

FOR HOME BAKING
ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
THE GREATEST BAKE-DAY HELP
No Alum—No Phosphate

The WEEK'S DOINGS

Frank Hart left Tuesday night for North Platte to remain for a short stay.

Mrs. Arthur McDonald and children and Miss Fleming of Findley, Ohio, are visiting their brother George Fleming.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell left Tuesday night for an extended trip through the south, visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. A. H. Copey of Lincoln came up Tuesday noon to spend the week with her sons, Dr. H. A. Copey, and Verne Copey of the First State bank.

If you are paying high interest rates in the Building & Loan call on the Nebraska Land Company and get the money at reduced interest rates.

Mildred and Edward Mollring, daughter and son of Clem Mollring, of Newcastle, Wyo., are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Mollring.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mitchell and Mrs. Wm. Carson Shaw left Saturday for Spearfish, South Dakota, to spend a few weeks, where Mr. Mitchell has rented a cottage, in Spearfish canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowperthwaite of O'Neil, and Mrs. Sam Taggart of Chambers, Neb., autoed over for the stockmen's convention, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Tinkcom.

Ralph Uniacke, violin instructor of the Alliance School of Music, departed Sunday for a summer vacation in the sand hills near Mullen, Neb. Mr. Uniacke went across country on horseback.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles, former Alliance people, arrived Wednesday noon for a short stay. Mr. Giles came to attend the meeting of Burlington officials. While in the city they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gantz.

The stockholders of the Alliance Building and Loan Association had a monthly meeting Tuesday evening and elected Charles Willis a member of the board of directors to fill the vacancy caused by the death of B. F. Gilman.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Tracht and daughter Allene, of Riverton, Wyo., came in Sunday to visit with Mrs. Tracht's sister, Mrs. M. M. Reynolds. Mr. and Mrs. Tracht left Tuesday noon. The daughter will remain for a longer visit.

Glen Gentle of Bonner came up Wednesday on business.

Harry Thiele made a business trip to Scottsbluff Wednesday.

Number one hard wheat flour, $1.50 per sack; $2.95 per hundred pounds, at the Standard Grocery.

E. L. Lovenburg, the Angora banker, was in the city Wednesday.

A. S. Enyeart of Hemingford and J. L. Kay of Marsland attended the stockmen's convention this week.

Mrs. Dr. Willis of Arapahoe passed thru Alliance Wednesday, on her way to Sheridan, Wyo., to visit relatives.

Mrs. George W. Duncan departed Sunday noon for different points in Pennsylvania where she will visit relatives.

Our best grade, Ferndell brand, steel cut coffee, forty cent seller. Thirty-five cents per pound at the Standard Grocery.

Mrs. J. B. Carns returned Saturday from University Place, Havelock and Lincoln, where she spent two weeks visiting.

S. B. Howard, of Omaha, Burlington immigration agent, was in the city between trains Wednesday while on his way to Douglas, Wyo.

Mrs. Wilmet Joder and baby returned to her home at Haguville Wednesday noon. They have been visiting Mrs. B. L. Joder for the last few days.

Our best grade, Ferndell brand, steel cut coffee, forty cent seller. Thirty-five cents per pound at the Standard Grocery.

There will be a meeting of the Dry Federation at Hashman's school house Sunday June 25 at 3 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by Rev. J. B. Carns.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wilcox of Bridgeport came to Alliance on Wednesday. Max is attending to the News-Blade management while his father is out of the city.

The Woman's Guild of the Episcopal church met Wednesday afternoon at the parish house with Mrs. John H. Show as hostess.

Dean Cross, of the Episcopal church at Sheridan, Wyo., stopped off between trains Wednesday on his way home from Laramie.

Don't forget the chautauqua July 21-26. Big fine program.

Angora News

Mrs. Wm. Orr was pleasantly surprised last Thursday evening June 13 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crouch, the occasion being her twenty-second birthday. Mrs. Orr was invited to spend the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Crouch and upon arriving found her very closest friends had gathered to welcome her. The special guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Ely, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Case, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Case and Mrs. A. R. Parsons of Henry, mother of Mrs. Orr. A beautiful three-course supper was served by Mrs. Crouch, after which several hours of entertainment was enjoyed by the guests. At the close of the entertainment Mrs. Orr was presented with several beautiful presents, among which was a beautiful hand painted picture. Mrs. Orr received the presents with grateful thanks to her friends.

