

From the earliest stages of civilization, it has been the desire to mark the last resting place of the departed and will be, so long as mankind has tender memory. We have given study to the designing of memorials and to the proper materials for their construction. We invite a personal call at our show rooms where you may see many artistic designs both elaborate and simple and at reasonable prices consistent with proper execution.

CONNELL FOUND GUILTY FIRST DEGREE MURDER
Former Colorado Postmaster Sent to Prison for Life

Sidney.—J. F. Connell, former postmaster of Insmont, Colo., was found guilty of first-degree murder and sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Ira C. Paup, near Sunol, Nebr., July 28, last. Connell and Granger Lukens of Denver were charged with killing Paup and Paul Vask following the robbery of the State bank of Sunol. Lukens' trial began last week.

J. F. Connell, whose trial for the murder of Ira C. Paup has attracted attention in western Nebraska and in Colorado, was formerly postmaster at Insmont, Colo., where he was also interested in a summer hotel.

The arrest of Connell and Lukens followed a pistol duel with farmers near Sunol, Nebr., on July 28. The farmers formed a posse in pursuit of two men who held up the bank at Sunol, and at the end of the trail found Connell and Lukens in an automobile. A running battle ensued in which Paup and Paul Vask were killed.

The men protested their innocence, declaring they had been compelled by the perpetrators of the robbery to drive the machine.

A number of witnesses testified for the prosecution that Connell and Lukens were the men who held up the bank.

In their possession was found a considerable sum of money.

In explanation of this the men said they were on a business trip thru the state in the interest of a phonograph concern for which they were agents in Denver.

Several thousand dollars was taken from the bank.

CHARGED WITH LURING GIRL

Earl Akes, Nebraska man, who was arrested Tuesday as he stepped from a train at the Union station in Denver, charged with luring Mary Moran, a 16-year-old girl he met en route, to come to Denver with him, was turned over to District Attorney Rush by the juvenile court. Miss Moran, who was to have changed cars at Brush, Colo., and so on to her home in Scottsbluff, was persuaded by Akes to accompany him. His alleged scheme to harm her was only frustrated, it is said, by the conductor, who overheard their conversation. Miss Moran is at the detention home pending the outcome of the case.

SAND HILL RANCHERS PROSPER

The editor enjoyed an excellent dinner Sunday at the ranch home of Herman Trinkle while in the sand hills the first of the week. It certainly was the best meal we have partaken of for many months. There was everything that one could desire. The people of the sand hills are indeed making good from every turn. Every rancher has plenty of feed for his stock and many of them have sold their stuff that was ready for the fall market, all getting the prevailing high prices. Mr. Trinkle has sold several thousand dollars worth of cattle and is going into the winter with about 100 head of cattle, he also has a one bunch of hogs for which he has been offered $19 per hundred weight.—Hay Springs News.

HIGH PRICES FOR DRUGS CAUSED BY EUROPEAN WAR

P. J. Brennan, druggist of Alliance when interviewed regarding the prevailing prices for most all kinds of drugs, declared the war in Europe was responsible for the existing condition and quoted prices to prove his assertion.

Glance over the table which follows and see for yourself under what great burdens your retail druggist is laboring. Think of the thousands of items he must carry in stock—many of them slow moving and profitless at best.

One seldom sees a work of art given away that is the equal of the booklet that Kimball Bros. of Lincoln have had printed, and are giving free upon request to persons who are thinking of purchasing monuments as memorials to departed friends. The booklet consists principally of half-tone cuts of monuments and statuary erected by them, but contains some helpful suggestions in the introduction.

As a sculptor, Mr. F. L. Kimball, the senior member of the firm of Kimball Bros., is an artist of exceptional ability and more than state-wide reputation. A few illustrations of his work are shown in the booklet, namely: Bronze statue of "Memory" in the Thompson monument at Lincoln; marble statue on the McDonald monument; bronze portrait medallion of the late Gov. John M. Thurston; bronze statue in the Kerr monument at Hastings; the John W. Gilbert memorial tablet in the Friend library; marble bust of the late Judge O. P. Mason.
