

SATURDAY

is Player Piano Day

Big Removal Sale at the Zenith of its Success. Never before such bargains in High Grade Pianos and Player Pianos.

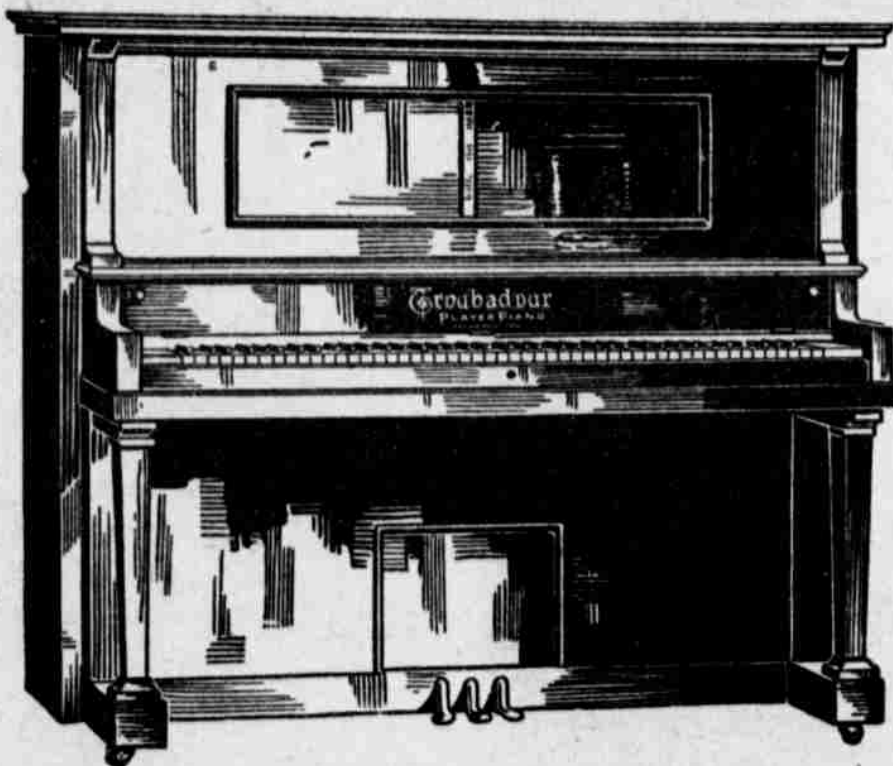

Here is a Most Sensational Announcement:-

Saturday, August 26th, will be special player piano day. This is the day that you can secure an instrument that will make a musician of every member of the family at the prices usually paid for the ordinary piano.

Prices have been literally annihilated. Terms you can't help but meet. Now's your chance.

Do you know that we are making history in Alliance, that this is the most gigantic, mammoth, sweeping price squashing sale ever attempted in this vicinity? EVERY CONCEIVABLE PIANO AND PLAYER PIANO MUST GO. NOTHING RESERVED. SEPTEMBER FIRST IS ONLY A SHORT TIME AWAY. WE POSITIVELY WILL NOT MOVE A SINGLE ONE OF THESE SPLENDID INSTRUMENTS INTO OUR NEW LOCATION IF LOW PRICE AND LOW TERMS WILL PREVENT. Do not let the one grand opportunity of a lifetime get away from you without investigating.

Here is one of the many bargains for Saturday. See this

FREE
BENCH
FREE
SCARF
FREE
DELIVERY

Your Choice of Thirty Rolls of Music Free
With This Splendid
Player Piano

$345, $10 down and $10 per month.

OF COURSE we will always be in position to offer you the greatest values in anything musical from the fact that we are manufacturers. We make our own pianos in our own factories, Rockford, Illinois, and our method of selling is direct FROM FACTORY TO HOME, but NOW WHILE THIS GREAT SALE IS IN PROGRESS IS THE TIME TO BUY YOUR PIANO OR PLAYER PIANO AT MANUFACTURER'S WHOLESALE COST. Liberal allowances are made for old instruments taken in exchange.

Remember: We are open evenings until nine o'clock for your convenience.

Haddorff Music House

RAILROAD FARES
PAID TO OUT-OF-
TOWN BUYERS

THE ONLY FACTORY PIANO
STORE IN WESTERN NEBRASKA.
Opposite Postoffice,
ALLIANCE, NEBR.

OUT-OF-TOWN BUY-ERS, WRITE FOR CATALOGS AND
SPECIAL PRICES

Carl Spacht of Hemingford spent a few hours in Alliance Sunday.

Vic Covalt was in town Sunday from the ranch in his Ford car.

Skinner's Macaroni Products, made in Nebraska. Ask your grocer.—Adv.

