Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Feb. 8.—Demand from dressed beef men was pretty good and as there was considerable inquiry for shipping account salesmen were able to get pretty close to steady figures for anything good enough to invite competition, while on the less desirable grades prices ruled pretty close to a dime lower and business on this class of cattle was a little slow. Cows and heifers had pretty much the same experience as fat cattle, prices ranging from steady to a dime lower than Friday. Desirable stockers and feeders were wanted at fully steady figures, while the general run of feeders were slow and about a dime lower than the close of last week.

Some 14,000 hogs showed up yesterday. The market was a little slow in getting started and prices may be quoted as steady to about a nickel below the close of last week. Bulk sold at $7.50@7.70 and tops reached $7.80.

Sheep and lamb receipts totaled 12,500 head. Despite the fact that most points were well supplied and weaker prices were reported as probable at several of the other markets, local trade opened out in pretty good season on a generally steady basis. Quite a few of the decent to good lambs were bought at $10.50@10.65, and as high as $10.80 was paid for real good fed westerns of light weights. Good ewes again brought $7.25. Best yearlings here went at $9.15.

Crawford Courier: Frank Mayfield's fine farm home on west Ash creek burned to the ground with a total loss of contents last Friday.

Owing to the non-arrival of our ready-prints, the Courier is compelled to issue only a half-sized paper this week. It would require the vocabulary of two Billy Sundays to adequately "express" our sentiments and the office angel refused to "freight" our columns with such a load. But it's—just the same.

Last Saturday, and again Tuesday noon of this week, John O'Donnell, at the Van Treec barn, lost horses by death from some unknown cause. Upon the second loss Mr. O'Donnell telegraphed to the state veterinary department to send a man to investigate the cause. Wednesday Dr. Brewer, a veterinary surgeon, came from Gordon and that afternoon, in the presence of two other veterinary surgeons, performed an autopsy upon the second animal, finding death to be caused from an attack of heart trouble, and some portions of the anatomy were preserved and sent on to the veterinary department at Lincoln to ascertain the cause.

Sidney Telegraph: Marius Christensen and Maynard Osborn have finished taking the village census for the village board. They found a population of 1590.

Saturday night there was a mix-up on the street in front of the Western Drug Company store which resulted in the breaking of the laundry wagon in wheels and shafts, and also tore the horse's harness badly. Mr. Bush was tipped over and the bridge of his nose badly bruised. It was a mighty good bridge to withstand a break. The cause of all the rumpus was a car driven by Ira J. Hammond of Akron, Colorado, who with a companion was going down at a thirty-mile clip down Rose street and did not turn out soon enough to avoid colliding with the laundry wagon. The car then speeded off main street and was making a get-away without lights, but unfortunately for them they got too far west to cross the Burlington and in returning to find a crossing the police got them. The two men were put in jail, each having a rare fine jag to unload, but when sober they were allowed to go after paying for all damage. It is said they had a nice lot of booze in their car to take over into the arid state.

Delegates from the Sidney Fire Department report a fine meeting at Crawford with an enthusiastic program and a most cordial hospitality. Those who went from here were F. B. Tobin, H. Bockstadter, E. Brennan, J. J. Parks and J. Tishue. Frank Tobin was elected on the advisory board for the coming year.

Broadwater News: D. M. McGahey of Omaha and Arthur Feagin of Alliance representing the Home Life Insurance Co. of New York were in the village between trains Friday and Saturday, and registered at the Broadwater hotel.

P., Myrtle Loucser, installed the officers of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge No. 98, for the ensuing term, after which refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening spent by the goodly number of members present. The following officers were installed: Rose E. Floyd, P. N. G.; Johanna Husmann, N. G.; Electa Morse Kidder, V. G.; Ruth T. Kersey, secretary; Elzeta T. Merritt, treasurer; Florence M. Weaver, warden; Lulu F. Volland, conductor; Laura L. Love, chaplain; Clara I. Allen, R. S. N. G.; Lucy A. Scott, L. S. N. G.; Viola G. Nelson, R. S. V. G.; Mary J. Bolln, L. S. V. G.; Allie Leighton, inside guardian; T. B. Kidder, outside guardian.

Marsland Tribune: The Courier learns that there was at least one delegation to the firemen's convention whose John Hancock's do not adorn the pages of the registration book. We have reference to the delegation from Marsland, comprising six of their finest, who arriving in the midst of the big time, became so busy and having so good a time they forgot that important first stunt. And they were Chief Earl Eneyart, Foreman Ora Furman, Leslie Finney, Leonard Horner, Elias Bennett and Dayton Sulenberger.—Crawford Courier.

