Band Concert Last Sunday
Last Sunday afternoon at four thirty the Alliance band assembled in the band stand at the City Park. The gates of the park being open, many automobiles had driven in and were stationed all around the band stand. Many people had walked to the park and small groups were gathered to listen to the music. It was rather windy and the band boys had a little trouble in keeping their music on the racks, but they stuck to it and favored the audience with several well rendered pieces. The audience was very well satisfied and if more of the citizens would turn out to these concerts every Sunday afternoon they would go away feeling well repaid for the time spent. The band needs your support and a larger crowd is expected next Sunday.

THE BEST PROOF
Alliance Citizens Cannot Doubt It
Doan's Kidney Pills were used—
They brought benefit.
The story was told to Alliance residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence.
Has proven the result lasting.
The testimony is from this locality.

The proof is convincing.
Mrs. Herman Schroeder, Washington Ave., Sidney, Nebr., says: "I was in a bad way as the result of kidney trouble. I suffered from pains in the small of my back, dizzy spells and I was unable to stoop. On a physician's advice, I put a plaster on my back, but this did not relieve me. I also tried many kidney remedies, but to no avail until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. One box stopped the pain in my back and I continued using this medicine until the trouble disappeared."

A PERMANENT CURE—ON A LATER DATE Mrs. Schroeder said: "I willingly confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. The cure they made has been permanent."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Schroeder has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

He Wanted to Join the Army
An Ellsworth young man was very anxious to join the new company of national guards organized in Alliance by Jack Miller, who received the following letter: "J. B. Miller, Alliance—Please hold a place for me, I will join any time if you will pay my fare to Alliance. I am ready for actual service at any time I am put in the field. I am too hard up to pay my own fare to recruit as a volunteer for Mexico, but I will come any time you send for me. I beg of you to send soon."

Sergeant James Webb, Ellsworth, P. S.—I am anxious for the day you send for me."

Feed 3 Per Cent Grain Ration

Pigs on alfalfa pasture will return more profit per pig if fed a grain ration equal to 3 per cent of their weight, according to data of the North Platte Experimental Substation. The pig is a pork-producing machine and like other machinery is most profitable when run at full capacity. A pig's stomach is so small that it will not digest enough alfalfa alone to make a profitable growth. Pigs cannot produce the best gain when on pasture alone or when on pasture supplemented by only a small amount of grain. Tests made at the North Platte Substation show clearly that two and one-half to three pounds of corn daily per 100 pounds of live weight of the pigs produced not only the greatest gain but the greatest profit. The higher the price of corn, the smaller the profit in favor of the heavier ration. However, on a market quoting corn at 70 cents and hogs at 7 1/2 cents, the 3 per cent ration is still the most profitable.

Ellis on Long Auto Trip
Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ellis and children left Sunday morning for an extended auto trip, to take several weeks. They are making the trip in the big Haynes Six and will visit successively Denver, Lincoln, Omaha, returning via O'Neill and Valentine. They expect to take another trip after the return from this one.

Runaway Boy Sent Home
Motte Richards, twelve years of age, took it into his mind to see the world on Thursday of last week and hopped a southbound freight, getting as far as Bridgeport. The kind-hearted railroad men at that point got together, raised a purse of $12, got the boy a bath and haircut and some new clothing and sent him home on the night freight, after giving him a good, strong lecture on the evils of being a tramp.

Geologists to Valentine
Prof. A. C. Whitford, of New York City, of the American Museum of Natural History, on Monday left with his party for Valentine. They will spend two or three weeks in the vicinity of that city and then go to South Dakota to continue their explorations.

Harrison Organizes Band
Frank Harrison of Lincoln is organizing a brass band among the editors of the various Nebraska newspapers and will have them all turned up in shape to accompany the special train of the Nebraska Press Association, which will tour the western part of the state in August. Mr. Harrison is desirous of getting every editor in the state who can play a horn or beat a drum to join his musical organization and accompany the editors on their big trip.

Two Hundred Editors to Attend
Two hundred editors are going to take in the special excursion which is being arranged by the Nebraska Press Association to leave Grand Island on August 7th and spend a week sight-seeing in western Nebraska. The editor of this paper is going along and expects to have the time of his life on this splendidly equipped special train.

Naturally Not.

No Politicians on Board
Politicians and other publicity seekers are going to be barred from the special train of Nebraska editors which leaves Grand Island on August 7th for a tour of a week in the western part of the state. The passengers on the train will be made up entirely of editors and their families, with enough railroad men along to see that everything is made pleasant for the editorial party. This excursion of "Seeing Nebraska First" is being conducted by the Nebraska Press Association.

Peru Normal
Pres. D. W. Hayes attended a meeting of the State Board of Education in Kearney last week.

Professor iKos played a very delightful flute solo at the convocation period on Friday.

On Wednesday the Men's Glee Club sang two very pleasing numbers. Although many of the Glee Club men left Peru this spring, the ranks have been filled up by former members who are back for the summer.

The first baseball game of the summer was played Friday afternoon, the normal defeating the Peru city team with a score of 1 to 0. The game was a snappy one from start to finish. The normal has some good baseball material, many men having played on former teams.