Everett Eldred came in from the ranch Wednesday on business in his auto.

Robert Hunter was down from the Hunter ranch near Hemingford the first of the week.

D. T. Wilson and son of Marshall county, Iowa, arrived the first of the week with his brother, A. R. Wilson.

Miss Alice Enyeart, assistant cashier of the Marland State Bank, visited with friends in Alliance last Sunday.

Miss Kate Kniest left Sunday for Mason City for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Willard C. Myers, formerly of Alliance.

Miss Arline Morrison of Crawford returned home Sunday after a visit of a week with Mrs. Clarence Schaffer of this city.

Miss Hazel Donkerley, who has been visiting the O'Donnell family, returned to her home at Helena, Montana, Sunday.

Ora Phillips, who is doing the railroad grading at Antioch for the new sidetracks, was in the city the first of the week on business.

Frank Meritt, of the Rodgers grocery store, left Sunday for Casper, Wyo., to visit a short time with relatives. He is expected back today.

Charley Tully and M. C. Hubble came in Sunday noon from Denver. Mr. Hubble will spend some time in Alliance. Mr. Tully went by auto to Rushville, Monday.

F. M. Clemmons, the new representative in this territory of the L. C. Smith typewriter, is in the city getting acquainted. He is a new member of Post M. T. P. A.

GIRL WANTED—Inquire at Alliance Steam Laundry. 38-14-7512

Charley Hill and wife returned Wednesday morning from a three weeks' trip to Mrs. Hill's former home at Dilley, Oregon. Mrs. Hill spent a good part of the summer there and was joined by Charley three weeks ago.

Jack Tynan, of the Western Union Telegraph Company force at Burlington headquarters, returned Sunday with his family from a visit at Marion, Gallon, Akron, and Mt. Vernon, Ohio, as well as other eastern points. His family, who went east about July first, returned with him. Jack was gone about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Keeler, her father, A. S. Crane, and Harvey Coursey composed a fishing party that left a week ago Sunday morning for the Pine Ridge reservation, where they camped and fished until Saturday, returning home that evening. The trip was made by auto. Mr. Keeler is a keen sportsman and reports the capture of a fine bunch of trout.

Isaac Drake and family of Gresham, Nebr., arrived Friday evening in their Ford touring car from Wyoming, where they have been visiting for several weeks. Mr. Drake is an uncle of E. C. Drake of this city and will visit for a few days with them here before he goes on to Bridgeport, where they will visit his sister there, before returning to their home at Gresham.

Frank A. Pierson and wife, of Minden, Nebr., arrived Wednesday morning via auto from their home. They will stop over here until the last of the week. Mr. Pierson left Alliance about six years ago to engage in business at Minden and has prospered there. He was formerly a Burlington railroad man here, being employed at headquarters. His many friends in the city are glad to see him back again. They will visit in the city until the last of the week, when they will continue on their trip, going to Omaha and Chicago and stopping at points enroute, before returning to Minden.

Woodruff Ball of Valentine was in Alliance on business on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Mr. Ball is doing quite a lot of traveling in connection with his loan and real estate business.

Returns from Eastern Buying Trip
Harry Mollring, of the George A. Mollring store, returned Wednesday morning from a trip of three weeks spent at eastern points purchasing a complete line of ladies' ready-to-wear, millinery, silks and dress goods. Mr. Mollring found the best markets at Chicago and Cleveland, Ohio, where he purchased fall lines which will be on display soon at the Mollring store. Harry knows the business from all points, having been engaged most of his lifetime in both the wholesale and retail ends of the business.

Curtis Home Bakery Opens
In this issue of The Herald will be found the announcement of the Curtis Home Bakery of their opening in their new location at 120 West Third street. They will handle a complete line of bakery goods and delicatessen foods, and on Monday, August 28, will have a full line of fresh and cooked meats. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis enjoyed a fine business while on Box Butte avenue and will undoubtedly have an excellent business in their new location in the new building recently erected by F. E. Holsten.

Infant Buried Here
The two-year-old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. James Hoppes of Ogdenburg died at that place Monday night. The body was brought to Alliance Wednesday noon and burial was made in the Alliance cemetery at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Dan Hoppes of this city is a brother of James Hoppes.

Your Palmer Garment is Here

Hundreds of Garments have arrived. Classy—Well, I should say so. See our $25.00 Special on Suits

Gage Felts

all colors, hundreds of styles to select from

$2, $2.50, $3, $3.50

The new "off-the-face" brim effect, accentuated by a unique pyramid point. A very attractive velvet and silk design in Navy for wear at the Country Club, etc.

See the Display in Our North Window

W. R. Harper Department Store