Feeders' Association

The Nebraska Live Stock Feeders' Association will hold an important meeting at the Lindell hotel, Lincoln, at 2 p. m., Wednesday, January 19. The Feeders' Association is the youngest member of the live stock associations of the state. However, at the present time its membership indicates that it will not be long before it is the strongest. All these associations meet during the week of Organized Agriculture, January 17-22.

At our January meeting, a business session will be held at the close of a prepared program dealing with matters of production and marketing. Our program will consist of the following: "The President's Address," by Z. F. Leftwich, St. Paul, Nebr.; "Unpreparedness in the Live Stock Industry," by E. L. Burke, Omaha; "Stock Yards Sanitation" by Col. L. W. Leonard, Pawnee City, Nebr.; "Methods of Handling Cattle in the Feed Yard," D. M. Hildebrand, Seward; and a general round table of short talks by experienced feeders. Z. F. Leftwich is president, and Prof. C. B. Lee is secretary-treasurer of the Live Stock Feeders' Association.

Sunday School Officers Elected

At the regular annual meeting of the Sunday school board of the Alliance M. E. church, held last Sunday afternoon, the following officers of the Sunday school were elected for the ensuing year: W. R. Pate, superintendent; A. Gregory, assistant superintendent; Will LaMon, secretary; Janet Grassman and Eva Duncan, librarians; Mrs. E. C. Drake, chorister; Charles Walters, treasurer. Upon nomination of the superintendent, the present teachers were elected for the ensuing year, with the addition of Mrs. C. C. Smith as superintendent of the primary department.

For Women Who Think!
You are interested, almost as much as we are, in extending the use of the Safe Home Match.
It is the most reliable, the most efficient and the safest match that can be made. It is absolutely non-poisonous. It is made under conditions that forever do away with one of the worst of occupational diseases. It removes a poison from the reach of children in American homes.
We ask you to use this new non-poisonous match and to urge others to do likewise.

NEWS FROM LINCOLN

Report of Fifteen State Institutions under Supervision of Board of State Commissioners

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 5.—(By Chas. DeFrance and Hugh L. Cooper, state under)—Fifteen state institutions under supervision of the board of commissioners for the year ending November 30, 1915, cost the state $1,394,515.86, including $10,321.60 for the board itself. Classified by grand division of expenditure the fifteen institutions cost as follows: For maintenance, $1,017,954.78; Furniture and equipment, $3,876.88; Permanent improvements, $5,898.05; New buildings and land, $26,110.09; For deficiencies, etc., $5,969.66. Grand total, $1,384,194.26. "Maintenance" includes all salaries and wages at the institutions, clothing, food, fuel and lights, etc. The total population of the fifteen institutions, including officers and employees, on November 30 was 5,242. Accordingly the total per capita cost was $264.06, not including the board and the cost for "maintenance" averaged $194.19 per person for the year.

During the year ending November 30, 1915, the board of educational lands and funds has purchased as investment for the educational trust funds the following securities: County bonds, $22,000.00; School district bonds, $47,380.00; Municipal bonds, $19,400.00; Drainage bonds, $3,662.89. Total, $1,082,442.89.

Four Capital Reporters

Beyond a doubt every editor of a Nebraska weekly newspaper reads one or more of the four leading Nebraska dailies, and copies or quotes from one or more of them news items relative to state matters of government. And hundreds of thousands read the dailies and weeklies, forming judgments regarding the administration of state affairs without being aware that four men in Lincoln exercise a most powerful influence upon their thinking.

Earl B. Gaddis of the World-Herald staff, Pelham H. Barrows of the Bee, Ellis E. Wolfe of the Star, and John M. Thompson of the State Journal, might very properly be styled the "Big Four" of Nebraska political reporters. What they write regarding affairs at the state house moulds the bulk of public opinion regarding things political. Without violating the libel laws these men can make or break any aspirant for political honors and emoluments. And yet, possessed of all this power, it cannot be truthfully charged that any of them has used it to gratify private spite or for private gain.

Theoretically these men are news gatherers and purveyors of facts uncolored by opinion. Theoretically the great editor who sits in his luxurious sanctum does all the "thinking" for his paper and his reporters are mere Gradgrinds grubbing for "facts, sir, facts." Practically, however, scarcely an item of news goes to any of the dailies named that does not contain its modicum of political coloring matter, enough "suggestion" to influence the reader's thought favorably or adversely.

As to this democratic administration, Gaddis and Wolfe are the optimists who use bright colors in their political paint mixing, and Barrows and Thompson are the pessimists who dip heavily into the sombre browns. But none the less they are all a bunch of the best fellows in the world, and, regardless of controversies carried on by their respective papers, they help each other in making the daily rounds of the state house.
Not long since, the Nebraska Federationist published biographies of the "Big Four." Thompson wrote an appreciation of Wolfe which for genuine good-humored humor reminds one of Sam Blythe or Irvin Cobb. Each in turn wrote up his contemporary in the very best journalistic style in his command thus forming a unique symposium about four men but little known to the world at large, but from whom the people of Nebraska learn most of what they know regarding the governmental affairs of the state.

Donations for City Mission
Furnishings are needed for the Alliance City Mission, which has been opened under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Donations of the following named articles will help along a good cause, and will be much appreciated: seats, chairs, etc., for the auditorium and school room; chairs, table, lounge, etc., for ladies' rest room; furnishings for reading room; rugs, chairs, dishes, etc., for the superintendent's apartments.
Persons who have any of the above mentioned articles, or anything else suitable, to donate, will kindly notify the superintendent of the mission or any member of the mission board.

SALTS IF BACKACHY AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.
Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

MORE MEN THAN WOMEN HAVE APPENDICITIS
Surgeons state men are slightly more subject to appendicitis than women. Alliance people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. THE INSTANT, easy action of Adler-ka is surprising.

YOUR EYE-SIGHT IS VALUABLE
Of the five senses—seeing, feeling, hearing, smelling and tasting—the power of seeing is prized the most and is least cared for.
Eighty-five per cent of all education, business and pleasure comes through the eyes.
Ninety-five per cent of all abnormal condition of the eyes—granulated lids, styes, inflamed lids, cross-eyes and many other things are caused by eye-strain and can be corrected by glasses.
Eye-strain not only endangers the loss of sight, but is also one of the greatest enemies of health and happiness.
IF YOU VALUE YOUR EYES
nothing should keep you from giving them every necessary attention.
We are prepared to give them careful, beneficial service and permanently relieve their trouble.
