

A whitewash that disinfects, kills mites, and brightens the poultry house, recommended by the agricultural college poultry department, is made as follows: Slack 5 quarts of rock lime with hot water to about the consistency of cream. To this add 1 pint of crude carbolic acid or monolene, and 1 quart of kerosene. Stir thoroughly, and dilute with twice its own volume of water. Apply with either spray pump or whitewash brush. When properly prepared, this solution accomplishes three things: First, the zenoleum acts as a disinfectant, killing germs. Second, the kerosene penetrates the wood and remains intact for some time, and is effective in destroying mites. Third, the lime is whitening, and brings an atmosphere of sweetness and light to the house.

Mr. Business Man, on your next trip take along some artistically printed business cards. The expense is light and they are business getters. The Herald's job printing department will turn them out promptly. Phone 340 and we will call.

A single grain ration, such as corn, when fed to chickens cause a partial starving thru lack of certain food elements necessary to proper growth in chicks and to the development of yolk and albumen for the laying hen, says the poultry department of the agricultural college. A general weakness is noticeable where a variety of feed is not given. This weakness sometimes manifests itself in intestinal trouble and in a lowering of the vitality. Such feed as corn when given alone is too fattening; and unless a variety of at least three grains is provided for in the daily rations, best results in egg production cannot be obtained.

Rev. Stephen B. Williams, who on September 10 closed a very successful year as pastor of the Emmanuel Methodist church in Lincoln, and who since then has been preaching for the newly organized Nazarene band at Fairbury, has finally decided to accept the pastorate of the Methodist church at Greenwood, where a new $10,000 brick building has just been completed. Mr. Williams filled the pulpit there last Sunday, and is delighted with the prospect for successful work. He will make his home for the present at 1311 South Thirteenth street, Lincoln.—Lincoln Journal.
