LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. John Grommett was here from Marsland Sunday visiting her husband, who is confined in the hospital as a result of an accident in the pumping station at Marsland two weeks ago, in which he sustained several broken bones and serious internal injuries. His condition is improving, but it will be some time before he will be able to be about again.

Marcus Frankle returned Monday from Chicago, where he had been to attend the National Clothiers association convention, which was held there last week.

True Miller, of Marsland, was in town Sunday with a real, live porcupine that he caught on Running Water creek. The "animule" was exhibited all day Sunday in front of Geo. Snyder's cigar store, and it excited much attention and comment from passers-by. This porcupine must have "strayed" from its native haunts to this part of the country, as it is the first Mr. Miller or anyone else has seen that was caught in this country.

C. Penneyueck and wife arrived the latter part of last week from Sheridan, Wyo., to make their home in Alliance. Mr. Penneyueck travels for the Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company.

Mrs. George Darling and baby are visiting at the Richardson ranch this week.

W. R. Harper spent the first of the week in Denver looking after business matters.

Next week is "Wooltex Week" at the Horace Bogue store. This week is observed by Wooltex garment dealers all over the United States, and they then make a special effort to appraise the public of the excellent qualities of these garments. The Wooltex line is well known here, as Mr. Bogue has handled it for several years, and the week will no doubt result in many sales.

Sister Lucy, of St. Francis hospital at Grand Island, was here the first of this week securing potatoes for the institution for the coming year. St. Francis has on an average of one hundred patients, and uses a car load of potatoes a year, this amount being secured here.

Mrs. B. F. Frederick, of St. Joe, who had been here for the past week visiting with her sister, Mrs. O. E. Williams, and family, returned to her home Tuesday.

Leonard Colgan came down from Edgemont Tuesday to assist Mrs. Agnes Duncan and L. E. McElhaney with the music for the Columbus Day dance. Mr. Colgan plays clarinet.

Mrs. D. E. Rost stopped off here the first of this week on her way to her home at Page, Nebr., after a visit at the San Francisco exposition. While here she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davidson.

Mrs. Charlotte Templeton, secretary of the state library commission of Lincoln, was in the city on Tuesday visiting with Mrs. Jerry Rowan and other friends. She also spent some time at the city library inspecting the work done there, and looking after other interests pertaining thereto. Mrs. Templeton was very well pleased with the work as it is directed thru the efforts of the librarian, Mrs. Wilson, and was very complimentary in her remarks as to the condition of the records and everything connected with this institution. Surely Alliance people should appreciate more and more the advantages derived from having current and late literature so near at hand.

All those who have been kind enough to volunteer the use of their cars for the Box Butte County Fair Association lot sale on Wednesday, October 20, will please try to be upon the street and ready for passengers at 10 a. m. on that day, and you will please call at the Commercial Club

AUTO TURNED TURTLE
Occupants and Car Suffered Injuries When Machine Turned over on the Road to Alliance
Joe Manion suffered several cuts on the back of his right hand; his daughter Josephine was badly cut on the face and arms, and Mrs. Manion and a laborer on the Manion ranch were slightly bruised when they were coming to Alliance Wednesday morning in their Dodge car.
The daughter was driving, and they were coming down a rather steep hill when the accident occurred. Miss Josephine started to apply the brakes, and when the car did not respond readily she became excited and lost control. It is almost a mystery how the occupants escaped with such slight injuries, but it was probably on account of the soft ground when the machine went over. The windshield was broken squarely off, and the bits of flying glass caused the injuries to Mr. Manion and his daughter.

ter. Mrs. Manion and the laborer were in the rear seat, and this accounted for their escape from serious injury. All were thrown clear of the car. The accident occurred about four miles from the Manion home, and about twelve miles from Alliance.

Shortly after the accident the Lowry & Henry garage was notified, and Link Lowry made a record run to the scene, making the twelve miles in a little better than thirty minutes. He made an examination of the damaged car and found that there was no injury to the engine or working parts. All the fenders were bent almost double, the top was bent, the windshield torn entirely off, and the hood was badly dented on top. The self-starter was applied and the engine responded in a lusty manner, and the car was driven into town, the occupants aboard. Miss Manion was the only one needing medical attendance, although her injuries are not regarded as serious.

Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
"Last winter I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a bad bronchial cough. I felt its beneficial effect immediately and before I had finished the bottle I was cured. I never tire of recommending this remedy to my friends," writes Mrs. William Bright, Ft. Wayne, Ind. Obtainable everywhere.

WELCH SOLOISTS TO COME
Royal Welsh Male quartette Will Visit This City at An Early Date
The Royal Welsh Male Quartette, Newport, South Wales, survivors of the Gwent Welsh Singers saved from the Lusitania disaster, will appear at the Christian church on Saturday evening, Oct. 23, and will be remembered as the leading soloists of Gwent Singers who appeared here only two weeks before they sailed on the ill-fated Lusitania. They returned to America shortly and will be heard in concert through United States and Canada. They were fortunate to secure Arthur Smith as pianist for the Gwents on their American tours. Owing to illness last season Mr. Smith was replaced a few weeks of the tour by Spencer Hill, who had appeared with the chorus. Mr. Smith is a graduate of the Royal Academy of London and has played by command twice before the King and Queen of England, also appeared at the White House, Washington, with the Gwent Singers May 23, 1913. He is a pianist of national reputation and will render two selections during the evening.

One of the most interesting descriptions of the Lusitania disaster will be given during the evening by Mr. Risa Williams, the oldest member of the Gwent organization. He will tell of his rescue from a raft after floating five hours, of his meeting the survivors of the Gwents the next day in Queenstown, Ireland, and the great loss of their famous conductor, Geo. F. Davies.

Mr. Williams closes with Longfellow's psalm of life and the quartette "With Me" as they sang while on a raft off the coast of Ireland, May 7. The music loving people of Alliance will be glad to welcome these splendid singers back to America, who on last season's tour sang their way into the hearts of the American people.

The date of their appearance here is Oct. 23, at Christian church.
