

SOCIETY

E. CATHERINE MOORE—Phone 340

The Modern Literature Club, under the direction of Miss Gifford, met at 9:30 o'clock, Thursday morning, at the School of Music. The study of "The Doll's House" by Ibsen was completed, and the introduction of "Ghosts" by the same author was very enthusiastically discussed, and the study of the same will begin next Thursday morning at the usual hour.

A large company of young folks met at the School of Music, Saturday last, at 2 o'clock and organized a Junior Musical Club which is to be in charge of Miss Burnett. Officers were chosen for which include Dorothy Hampton for president, Phyllis Thompson for secretary, and work was nicely planned. Margaret Hamilton favored the company with a piano solo, "In Maytime". A short program is to be given each week and a short period will be taken up with sight singing after which the study of the composers is begun. The children all take an active part in these meetings and enter into the work with a zest. All children taking work in the School of Music are invited to join this club.

Mrs. H. L. Ormsby entertained the Methodist Ladies' Aid at her home Wednesday afternoon of this week, and after the regular business meeting the following program was enjoyed: Instrumental solo, Miss Leonard; reading, Madeline Zediker; trio by Misses Verna Dow, LaRhea Lunn and Ida Belle Osborne; reading by Vivian Dow; and vocal solos by Misses Eva Duncan and Mildred Osborne.

Mrs. W. S. Acheson and the members of her Sunday School class of the M. E. church entertained the members of the young men's class at the former's home Friday evening of last week. A fine get-together spirit was manifested and every one heartily entered into the entertainment provided. The early evening hours were spent in playing progressive Somerset, and this afforded great jollity. After a pleasing program, which included a piano solo by Miss Kenwood, and two readings by Miss Gifford, plans were discussed for the work of the two classes in the future, and at the close of the talk light refreshments were served and all cordially appreciated the efforts of the hostesses. It is planned that there shall be other such gatherings, and everyone surely looks forward to them as an opportunity for social enjoyment and pleasure.

On Monday evening at the School of Music, the faculty gave some of their pupils and friends a delightful program of music which included the numbers which they will give while away on their concert trip. Mrs. Zediker, piano, Mr. Uniacke, violin, Miss Burnett, soprano, are the people who will represent this institution. The following selections are included in the program: "My Laddie", "The Fairy Pipers", "Norwegian Song", by Miss Eunice Burnett; "Mignonette", "Souvenir", "Siciliano-Rigandon", by Mr. Ralph Uniacke; "The Erl King", by Mrs. Edith Swan Zediker; "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark", Miss Burnett; "Music—Its Origin and Influence", Mr. Uniacke; "Butterfly", "Lullaby", "Postillion", Mrs. Zediker; "Gavotte" (unaccompanied), "Caprice Viennois", "Hungarian Dance", Mr. Uniacke; "The Sands of Dee", "Oh, Whistle", "Last Rose of Summer", Miss Burnett. These people have chosen all their numbers with thought and each one is executed with not only technique but with feeling that appeals to the listener. The guests were very much pleased to have had the rare opportunity of hearing these musical artists and surely hope that they will be received with large audiences wherever they appear.

A small number of friends of Mrs. George Snyder entered her home on Monday evening, to help her celebrate the going out of a birthday anniversary. The self-invited guests proceeded to entertain themselves, and the evening was very much enjoyed. Refreshments added to the pleasantness of the occasion, and the honored one certainly appreciated the throts of the ones who were so kind to think of her on this occasion, and altho taken by surprise, invited the friends to "come again".

The Rebekah circle will meet in regular session Friday evening of this week, and every member should make an effort to be present. Special work is planned for and a pleasant evening assured.

The W. C. T. U. will be entertained at the home of Mrs. E. I. Gregg this afternoon. The program will be one of interest and the meeting should be well attended.

Mrs. William Davidson entertained the Eastern Star ladies last Saturday afternoon at a Kensington, the object being to complete some garments which have been provided for the children in the Orphanage Home at Fremont which is owned and sustained thru the efforts of the Order of the Eastern Star of Nebraska. About twenty ladies gathered and spent the hours in a very social and profitable manner, and a nice box will be sent to the home, the contents of which has been contributed by the members of the chapter, and a sum of money will be also forwarded for other necessary things needed in fitting the home up for the enjoyment of the children. Delicate refreshments were served during the afternoon, which were appreciated by the guests.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Matthews church met at the parish house yesterday afternoon and enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Mrs. Eubanks and Mrs. Myers were hostesses to the company and the refreshments were delicious. The time was spent very informally and a good attendance was present.

