

Society Column

Mrs. Frank J. Was was hostess to several Thursday afternoon, the party being in compliment to Mrs. Culver of Denver, Mrs. Finch of Chicago, and Mrs. Bentley of Deadwood. The affair was in the nature of a Kensington, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Besides the guests of honor the following were present: Mesdames Drake, Shaw, J. Young, Barnett, Mitchell and Gantz.

Mrs. F. E. Holsten entertained at a 6:30 dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Finch, who left for her home at Chicago that night. In the neighborhood of twenty-five guests were present. Pink and white was used in an attractive way in the decorations. Following the luncheon cards provided the amusement. Mrs. Finch received the award for the highest score, while Mrs. Harris won the free-for-all.

The Alliance Women's Choral club practiced in the assembly room at the court house Monday evening. The members are developing rapidly. Ladies interested are cordially invited to join.

Mrs. William Carson Shaw was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday in honor of Mrs. Finch of Chicago, Mrs. Culver of Denver and Mrs. Bentley of Deadwood. The color scheme was neatly worked out in yellow and white. The guests were Mesdames Finch, Culver, Bentley, Drake, Barnett, Shaw, Mitchell, J. Young and Gantz.

The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church enjoyed a fine meeting Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Finch, of Chicago, who was a guest in the city, gave a very helpful as well as pleasing talk on the subject, "Woman's Work in the Church."

Mrs. S. Tillett and Mrs. William Weidenhamer were hostesses at a 1:30 o'clock luncheon given at the Tillett home in the Folra apartments. The event was in honor of Miss Grace G. Finkle and following the luncheon took the form of a kitchen shower. The decorations were in red and white. The gifts for Miss Finkle were arranged in such a manner that a great deal of enjoyment was derived from this source. The guests in attendance were Mesdames Harris, Marks, Hargraves, Tully, Gavin, Gilman, Helpbringer, Kridelbaugh, Hampton, Rumer, Hively, Cogswell, Hall, Bogue, Welch, Highland, Contant, and the Misses Regan and Finkle.

Miss Amanda Nabb became the wife of John H. Rehder on November 15. The ceremony was performed at high noon at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nabb. Rev. F. Worthman, pastor of the German Evangelical Lutheran church, officiated. The bride was attended by Miss Dora Rehder, sister of the groom, while the best man was Edward Nabb, the bride's brother. Mrs. Rehder is a graduate of the Alliance high school of the class of 1912, is a well-known and popular young lady. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Rehder of Alliance and is well known. Among those in attendance at the nuptial services were relatives from the eastern portion of the state. The happy couple are enjoying a two-weeks honeymoon trip in the east. On their return they will be at home to their many friends at 804 Toluca.

Miss Anna Finnegan was the guest of honor at a four-course dinner given Friday afternoon by the employees of the Silver Grill cafe. C. A. Lange acted as toastmaster. Ten guests were present. Miss Finnegan will be married to Mr. Herman Nelson shortly.

Mrs. George Dettien was hostess to twelve guests Thursday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Clapp of Mumper, who was her guest. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Rolla Wilson entertained the members of the Inter Se Club at a Kensington and four-course luncheon Thursday afternoon. All in attendance enjoyed themselves very much.

Furs at one-half price during the big Thanksgiving sale at The Fashion Shop. A fine, large stock to select from of the latest styles.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. Ponath.

Friends here have received announcements of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Wick, formerly of this city, to Mr. Randall Sicker, a rancher of near Forsythe, Mont. The ceremony was performed on November 7. Mrs. Sicker has many friends in and about Alliance, having been employed in the millinery department of one of the local stores here some four years ago.

Beginning Wednesday afternoon, December 6, and continuing each Wednesday afternoon thereafter the Elks Club rooms will be turned over to the ladies. At a meeting held Friday evening it was decided to issue invitations to lady relatives of members to enjoy a Kensington and afternoon tea on December 6. If the ladies take hold of the idea the Wednesday afternoon affairs will be continued. It is planned to make these teas one of the most delightful, social affairs of the week. The entire building will be at the command of the ladies together with the services of the chef. The guests may bring their fancy work, play cards or keno, play and listen to their favorite music on the piano or phonograph, use the billiard room, gymnasium or bowling alleys, in fact do anything they might wish. And after a pleasant afternoon has been spent tea and a luncheon will be served them, all without one cent of expense to them. The "Best People On Earth" want to

A GIFT Suggestion Portraits of the Children for Christmas, 1916

The Photographer in your town.

