LIVE STOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Cattle Market Steady to About 10c Lower; Heavy Receipts

HOG TRADE ABOUT STEADY

Heaviest Run of Lambs So Far This Season—One Car Short of Last Year's Biggest Day. Fat Lambs Rather Dragg—Not Much Sold Up 'Till Noon. Little Change in Sheep—Fat Ewe Sales Steady to Lower.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Nebraska, September 19, 1916.—The week opened with the heaviest run of cattle so far this year, a total of 662 loads, about 17,500 head. Most of the receipts consisted largely of western range cattle, and there were fewer corn-fed heaves here than for several days. Supplies of cows and heifers were not large, and with a tolerably broad demand from both packers and outside butchers, the market was active and prices were in about the same notches as toward the latter part of last week.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice heaves, $10.00@10.85; fair to good heaves, $9.00@9.75; common to fair heaves, $6.75@8.75; good to choice heifers, $6.75@7.25; good to choice cows, $6.50@7.00; fair to good cows, $5.85@6.40; canners and cutters, $4.50@5.75; veal calves, $8.00@11.00; bologna bulls, $5.25@5.85; beef bulls, $6.00@7.00.

Both packers and shippers started out buying their hogs at prices that were steady to in spots 10c higher. Two of the packers left the most of their orders to be filled on the late trade, and when the other buyers got through they started in to repeat Saturday's stunt of lowering prices on the finish. Sellers, however, held on to most of their hogs and succeeded in cashing them at figures that were almost as good as early prices. Bulk of the hogs sold at $10.00@10.70, and a sprinkling of the best kinds as high as $10.90, while the tops reached $11.00.

The largest sheep and lamb run of the year to date was on hand Monday, when 173 cars, or about 47,000 head were reported in. Owing to the large receipts a decline in fat lambs was inevitable, although about 65% of the offerings were feeders, and many of the sellers priced their tops around a dime lower from the start. This did not tempt buyers, however, and up to noon not a load of killer lambs had been cashed. Quite a few strings of the best feeding lambs sold in good season, many bands going at $10.25@10.40.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, $10.50@10.60; lambs, fair to good, $10.10@10.50; lambs, feeders, $9.75@10.50; yearlings, good to choice, $7.75@8.50; yearlings, fair to good, $7.00@7.75; yearlings, feeders, $5.80@8.00; wethers, fair to choice, $7.50; ewes, good to choice, $6.75@7.25; ewes, fair to good, $6.00@6.90; ewes, poor to culls, $4.00@5.75; ewes, feeding, $5.00@5.50; ewes, breeders, all ages, $6.25@9.00.

Society Col.

The Methodist Aid society will meet with Mrs. Sterns and Mrs. Spacht next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sterns.

The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church met at the parish house yesterday afternoon with Mesdames Johnson and Hoag as hostesses.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mose Wright, with Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Coker hostesses.

The P. E. O. society will hold their second meeting of the new year at the home of Mrs. C. E. Marks, Monday evening. The regular program will be followed.

The Woman's Guild met at the parish house with Mrs. Ray Hoag and Mrs. Harry Johnson as hostesses. There were about thirty present, and had a delightful meeting.

The Woman's Club will meet September 22 at the home of Mrs. W. R. Pate. This date is a week earlier than usual because of the fair next week. There will be a business session, roll call, remarks, social half hour and music.

The Daughters of Isabella and the Knights of Columbus gave a social in the club rooms of Holy Rosary church, Wednesday evening. Cards and music were features of the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Moxon and Mrs. Dow entertained their Sunday school classes at the home of Mrs. Dow. There were about thirty young people present. After refreshments were served they played games the balance of the evening.

At the Baptist church Friday evening a "measurement" social will be held. Each person will be accurately measured as to height and will be expected to pay two cents a foot and one cent per inch for the fractional portion of a foot. For instance, if a man is 5 feet, 9 inches high he will have to pay 19 cents for the 5 feet, and 9 cents for the rest. An interesting program will be given and refreshments will be served without charge. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this social church function.

The Ladies' Aid society, of the Methodist church, met with Mrs. Oscar O'Bannon Wednesday afternoon. After the business meeting there was a very entertaining program rendered. Mrs. Ralph Beal rendered a very pleasing vocal solo; Mrs. Geo. Gaddis, a reading, and Mrs. Bundy, a vocal solo, after which there was a surprise box sealed, and the guests were to guess what was in the box, the one guessing correctly to receive the box and the contents. No one guessing correctly, it was sold to Mrs. Norton, and upon opening it she found a dressed chicken. The proceeds went for the benefit of the society.

Robert L. Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hunter of Alliance, was married, Wednesday evening, September 20, at 8 o'clock, to Miss Zillah Grace Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stewart, at the home of the bride's parents, in Broken Bow, Nebraska.

Robert Hunter is a Box Butte county boy and has a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who wish him and his bride much happiness. The bride is one of Broken Bow's most popular young ladies and will leave behind a host of friends in coming to Hemingford to make their home.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hunter and son James left Alliance Tuesday noon to be present at the wedding. The young couple will, after a honeymoon, make their home at the Hunter ranch near Hemingford.

The home of Roy Strong was a beautiful scene Sunday morning when the marriage of their cousin Virginia Watson to Henry G. Dillman of Ellsworth was solemnized. At 9 a. m. Mrs. Roy Strong played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, as the bride and groom took their place under an arch of pink and white cosmos and fern. Rev. J. B. Carns performed the impressive ring ceremony. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white silk, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The groom was dressed in conventional black. Only the immediate family of the bride and groom were present. Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Strong, cousin of the bride, served a delicious three-course wedding breakfast, after which the bride and groom left on the noon train for their home on the ranch at Ellsworth. Mrs. Dillman is a talented young woman, having taught for several years in the sand hill district, and has been a very successful young teacher. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dillman, Elsa Dillman, R. T. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Munger, Clarence Munger, Mr. and Mrs. John Strong, Miss Della Strong, Dick Strong, and Mr. and Mrs. M. L.

Phares, of Bridgeport. The Herald extends hearty congratulations to the young couple and wish them a long and happy married life.

DELIVERS CLOSING SERMON
 Dr. J. B. Carns, pastor of the Methodist church, delivered his closing sermon for the conference year Sunday morning to a crowded house. In his report for the year he stated that the Sunday school had increased twenty-five per cent. The report of the general church growth showed fifty-four new members, a gain of twenty-five per cent. The general benevolence collections amounted to $1307 for the year and the salaries are all paid. This is a very creditable showing and Dr. Carns certainly deserves credit for the showing made.

MRS. FISH KILLS SELF
 It is reported in Alliance that Mrs. Clyde Fish, living on a farm fourteen miles southeast of Rushville, and who was the mother of twelve children, committed suicide Monday evening by taking carbolic acid. Mrs. Fish, who is a peddler of trinkets and medicines had, according to the report, just returned home from a trip. The act of the woman was the result of a family quarrel. Mrs. Fish was still a young woman, having married at the age of thirteen.
