E. CATHERINE MOORE—Phone 340

The P. E. O. ladies will be entertained at the home of Mrs. A. V. Gavin next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Lester was the hostess to several of her lady friends Sunday when she entertained at dinner at the Drake in honor of Mrs. Warrick and Mrs. Hildebrand.

Quite a number of couples enjoyed a dancing party last evening at the Reddish hall. About a dozen couples were present, and light refreshments were served. The affair was very formal but truly enjoyed.

Mrs. J. C. McCorkle entertained the Methodist Aid Wednesday afternoon, and the program for the afternoon consisted of a missionary discussion and reading. A good number of the ladies attended.

Mrs. A. S. Mote entertained the Eastern Star Kensington Tuesday afternoon, and about twenty of the ladies were present. Work was completed for the "parcel post" sale to be held next Tuesday evening, March 29.

Mrs. Jennie Reed and Mrs. Fred Helling entertained the ladies of the Christian church yesterday afternoon, and a pleasant time was spent by the guests. The refreshments were in proper order and the social time appreciated.

Miss Dorothy Smith presided at a 5 o'clock tea on Monday afternoon, in compliment to Miss Ada Hill of Dalton. Beside the honored one present were the Misses Nell Tash, Ruth Leonard, Edna Bowman, Nell Keeler, Helen Schott, and Mrs. Coryell.

A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage Saturday, February 19, when Paul Shephard of Chadron, and Miss Rachel Marshall of Hemingford accepted the bonds of marriage. Four of their friends accompanied them to this place, and were witnesses of the event.

Tuesday evening, after the entertainment at the opera house, the cast of characters with their friends repaired to the parlors in the Thiele drug store, and were served with a tastefully prepared lunch. A social time was enjoyed which made a pleasant ending for the party who have so faithfully worked for the success of the evening. There were about twenty in the party and they were well served.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hicks pleasantly entertained about twelve of their friends Wednesday evening, the affair being a meeting of the Sixteen Club. Pink and red carnations were prettily arranged in the rooms, and games of different kinds were enjoyed until the time of the serving of the daintily arranged two-course luncheon.

A number of friends of Miss Anna Senner gave a dinner party last evening in her honor at the Alliance Cafe. Owing to Miss Senner being delayed in returning from her visit the party of last week was postponed until this time. After a pleasant dinner, the party attended the Imperial theatre and all spent the remaining hours with their friends until time for her to leave on No. 42.

Mrs. Reddish and Mrs. Armour were hostesses to the Woman's Guild at the parish house Wednesday afternoon. There was a very large attendance and a great deal of enthusiasm shown. The ladies are now laying plans for an "apron sale" which is to be held near Easter. The needles are busy these days working for the success of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar O'Bannon very pleasantly entertained Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Carns Thursday, February 17, at a dinner given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. O'Bannon of Seward, Neb. The Seward people are the parents of Oscar and Dick O'Bannon of Alliance and are visiting in the city with them and their families.

Mrs. W. D. Rumer was hostess to a company of friends, Saturday and Monday afternoons, in honor of her mother, who lives with her. Red carnations were used in the rooms and for the lunch tables. Cards and Kensington with the informal hours was the entertainment, and all the friends heartily enjoyed themselves.

The Baptist ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. Moses Wright yesterday afternoon, and the attendance was about sixty-five. The program was in charge of Mrs. A. A. Layton, and consisted of the following: Devotionals, installation of officers, reading of letter from a missionary, study of home missions, open discussion in which fifteen took part, recitation of poem by Mrs. Laing, solo by Mrs. Fuller. The officers for both the missionary and industrial departments were installed together. Mrs. M. Wright is president of the whole organization; Mrs. M. F. Donovan, president of industrial department; Mrs. Carpenter, president of missionary department; Mrs. T. Cross, secretary; and Mrs. Young, treasurer of the missionary department; Mrs. Mosher, secretary, and Mrs. Nina Miller, treasurer of industrial department. Mrs. Robbins is chairman of the floral committee. The ladies should experience a successful year with the corp of officers in charge, and we wish them every good wish in their work. Mrs. Wright served an elegant lunch at the close of the hours.

Little Miss Nellie Sturgeon was agreeably surprised Saturday afternoon, the event being to help her celebrate her eighth birthday. She had as her guests Mariaq Malone, Ruth Schill, Vera Lowry, Vivian Dow, Marquise Mahaffy, Lucile Dickenson, Violet Williams, Bessie Williams and Pearl Bacon. The hours went rapidly with games and refreshments to occupy the time, and the honored one was given many hearty good wishes for the future.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis were hosts Monday evening for the class of the Methodist church known as the "Lookout Class", of which A. T. Lunn is teacher. The occasion was in the nature of a George Washington party and the house was appropriately decorated in the national colors. The courses at the luncheon were served in colors, the ice cream being in red, white and blue with hatched cookies. About thirty were present and spent a very enjoyable evening.

Pink and white roses and hearts were used in the prettily arranged decorations for the announcement party given in honor of Miss Emily Skiles, by her aunt, Mrs. Charles H. Tully, last Friday evening. Covers were laid for thirteen guests including the honored one, and the favors were in pink and white. The guests seated at the 7 o'clock dinner were the Misses Skiles, Curry, Shaw, Finkle, Benzett, O'Brien, Rice, Davenport, Young, Broome, Keane, Carey and Mallory, and the young ladies spent a very happy time together, and extended many good wishes to their friend.

Several dinner parties have been given the last few days in honor of Mrs. S. K. Warrick of Scottsbluff and Mrs. G. A. Hildebrand of Crawford. On Friday of last week Mrs. Jerry Rowan and Mrs. I. E. Tash entertained a party at the Imperial and then gave a lunch at the home of the former in honor of the two ladies. Saturday afternoon, Mrs. W. R. Pate and Mrs. A. T. Lunn gave a Kensington at the home of the former with a four course luncheon at the close of the pleasant afternoon. Mrs. J. C. McCorkle gave a dinner Monday evening at 6:30 in honor of the two ladies, the afternoon hours preceding being spent in an informal manner. A one-o'clock luncheon was given by Mrs. R. M. Hampton Tuesday in compliment to Mrs. Warick and Mrs. Hildebrand.

Mrs. R. T. Watson was the hostess to about thirty of her lady friends Tuesday afternoon, when she entertained at the home of Mrs. J. B. Carns in honor of Mrs. Hildebrand and Mrs. Warrick, who are former residents of Alliance and who are visiting here a week. Kensington was enjoyed by the guests, also some guessing games, and Miss Tressa Vandervoort gave some enjoyable readings. After the afternoon hours were at a close, the company repaired to the Drake hotel and there were served an elaborate dinner. Among the guests being the hostess and her honored friends were Mesdames Rowan, Tash, Pate, Lester, Smith, McCorkle, Bennett, Acheson, Dow, Powell, Blair, Carns, Renswold, Mollring, Hampton, Wiker, Wm. Johnson and M. E. Johnson, Drake, Mitchell, Lunn, Reider, Boyer and Bird.

Matinee every Saturday at 2:30 at the Imperial Theatre.