Messrs. Ely, Orr, Hull, Case and Rev. Case with their wives autoed to Scottsbluff Sunday.

A. G. Stoner and family went to the Elmore dam on a fishing trip Sunday.

Claude Atwell has the position as second foreman at Bonner.

The work on the new church is progressing nicely. The basement will soon be evacuated.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Ely and family took supper with Rev. Berry's Tuesday. A delicious supper was served, and the guests were pleasantly entertained thruout the evening.

Mrs. Joe Cody has been quite ill recently but is improving. Crops are looking fine around Angora.

Rowen Bros. have moved their entire stock of goods into the L. L. Chambers building and are doing a splendid business.

Society Col. P. E. O.'S. WERE WELL PLEASED

Miss Eva Duncan, the first part of this week, was given a miscellaneous "parcel post shower", in honor of her approaching marriage to Carl Thomas. Parcel post packages were received from many of her young lady friends living both in Alliance and other cities.

Miss Eunice Eldred has issued invitations for a miscellaneous shower this evening in favor of Miss Nell Keeler. The Eldred home on Cheyenne avenue is decorated beautifully with yellow and white roses. A dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock and immediately after the dinner a short entertainment.

Mrs. Tinkcom Entertains. Mrs. R. M. Tinkcom delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon at her home on Laramie avenue in honor of her guests, Mrs. A. L. Cowperthwaite of O'Neil, and Mrs. Samuel Taggart of Chambers, Neb. A delicious two-course luncheon was served at 5 o'clock. The guests were: Mesdames W. E. Spencer, L. L. Smith; Rolla Wilson, W. W. Johnson, D. W. Kenner, L. H. Highland, H. A. DuBuque, George Fleming, F. G. Hitecock, T. L. Doding, Alliance, and Mrs. Arthur McDonald of Findley, Ohio.

Mrs. Leonard Pilkington entertained a few friends at her home on Niobrara avenue Tuesday evening. Announcement was made of the marriage of Miss Nelle Keeler to Clarence Schafer. The guests were entertained the fore part of the evening with music and toward the latter hours of the evening Mrs. Pilkington served a delightful lunch. Hidden in the ice cream were small slips giving the names of the bride and groom to be, and the date of the wedding. The guests were Mesdames Eldred, Keeler, Shaw, Holloway, Reid, Niemann, and Misses Eunice Eldred, Nelle Tash, Ruth Reid and Nelle Keeler.

Kinsley-Wolverton Marriage. Miss Esther Kinsley, of Hemingford, and Frank Wolverton, of Alliance, were married Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock at the Catholic parsonage at Hemingford. The young couple left on train number 44 the same morning for Omaha, where they will make their home. The bride is the adopted daughter of Mrs. Kinsley of Hemingford and is a popular young lady. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wolverton of Alliance and was educated in the Alliance schools. He now holds a responsible position with the Sunderland Brothers Supply Company of Omaha. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom were present at the wedding.

Hamilton Silver Wedding. A large number of friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hamilton gathered with them at their home in Alliance on Friday afternoon and evening, June 16, the occasion being the celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. They were married in Alliance twenty-five years ago by Rev. Thomas McCague, of Omaha, who was filling the pulpit here at that time.

A special program was rendered, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The opening address was made by Rev. James Brown, at one time a school teacher of Mr. Hamilton. A brief address was made by Rev. Lewis McIntyre. Miss Leone Mallery gave a reading. Verne Hamilton sang a solo, "Oh Heart of Mine," accompanied by Miss Mae Brandt. Jay Vance sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Avis Joder. Jay Vance and Verne Hamilton sang a duet, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie." Ira E. Tash made a brief talk of old times, followed by a solo by Jay Vance, "A Perfect Day," accompanied by Miss Avis Joder. Sixty-five guests were present. A delightful three-course dinner was served in the evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Willis. The tables were beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations and green wreaths. Mrs. Hamilton was assisted by Misses Mae Brandt, Avis Joder, Nelle Tash, Cynthia Davenport, Hazel Bennett, Florence Atz, Leone Mallery and Jennie Blaine.