An event which promises to be one of pleasure and profit is planned by the ladies of St. Matthews church for Thursday afternoon and evening, November 18. This is to be the annual bazaar and supper, and the ladies are looking forward to it with great anticipations for its success, and we are sure that there will be a liberal patronage. The sale of fancy articles, aprons, linen and candy will be begun at 4:30 in the afternoon and the supper which is to be served on the cafeteria plan will begin at 5 o'clock. The menu will include many things tempting to the tastes of all. Besides the booths, there will be another interesting feature—a country store. Dancing will be enjoyed in the parish house, while the sale and supper will be held in the basement of the church. A very social time is expected and the occasion undoubtedly will prove one of the pleasantest of the fall season. Everyone will be welcome and invited to join in and help make the affair a success for the ladies who are interested in the plans for the event.

The faculty concerts for this season of the Alliance School of Music will begin Wednesday, November 10, at Johnston, Nebr., and the towns of Woodlake, Inman, Valentine and Marsland will also be visited. In connection with the musical numbers on the program, every one of which has distinct qualities which every music lover appreciates, Mr. Uniacke is to give a short talk on music and its influence. This should prove to be a very beneficial part of the entertainment presented, as it will be educational and uplifting to the listeners. In addition to the well chosen selections which Mr. Uniacke will render on the violin, Miss Burnett, soprano, and Mrs. Zediker, pianist, have also selected pleasing numbers that will surely win their audiences.

A very quiet marriage ceremony was solemnized at the Alliance Hotel Wednesday afternoon of this week. At about 3 o'clock in the parlor of the hotel, David A. Watson of Crawford, this state, and Miss Della Brasher, of Laborn, Okla., took their places before the officiating clergyman, Rev. Lewis McIntyre of the Presbyterian church, and were united in holy wedlock. The bride came here from her home in the southern state and met the happy groom who came from his home in Crawford. After a short honey-moon they will take up their residence in the home that Mr. Watson has pleasantly fitted out. The best wishes of all the friends go with the happy couple as they enter upon the new sphere of life and may many years of prosperity and joy attend them.

Mrs. Fred Mollring will be hostess for the Woman's Club Friday afternoon of this week, and the program for this meeting will be one of particular interest to each one, consisting of roll call, "Our Leading Naval and Military Men"; "Naval and Military Development"; Mrs. L. L. Smith; "Submarines of Our Navy"; Mrs. Laing; and music, a vocal solo, by Mrs. Fisher.

Friends here have received the announcement of the marriage of Eugene E. Ford, formerly with the First National bank of Alliance, to Miss Florence Brigham, which occurred at the Kenwood Anglica church in Chicago, at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. A reception was held at the Kenwood club, following the ceremony, and the relatives and friends joined in wishing the happy couple a pleasant and prosperous journey thru life. The groom was well and favorably known in Alliance, and the bride is the daughter of one of the most prominent families of Chicago. The affair is reported as one of the most brilliant and elaborate events of the season. The many old friends of Mr. Ford wish him and his wife many happy years of unbounded joy.

After a wedding trip to New York City and other eastern points the happy couple will be at home in a pleasant location in Chicago, where the groom is engaged in business.

The members of the Harmony club and their husbands were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Spencer last Saturday evening, and the hours pleasantly spent playing games, after which a two-course luncheon was served. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Morrow, and the party numbered in all about twenty-six. Mrs. J. F. McAlpine assisted Mrs. Spencer in entertaining and serving.

One of the assured musical treats soon to be presented in our city is the coming of the Hallowell Concert Company, who will appear on a return date, thru the efforts of the Elks club, on November 22, at the Phelan opera house. The work of this company needs no introduction to our people, and they will surely receive a royal welcome to the city. It is hoped that they will be greeted by a large audience.

A number of the friends of Marie and Arnold Reiman responded to the invitation to be present at the Reiman home Saturday evening and enjoy a frolic with Hallowe'en games. The time was thoroughly enjoyed, if the date was a little past season. The favors were yellow and black baskets containing candy, and a yellow cap with a flying witch attached on the side. The "witch" received at the door, and after the guests had all arrived the fun grew in great measure until they were summoned to partake of a toothsome lunch with ice cream. Amid expressions of a very lovely time, the little guests departed.

Miss Florence Lotspech very pleasantly celebrated her eighth birthday with the help of some young friends, last Thursday afternoon. A party of eight gathered to remind her of the anniversary and the afternoon hours were spent with games and light refreshments were served. The little guests left many pretty gifts for their little hostess, who will always recall this as one of the happiest birthdays of her life.

