Lloyd's Column

The Salesman's Prayer
 Ere I lay me down to sleep,
 I pray thee, Lord, my loved ones keep;
 Watch over them, both night and day,
 Whilst I am wandering, far away;
 Protect my loving, faithful mate
 Who awaits my coming, soon or late;
 My children keep from earthly ill,
 Guide them to do Thy holy will;
 My fellow travelers, wherever sent,
 Guard them from serious accident;
 Our country give thrice-blessed peace,
 Make war and strife forever cease;
 Pour out on me Thy bounteous grace
 As I travel from place to place;
 My daily work, I pray Thee bless,
 Lead me in paths of righteousness;
 Grant that I return safe home again,
 When my work is done. Amen.
 —M. J. Miller, Canton, Ill.

"F. B. T.", a frequent contributor to Lloyd's Column, who recently sent us the bit of prose entitled "Knott by a Dam-Site", sends us in confirmation of his tale a picture post card showing the greatest power dam in the world—across the Mississippi river at Keokuk, Iowa. This dam is almost a mile long, 42 feet wide at the bottom, 29 feet wide on top and will produce 300,000 horsepower. We can assure our readers that this is true, even though every funny story that creeps into this column is untrue. "Knott by a Dam-Site."

John Rheinkober, Alliance barber (and who, by the way, is a Wilson Republican), tells the following: "An Irishman rushed up to a farm house and asked for a shovel. When asked his reason for wanting a shovel he replied that he wanted it to dig his pal, Mike, out of the mud. 'And how deep is Mike in the mud?' asked the farmer. 'Up to his ankles,' replied Pat. 'Well,' said the farmer, 'why don't you let him dig himself out if he is in only up to his ankles?' 'He can't,' said Pat, 'because he is up to his ankles with his head down.'"

Had Pa Nearly Finished
 A man who has traveled extensively says that two of the funniest idioms he ever heard had to do with mealtimes. In one locality in the Kentucky mountains where he found great hospitality among the natives his hosts would draw rhythmically, before each meal: "Don't be backwards in comin' towards. Make a long arm and lean to. Everythin' stand handy nigh you." Among the Pennsylvania Dutch he heard a girl call to her brother: "Come in here and eat yourself once. Ma and I are on the table now, and pa's half et already!"

Talent Wasted
 Traveling in the mountains a man stopped at a cabin and asked for a drink of water. An old woman brought it to him, and after drinking he had quite a talk with her, telling her about some of the wonders he had seen in the outside world. When he finally stopped to take a breath, the old woman took the pipe out of her mouth and said: "Stranger, if I knowed as much as you do, I'd go somewhere an' start a little grocery."

The Professional Trouble Maker
 The menace of every community is the professional trouble maker. He crawls into the confidence of his victims with all the subtlety of the snake. He pursues his vile calling in the two-faced manner of the coyote, to which breed he belongs. He is the curse that makes human existence a hell. His daily recreation is slinging dirt and filthy lies. The height of his ambition is to destroy the happiness of people who think him their dearest friend. You do him a favor and he'll make your life a hell. You call his bluff and he will fawn at your feet. A coward and a Judas, yes, even worse than the Judas that betrayed his Master with a kiss because he had the nerve to go and hang himself. Will we never be free from the toils of such a wretch. The holy bonds of matrimony and the confidant betrothed escapes not his dirty slanderous tongue. Oh, god of the Islam and the God of the Christian, mercifully rid the world of this stinking reptile. We care not how you do it—hang, burn, electrocute, drown or shoot, or all.

"Judge not lest ye be judged," comes the warning hurled from the righteous tongue of the only righteous person that ever came to this sinful earth, but, God forgive judgement upon such a wretch. But they are a part of the microcosm—a cantankerous boil that must be endured. —Exchange.

Hairless stories from Exchange's
 A corpulent tenor was about to go on in the oratorio of "Elijah," when his trousers gave way at the seams. Numerous pins were brought into service and finally, well trussed up, he went upon the stage as a druggist. "Ye People, Rend Your Hearts, Rend Your Hearts, and Not Your Garments."

At a military church service during the South African war some recruits were listening to the chaplain hunch saying, "Let them slay the king as Joshua smote the Egyptians," when a recruit whispered to his companion: "Say, Bill, the old joke is a bit off; doesn't he know it was Kitchener who swiped the Egyptians?"

The teacher had explained that a monarchy is a country ruled by a king. The pupils got that. "If the king dies, who rules?" the teacher continued. "The queen," someone suggested. "Yes, under certain circumstances, which I shall explain later, that is true. Now, if the queen dies, who takes her place?" Only one boy ventured to reply. "The Jack," he said.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Back-ache or Bladder trouble—Neutralizes acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Get less meat, drink lots of water; get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clear and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

SAYS MIDNIGHT STARTS PERIOD OF BEST SLEEP

A GOOD REST MAKES CARE AS GREAT AS MOUNTAINS ISH OVER NIGHT

12:00 o'clock midnight. This should be the hour for best sleep. It is claimed by a doctor that one hour of sleep at night is worth five hours of sleep at any other time.

We go to bed tired in mind and body and if our sleep is good, we arise refreshed and rejuvenated. Even cares that seemed as mountains at night are as nothing in the morning. Truly, good sleep is the repair shop for the body.

Miserable, indeed, is the person who cannot sleep. Sleeplessness weakens the nervous system. It upsets the digestive organs, it influences the blood circulation, and every other function.

When a man lies in bed and hears the clock strike one, two, three, four, his nervous system is shattered.

Thousands tell how Tanlac has brought them sound, healthy, refreshing sleep, strengthened their nerves, and given them good appetites.

It makes new rich, vitalizing blood and more nerve force. If you are pale and thin and lack vitality the rapid building up action of Tanlac will surprise you.

Tanlac is being specially introduced in Alliance by Harry Thiele.