The presents received were many and valuable. Among them were a large round dining room table by the children of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton; a dozen silver knives and forks from sisters and brothers and relatives of the couple; a carving set and dozen silver knives and forks from twenty-two friends of the family; a silver creamer, sugar and tray from the G. I. ladies and husbands; a silver nut bowl from James Brown and sister; a set of salad forks and butter spreaders from an aunt and uncle in Grove City, Pa.; a set of oyster forks from an aunt in Elizabeth City, N. C.; a set of silver teaspoons from an aunt in Pittsburg, Pa.; a set of teaspoons from Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Blackfoot, Idaho; a silver bread tray from Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rowan, sent from Detroit; a silver pie knife from Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Elliott of Crawford; a silver pickle form from Mrs. Martha Miller; silver pickle fork from Mr. and Mrs. Rousey; silver sugar shell from Mr. and Mrs. Ludington; souvenir spoon from Mr. and Mrs. Walmer; silver berry spoon and salad fork from Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ward; silver sandwich tray from Mr. and Mrs. Will Cavin, of Omaha; silver sandwich tray from Dr. and Mrs. Slagle; set silver fruit knives from Mr. and Mrs. Overman; silver spoon tray from Mr. Hamilton's sister at Lander, Wyo.; silver cream ladle from cousin and friend at Aurora, Ill.; set silver salad forks from Jay Vance; silver salad forks from Mae Brandt; casserole from Mr. and Mrs. Worley; silver bar sugar basket with tongs from Mrs. Otter of Joliet, Ill.; silver salt and pepper castor from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason. A friend at Seward sent a large bouquet of roses and daisies. The G. I. A. ladies sent a large bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Hamilton wishes to thank the ladies for their kind assistance, and the many friends for their presents.

Visitors Expressed Themselves as Having Attended the Best Convention Ever Held

THANK LOCAL CHAPTER FOR THE FINE ENTERTAINMENT
Visited Krause Ranch in Automobiles Friday Afternoon—Left for Home Friday Night

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Nebraska Grand Chapter, P. E. O., closed Friday evening, June 16. A report of the beginning of the convention was given in The Herald last week with a list of the delegates.

Thursday morning the devotionals were led by Mrs. Rose E. Shedd. Presentation of charters to new chapters was made by Miss Rose M. Owens. Mrs. Nora Killian, organizer, spoke on "Secret Work." An extended report on the different state chapters was made by Mrs. Lue R. Spencer. This report is given in full in another section of this issue of The Herald.

Thursday afternoon the following subjects were taken up: "Child Labor", Mrs. Effie Weath, BK; "Prohibition", Mrs. Sadie D. Spence, BG; "Preparedness", Mrs. Rose E. Shedd, G; "Philanthropy", Mrs. Sara D. Reuling, Q; "Peace", Mrs. Hester B. Copper, M; "Good Roads", Miss Effie Detrick, A. An address was rendered by Mrs. Helen M. Drake, supreme president.

The memorial hour was held at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The program consisted of a piano solo; reading, "Thanatopsis", by Miss Leone Mallery; duet by Mrs. Bernice Tillett and A. J. Welch; memorial address by Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, Z; and a vocal solo with violin obligato, "Dear Promised Land", by Mrs. Nora Killian, organizer.

The Thursday evening program was held at the opera house, which was well filled. Attendance was by invitation. The program consisted of violin renditions by Prof. Ralph Uniacke, piano solos by Mrs. Edith Swan Zediker, and vocal solos by Miss Eunice Burnett, of the faculty of the Alliance School of Music. Miss Ida Johnson, past president N. G. C., gave "The Old Tale Retold", past Mrs. Bertha Clark Hughes, past president N. G. C., rendered "A Kentucky Cinderella". The reception followed.

Friday morning the session was devoted to regular business and to the election of officers. The following were elected: President, Lou R. Spencer, Lexington; 1st vice president, Mrs. Sarah D. Reuling, Wyoming; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Capitola Tully, Alliance; recording secretary, Mrs. Hester Capper, Omaha; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Minnie M. Stuff, Lincoln; itemizer, Mrs. Nora Killian, Kearney. Fromont was selected as the place for the next convention.