Rushville Recorder: The Gordon editors must have upset the political hive. Now comes Editor Joe Leedom and files for the office of commissioner of public lands and buildings. When he gets through running, our friend Joe will have a good idea of this state reputation, which is not saying he could not fill the bill.

Another able candidate before the voters at the primaries is D. H. Griswold, who has his announcement in the Recorder. Mr. Griswold is a very able man, and cashier of the First National Bank, and largely identified with the interests of Gordon. His ability is unquestioned and he would make a good representative.

Rushville Standard: R. R. Kincaid of Bingham came up to the hub Wednesday of last week to transact some business at the court house and called in to see us Thursday. Mr. Kincaid is one of Sheridan county's early settlers and has accumulated considerable of a ranch in this and Garden counties. His vocation in stock raising and he has wonderfully succeeded by his enterprise and attending strictly to his business. He is getting on the shady side of life but has the appearance of a man of much younger years.

Hay Springs News: This week we are publishing the announcement of W. R. Harper, of Alliance, as a candidate for representative on the Republican ticket. Although we are not personally acquainted with Mr. Harper we have assurances from friends of ours on whom we can depend, that Mr. Harper is O. K. in every respect and well qualified to fill the office of state representative.

Arthur E. Clark, editor of the Gordon Democrat, has announced self as a candidate for representative from the Seventy-third district, on the democratic ticket. Mr. Clark is well qualified for the position to which he aspires and would undoubtedly represent the district without fear or favor. He has resided in this western country for some time and knows its needs.

Lloyd C. Thomas, the able editor of the Alliance Herald, has thrown his hat into the ring for the office of representative. All anyone needs is to read a few copies of the Herald to know that Lloyd is there with the goods when it comes to ability. This makes two editors in the field for the democratic nomination for this office and we predict a merry race with victory for the one that gets the most votes.

BUCKLES WANTS MATCH

Smith Says He Is Perfectly Willing to Take a Chance with Omaha Man in the Ring

A letter from Guy Buckles of Omaha informs us that he is anxious to meet Tommy Smith in the squared circle any time Smith says the word. He also states that he is in the best of condition and owing to the fact that he has outgrown the middle-weight class he is anxious to try his luck with the heavyweights.

Buckles has a splendid record, having met such men as Clabby, Baker, Tony Caponi, George (Knockout) Brown and Tommy McCarthy. He is now rated as the best light heavy-weight boxer in the middle west, and while he does not under-rate Smith, still he figures he can take his number as well as the rest of the good ones he has met recently.

As for Smith, he says that he is perfectly willing to take a chance with the Omaha "phenom" and will box him as soon as the arrangements can be made satisfactorily to him. While Smith has never fought a champion, he has a "hunch" that there are a good number of the present day top-notchers that he could defeat if the opportunity should present itself.

Local promoters are anxious to secure this high-class match between Buckles and Smith as they figure such a show would pack the largest hall in the city. They anticipate staging it the latter part of the month.

Third Marriage: Mrs. Zella B. Hill, age 23, a cook at one of the local cafes for some time past, and Alexander Bolecki, an employe of the Burlington railroad company, were married yesterday afternoon by County Judge L. A. Berry at his office in the court house. This is the third marriage for the bride.

Tone the system and help restore your child's health and happy disposition. Only 25c at your druggist. Adv.—No 1

Snyder Receives Appointment: John R. Snyder of Alliance, who is active in promoting the interests and extension of the Odd Fellows lodges, has been appointed on the staff of Major C. M. Coffin, Brigadier-General for the state of Nebraska for the I. O. O. F. Canton, to fill the position of Assistant Commissary General with the rank of Major. This is a fitting recognition of Mr. Snyder's good work for the lodge. We will now have to call our friend John "Major."

Severe Cold Quickly Cured: "On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere. Adv.—Feb

Outdoor Swimming in January: Anyone who went swimming in January in this part of the country would be promptly sent to the bug house. But there are parts of the U. S. where this is done with pleasure and comfort. The Carlsbad, N. M., Current of February 4 had the following item: "A crowd went to Black River Sunday afternoon in autos. They fished, hunted, enjoyed a barbecue and a Dutch lunch. They caught a fine string of fish but the whole crowd took a plunge in the river in January and are still hale and hearty."
