoln county, with 27.4 bushels; Cheyenne county, with 26.5 bushels; and Cuming county, with the same average as Cheyenne. Box Butte's average was 24.2, so it will be seen that a difference of four-tenths would have given Box Butte fifth place instead of seventh. But even with seventh it ranked right up with the best of them.

Fire in Duell Shed

The fire alarm was sounded about 1 o'clock Tuesday morning and the department was called to the Rowan & Wright coal sheds, which were just starting to blaze. How the fire started is a mystery, and it is assumed that it started from spontaneous combustion. The damage was about $35. The fire department encountered some difficulty in getting at the fire, as it was in a corner and much of the coal had to be removed before it could be reached.