Friday afternoon the ladies were taken in twenty-six automobiles to the ranch of Krause Brothers, northeast of Alliance, and given the opportunity of viewing a fine western ranch and seeing typical ranch conditions. This ranch is one of the largest and finest in the west and the delegates enjoyed the trip immensely. The trip was made under the supervision of the Commercial Club.

At the last session, Friday evening, the following subjects were taken up: "The Boundary Line", Mrs. Dora Dick, AS; "Chapter Officers", Mrs. Addie Lockwood, AE; "Signing the Voucher", Miss Winnie Cubbison, AM; "The Negative Ballot", Mrs. Effie Woodward, E; "The Dimit", Miss Myrtle Dalling, V.

The report of the committee on resolutions, as rendered and adopted, was as follows:

We, your committee on resolutions, beg to submit the following report:

Be it resolved: That we express our sincere thanks to Chapter A H who have labored so untiringly for our pleasure and comfort; to the train officials who made our journey so pleasant, especially to Mr. Garvin and Mr. Cotant, who met us with our colors and emblems and with greetings from Chapter A H; to the Boy Scouts, who met us at the train and helped us with our baggage; to the Commercial Club for the enjoyable trip to the Krause ranch, and all kindnesses shown us; to the county commissioners for tendering us the use of their new court house during the entire session; to the Episcopal church for the use of their building, and to the ladies of the Baptist and Christian churches who served such excellent meals; to the B. I. L. for their flowers and loyalty to the interests of the P. E. O.; to the ladies of Chapter A H for their beautiful decorations and flowers; to our president, Miss Burns, and Supreme president, Mrs. Drake, for the reception with its excellent musical program, and especially for the P. E. O. plates which will remind us of our convention at Alliance.

Thanks are also due to those who took part on the programs and by their talent added to our pleasure and instruction; to those who made our memorial hour such an impressive service and rendered such fitting tribute to our departed sisters; to the officers and state board for the programs which contributed so materially to the success of this twenty-seventh annual convention of the Nebraska grand chapter; to our Nebraska President, Mrs. Helen M. Drake for her presence and helpful suggestions and to our President, Miss Abbie C. Burns, who by her sweet and unassuming manner in presiding proved such an inspiration to all present; to the local press for the many favors shown us during our stay in Alliance.

To these we extend thanks and hope that our mingling together may prove a tie that binds us still closer in service to our fellow men.

Respectfully submitted,
 Bertha M. Ingersoll, AT, Tecumseh
 Ella O. Miller, K, Lincoln
 Alice C. Hughes, BI, David City
 Blanche Coffee, BL, Chadron.
 The installation of officers was completed and the convention adjourned.

The officers and members of A H, hostess chapter, were given many compliments on the hospitality shown and the excellent conduct of the entire session. Mrs. Capitola Tully, president of the local chapter, was given deserved recognition by election as second vice president of the grand chapter.

Division Superintendent W. M. Weidenhamer and family and Master Mechanic J. G. Dole and family went to Deadwood Wednesday noon, to be gone for a short time. The men will take the Shriners' degrees while there.

Number one hard wheat flour, $1.50 per sack; $2.95 per hundred pounds, at the Standard Grocery.

Geo. H. Miller

General Contractor and Builder

Estimates Furnished Free Phone Black 413

REMEMBER

That we have every facility for turning out neat printing of all kinds. Letter heads, bill heads, office stationery, etc., furnished at the lowest prices first class work will permit.

MANUFACTURERS' Overstock Sale

of

JAPANESE MERCHANDISE

We are enabled to offer a big range of Japanese Table Cloths with napkins to match, including Sideboard Runners, Doilies, Etc.

These goods are all hand embroidered in beautiful designs and will be on sale

SATURDAY, JUNE 24

From 8:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m.

At 1/4 Off Import Price

They are now on display in our Box Butte window for your inspection. This sale will be a hummer. Come early.

MOLLRING'S

The Store of Quality

For Women Who Think!

You are interested, almost as much as we are, in extending the use of the Safe Home Match.

It is the most reliable, the most efficient and the safest match that can be made. It is absolutely non-poisonous. It is made under conditions that forever do away with one of the worst of occupational diseases. It removes a poison from the reach of children in American homes.

We ask you to use this new non-poisonous match and to urge others to do likewise.

Sc. All grocers. Ask for them by name.

The Diamond Match Company