

THANKSGIVING IS COMING!

And So Is The Thanksgiving Football Game

WHEN YOU GO OUT TO THE GRIDIRON TO SEE THE GAME, YOU'LL WANT TO FEEL THAT YOU ARE "IN PLACE"—THAT YOU'RE DRESSED FOR THE OCCASION. THERE WILL BE A LOT OF PEOPLE THERE WHO WILL LOOK THAT WAY, AND YOU'LL WANT TO BE COUNTED IN WITH THE PROGRESSIVE PROCESSION. THE BEST AND MOST SOUND ADVICE WE CAN GIVE YOU IS TO WEAR A COLLEGIAN SUIT, A BELLEFONT HAT, AND A PAIR OF O'DONNELL SHOES. THERE ARE OTHER WAYS IN WHICH YOU MIGHT LOOK WELL DRESSED, BUT WE KNOW, AND YOU DO, TOO, IF YOU THINK A MINUTE, THAT THIS COMBINATION WILL INSURE ABSOLUTE CORRECTNESS IN YOUR APPEARANCE, AND YOU'LL KNOW HOW IT FEELS TO LOOK YOUR BEST AT THE LEAST COST.

WE'RE BETTER THAN EVER PREPARED TO "SUIT" YOU IN YOUR THANKSGIVING TOGS, AND A FINER LINE OF CLASSY CLOTHES THAN WE HAVE, WE NEVER SAW. WE CAN FIT YOU FROM HEAD TO FOOT, AND FIT YOU PERFECTLY, IF YOU'LL JUST STEP IN AT YOUR NEXT LEISURE HOUR.

Mackinaws

They've been going pretty fast lately, but we still have a few of the choice ones left. They are in many different color combinations and shades, with good, long sleeves, heavy collars, two large pockets, and a strong belt. For the winter months when you don't want to wear an overcoat, the mackinaw is just the thing. Reasonably priced, at

$5.00 to $12.50

Sweaters

Sweater Coats and Sweaters in a pleasing variety of colors. Most any grade you want, from the cheapest that's good to the most expensive all-wool ones. No matter which you get, you receive full value for your money, and a bargain that you'll remember. The coats are heavy-ribbed, with two large pockets and heavy collar. They'll be mighty nice to wear to the football game. Prices from

$1.50 to $8.00

SOCKS
We have those famous "Bachelor's Friend" Socks, the kind that are covered with a guarantee. They're good for bachelors, and they're just as good for married men whose wives will thank us for selling them. All fast colors—Only One Price—$1 a box of 4 pairs.

Shoes

Now that winter is close at hand, you'll probably find that you're in need of a pair of winter shoes. We surely have them—the kind that give lasting satisfaction. All the new stylish lasts, and especially the new English last that has become so popular lately. We have it in both the conservative and the extreme models. A pair of new shoes will improve your Thanksgiving appearance wonderfully. Priced at $3.50 to $6.00

O'DONNELL SHOES

SHIRTS

We've all kinds of shirts, from dress shirts of the latest patterns to work shirts and flannels. Most anything you could want in the shirt line. Our dress shirts are the Cluett and McDonald lines, which you've probably seen nationally advertised, and which are 100 per cent good. They are made to withstand wear and always look good. Double seams in most places, preventing rips. Made of best materials. Dress Shirts, $1 to $3.50; Work Shirts, 50c to $1.50; Flannels, $1 to $2.50.

HATS

When you find a better hat than the Bellefont—well, you won't find it, because it isn't made. Bellefont superiority is recognized by all who have worn them—they give the maximum service at the minimum cost. Only selected materials are used in their construction, and skilled workmen turn out a finished product that can't be bettered. We have them in solid colors, and in the popular "Two-Tones" now being worn by good dressers everywhere. They're mighty nifty. Always $3.

Underwear

Do you want a union suit that always feels comfortable, is well put together and sewed, and which will give you long wear, at the lowest price? If you do, then try a suit of Piqua. There are many good makes of underwear on the market, and these, we are satisfied, will give you as good wear and as perfect satisfaction as any other good suit you ever wore. There's nothing more uncomfortable than an ill-fitting union suit. Piqua's have GOT to be right—if they're not we'll make them right.

The Reo garage is now comfortably located in the new home, the move having been made the latter part of last week.

Rev. Burligh, of the Hemingford Ledger, is installing a brand new newspaper press to be used for the Ledger. The paper since its inception has been printed on a small hand press, one page at a time, but Mr. Burligh decided to put in a press that would take two pages at a time, and save all that extra labor. He also has a gasoline engine ready to be connected to the machinery, and when the improvements are all completed he will have one of the best small town offices in this part of the state.

Earl Dean, the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mallory, died Friday afternoon from the effects of whooping cough, with complications. The baby had been suffering for several weeks, and everything known to medical science was used in an effort to save the little one's life.

Mrs. James Fairfield and little son departed Tuesday for Mason City, Nebr., for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

LIVE STOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Good Cattle Steady and Common Stuff Lower.

HOGS AVERAGE DIME LOWER

Sheep and Lamb Trade is Steady. Bulk of Fat Lambs Bring $8.75. Top Feeding Lambs $8.60—Most of Killing Ewes at $5.50.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Nov. 9.—Cattle receipts yesterday were fairly liberal, some 13,200 head arriving. Very little corn fed cattle were included in the receipts yesterday, but good choice cattle were wanted at fully steady figures, while the common grades were a little lower. There was a very fair demand for the good grass heaves and they went at prices about steady with the close of last week, but on the ordinary run of "betwixt and between"

Some 4,500 hogs arrived yesterday. The market was rather dull and prices were generally a big dime lower than last Saturday. Bulk of the sales were made at $6.70@6.80, with a sprinkling up to $6.85, the top.

Sheep and lamb receipts totaled 21,000 head. Trade in fat lambs opened out in good season on about a steady basis, the bulk of the lambs going at $8.75. Practically the entire mutton supply consisted of ewes, and the market showed little or no change, bulk of the good ones being bought at $5.50. Most of the trading in feeders was done on a good firm basis, several strings of the best stuff moving at $8.50@8.60.

Train No. 41 Delayed
On account of a derailment near Hecla, No. 41 was delayed about eight hours Monday morning, arriving here shortly after noon. An engine became derailed near Hecla Sunday afternoon, and in an effort to get it back on to the track matters were made worse. The passenger was held at Seneca until the track could be cleared.