Because of the Rural Educational Conference in session in Peru last week, a convocation was held each day, making it possible for all students to hear addresses given at that time.

A very appreciative and attentive audience listened to a recital given by Amy Emerson Neil, the great violinist, who won the national prize in the violin contest, recently held at Chicago. Miss Neil was accompanied on the piano by her mother, a very noted and capable musician.

Doesn't Talk in its Sleep.
"My boy" said the successful merchant, "never let your capital head remember that money talks, but it doesn't talk in its sleep."

Williams of the Burlington, accompanied by his son, Walter, left Wednesday night for a trip of three weeks which will include stops at Omaha, Chicago, Milwaukee, Ludington, Michigan and Pacific Junction, Iowa. They will go from Chicago to Milwaukee by boat and from Milwaukee to Ludington in the same manner. Mrs. Williams is now visiting at Pacific Junction, Ia. They will return with her.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JULY 2
PAUL AT THESSALONICA AND BEREA.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 17:1-18 (cf. I Thess. 2:1-12).
GOLDEN TEXT—Him did God exalt with his right hand to be a prince and a Savior.—Acts 3:13.

To place a modern war map by the side of the ancient one will help to make the places Paul visited more real. In both of the events of this lesson reference is made to the reading and use of the Scriptures, and teachers should use that to emphasize the reading of the Bible by both old and young. There is real patriotism as well as safety and a liberal education in Bible study. Paul reached Thessalonica about twenty years after the establishment of the Christian church, remained perhaps five or six months and then went on to Berea. Modern Saloniki has been since the Roman days of Thessalonica an important center, thriving and prosperous of later years till the recent Balkan-Turkish war.

I. At Thessalonica (vv. 1-9) (1) Reasoning (vv. 1-5) (a) The place. On this second journey Silas and Timothy (v. 14) were Paul's companions. Recently driven from Philippi (I Thess. 2:1-2) they at once repaired to the synagogue upon reaching the city, knowing that there they could gain a foothold with both Jew and Gentile. It was Paul's usual means (v. 2 Am. R. V.). Doubtless during the two weeks the disciples used every opportunity for discussion. Paul made use of the Sabbath day of assembly although Christians met on the first day of the week for their own distinctive service (Acts 20:7). He also reasoned from the Scriptures which the Jews so highly revered. The best agent for doing personal work is the word of God (Eph. 6:17; Jer. 23:29; Jas. 1:18; I Pet. 1:23). (2) The method. Paul employed three. (a) He reasoned that Christ must suffer. Why? (See Isa. 53:6; Math. 26:28; Heb. 9:22; John 19:36). Paul had only the Old Testament. We have also the New to bring to our aid. (b) That "Christ must rise from the dead"—like Peter at Pentecost. Paul proved this from the Old Testament. If we will allow the Holy Spirit to "open the Scriptures" to us we will find things new and old and exclaim that where as "once I was blind now I see." (c) He "alleged and affirmed" (set forth), e. g. gave testimony that "this Jesus whom I proclaim unto you is the Christ." Paul knew that the historical Jesus was the glorified Christ, for he had met him "in the way" to Damascus. Paul's manner of life in the city as he lived and preached Jesus was much that it contributed greatly to his success. His "manner of life was blameless" (Acts 26:4); he supported himself (I Thess. 2:9; II Thess. 3:8). (3) Reception (v. 6-10). At first these men were received as from God by large numbers (v. 4. See I Thess. 1:6-10). But the gospel then as now causes divisions. Not all professed followers of God know or accept the gospel. Paul's success aroused the envy of the Jews just as every successful servant is envied by those of lesser light. The charge brought against Paul and Silas (v. 6) was in large measure true, and it was a good testimony and tribute to their effectiveness. It was also in accord with Christ's prophecy. (Math. 10:34; Luke 12:53). It is the business of the gospel to accomplish just such results. We need more of such as shall turn the wrong side down and the right side up. These men were accused of "saying that there is another King, one Jesus."

II. At Berea. (v. 10-15). The disciples' departure by night was an act of prudence (Math. 10:23), and Paul continued his great interest in the converts he had left. See the two letters addressed to that church. Reaching Berea Paul began as usual to preach Jesus first of all to the Jews. The citizens of Berea were "more noble" and have continued to this day as a great inspiration to Bible students witness the Berean series of lesson helps. (1) They "received the word with readiness of mind." There was a hunger for spiritual food and they partook of it with a relish. Some receive truth under compulsion while others hunger for it. (See I Thess. 1:7; 3:10). (2) "Searched" (examined) the Scriptures daily. (2) Each day they sought the mind of God.

Much of our present day Bible study is interesting and enlightening, but is not energizing nor evangelistic because it looks upon the Bible merely as literature.

We need to study the Bible as did the Bereans to know love and obey Jesus as our Savior and King.

We need to study it as our guide and counsel through life. Those who "believed" as the result of such preaching and study were well grounded (I Thess. 3:10). After several weeks of such blessed ministry the Thessalonian Jews interfered, "stirring up and troubling the multitude" (x. 14 Am. R. V.).