Yellow and white chrysanthemums and autumn leaves were used in the pretty decorations of the home of Mrs. J. A. Armour, when she entertained on Saturday afternoon last at a well appointed 1:30 luncheon. The same color motif was represented at the handsomely arranged table, and the delicious menu was served in five courses. Mrs. Bruce Wilcox and Mrs. James Hunter assisted Mrs. Armour, and in serving she was assisted by Misses Georgla Canfield, Isabelle Gabus and Eva Sherdeman. After the luncheon the remaining hours were spent with bridge and Kensington and in the former Mrs. Robert Reddish was awarded first prize and was presented with a hand painted plate; Mrs. H. E. Ganta was presented with a beautiful chrysanthemum. The following guests attended this social function: Meadames Frankle, Hill, Gavin, Helpbringer, Wilcox, Wilson, Grebe, Eubanks, Mitchell, Gantz, W. W. Norton, Ward Norton, Slagle, Holsten, Pate, Shaw, Sallows, Knight, Hargraves, Cogswell, Barnes, Beckwith, Lunn, Thiele, Toohy, Hershman, Butler, Hunter, and the Misses Doris Young, Grant, Shaw, Gabus, Sherdeman and Canfield.

Take Care of That Itching—All Itching Borders on Eczema

Do you regard that itching as a serious thing? It is! Unless you begin to fight it with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment, the disease is likely to cling on for months and years. Scores of grateful users say: "Why did we waste those months and years in agony when so tested a remedy was on the market." This ointment is no experiment; it is absolutely healing in its power. Do not allow it to become serious. Buy a box today to fight the beginnings of eczema. 50c a box.

Play Chadron Friday

Tomorrow the Alliance football team will journey to Chadron where they will clash with the Chadron Normal team. Chadron played the first game of the season here, and this is the return game. Our boys took the first game with a nice margin, but it is understood that Chadron has made several important additions to their team since they played here and that they are now able to put up a stiffer game. In the meantime, Alliance has played a couple of fast games, and from them has gained much useful experience, so tomorrow's game promises to be a hotly contested one. Quite a number of people have signified their intention of accompanying the team on the trip.

CITY MISSION WILL HAVE A NEW HOME

Watson Store Room Leased for the Coming Winter—Will Be Reading Room and Night School

The final arrangements were completed this week, and as soon as the stock of groceries has been disposed of in the Watson building it will be occupied by the City Mission, a lease having been signed for a term of months. The mission has occupied rooms over the Watson store for several months past, but they are now proving inadequate for the purpose. It had been planned to make the Mission a place where many different meetings could be held, but the lack of space prevented this. Now that a larger and a first-floor room has been secured, the night school will be held there instead of at the Central school, and in addition it will be the meeting place for the Young Men's Bible Club, and will be used as a reading room.

The city recently donated a tidy sum for the support of the City Mission, and it is felt that if the city takes that much interest in the project, it should be enlarged as much as possible and made a place where men and women can spend their leisure hours in enlightening and broadening surroundings.

The Greek night school has thus far proved an unqualified success, and it will be continued as long as this spirit prevails. A night school for colored people may also be introduced in a short time.

Police Matron Mrs. Sharp is sparing no efforts or time in the upbuilding of the mission work, and she has been commended by everyone for the results of her labor. It will probably be thirty days before the move can be made.

"BLUFFS" TOOK GAME

Alliance High School Squad Lost to Sister City Friday by Score of 50 to 6

Some say it was 50 to 6; others say it was 6 to 6; and still others say it was 46 to 6, but at any rate it was enough to beat our boys. The game at Scottsbluff last Friday was a good one as far as playing was concerned, but the Scottsbluff team just had it "on" our boys in weight and in experience. The forward pass was tried by Alliance several times, but on every occasion it was intercepted by Scottsbluff. Alliance made more gains on the line than in any other way. Scottsbluff played their end runs easily and made goal so often that it became common. Penning made several good plays that resulted in small gains.

When a Scottsbluff runner secured the ball, plenty of interference was provided for him. This is one spot where Alliance is short of experience.

as they too often let the runner strike out for himself, only to be tackled and downed before he can make a substantial gain. Alliance goes to Chadron today to play their return game Friday. Since the game here Chadron has had more experience and has added some new players, and the game promises to be a good one.

Another Light Snow

A few feathery snow flakes fell here Wednesday morning, the second "snowfall" of the season. The snow developed from a light rain that fell most of the morning. Those who did not take warning after the first snow are now preparing for winter by regretfully discarding their "long ones". However, those who pursued this course after the first snow found they had made a dreadful mistake, for soon afterward the weather man began to sweat in his efforts to warm old mother earth. With the season as far advanced as it now is, it is not probable that there will be much more warm weather until spring.

Brakeman Injured Wednesday
Fred L. Vaughn, Burlington freight brakeman, was injured about the head and face Wednesday morning when he was knocked from the top of a freight car at Hoffland, seventeen miles east of Alliance, falling head first onto a flat car. Dr. Hershman was called to Hoffland on train forty-four, and brought Vaughn back with him on forty-three. He was taken to the hospital in the ambulance and while seriously bruised, it is not believed that there will be any serious permanent injuries.