Phone 901 for Appointment

P. Van Graven

OVER MOLLRING'S

show their guests a real good time. To those of the ladies to whom the plan has been suggested it has been enthusiastically received and it is hoped to make these functions one of the most important social events of the week. From time to time the ladies will be privileged to invite their friends and hold an open-house Kensington. The entire success of the plan depends entirely on how it is received by the ladies, but every indication, it is said, points to its entire success.

The marriage of James K. Hewett, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hewett of this city, to Miss Veich of Lincoln took place at the home of the bride's parents, in Lincoln, Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hewett were in attendance at the ceremony, leaving Alliance Saturday night. The happy couple will live at Broken Bow, Nebr., where the groom operates the Broken Bow Republican, which newspaper he recently purchased.

Arthur L. Grimes of Casper, Wyo., and Miss Eleanor Ironmonger of Jacksonville, Ill., were united in marriage here Monday afternoon by Rev. J. B. Carns of the Methodist church, the ceremony taking place at the M. E. parsonage. The bride wore a handsome dovesilk traveling suit. The groom is employed on the Burlington working on the Casper division. The bride has been employed as a stenographer at Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Grimes will make their home at Casper.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. Moxon at her home at 807 Big Horn avenue. The regular foreign missionary meeting was held and a most interesting program given. The "King Herald" girls gave a pageant that was highly appreciated.

Mrs. F. W. Harris entertained, Monday afternoon, at a luncheon and bridge party for Mrs. J. L. Bentley who is here from Deadwood, S. D. Richmond roses tastefully decorated the home. Mrs. W. C. Shaw was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses as the prize for the high honors at bridge. The guests were the Mesdames Holsten, Cogswell, Was, Shaw, Morrow, Mitchell and Gantz.

Emmett Wilson, on Thursday, the occasion of his ninth birthday anniversary, was host to a number of his little friends. A three-course dinner was served by Mrs. Wilson and later in the evening the party was taken to the theatre. Those present were: Leo Bayers, Clifford Lester, Raymond Garrett, Charles Brookley, Ralph Cox, Philip Gillan, Henry Gordon, Frank Hodgkinson and William Eberly.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rehder entertained the following at a dinner party at their home Saturday evening: Mrs. Enoch Boyer, the Misses Helen and Ruth Macy, H. A. Macy, Enoch Boyer, J. Boyer and J. C. Corsey of Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry DuBuque entertained at a 1:30 dinner party Sunday afternoon, the affair taking the form of a farewell to a number of their immediate friends. The DuBques expect to leave shortly for Lander, Wyo., where Mr. DuBuque expects to again enter the theatrical business, having recently sold his interest here. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schott, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Sallows, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Benoit, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Johnson, together with the employees of the Imperial theatre.

There was a good attendance out at Antioch Sunday to listen to the entertainment given there by the Alliance School of Music. If the interest shown at the entertainment Sunday is any indication the remaining eight concerts to be given there will be very well attended. The following program was rendered: Old Prayer, Di Laaso (11th century).—Meditation—"Thals", Mr. Ralph Unlacke.—Gavotte "D'Albert", Mrs. Edith Swan Zediker. "My Charming Marguerite", Miss Eunice Burnett. Last movement of the Caesar Franck Sonata, Mr. Ralph Unlacke. Venetian Barcarole, Mrs. Zediker. "I Am Titiana" from "Mignon," Miss Eunice Burnett.

The meeting of the Woman's Club will be held this week on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Slagle, starting at 3 o'clock. The program will be as follows: Musical program—Roll Call, national airs, 1—Great Britain—"Rule Britannia", 2—Austria—"God Proserge the Emperor", 3—Russia—"God Save the Czar", 4—France—"Marsellies", 5—Italy—"Garibaldi", 6—Germany—"Die Wacht am Rhine", 7—United States—"Star Spangled Banner." Story of 1, 2, 3 and 4—Mrs. Reddish. Story of 5, 6 and 7—Mrs. Della Mallory. Each song played on the Sonora.

Thanksgiving sale at The Fashion Shop starts on November 25th. Read the ad.

Mrs. Harry Gantz was hostess at a bridge party and luncheon Saturday afternoon, those present being Mesdames Was, Shaw, Jeep, John Young, Modisett and Mitchell.

AT THE STANDARD'S SALE
7 boxes Standard matches for 25 cents.
6 cans Sunbrite Cleanser for 25 cents.
25-cent package Gold Dust for 20 cents.
3 pounds bulk Macaroni for 25 cents.
STANDARD GROCERY CO.

Miss Jeanette M. Haney and Lester W. Harvey were united in marriage Thursday evening at the home of the bride, 511 Niobrara avenue. Both are well known and popular members of the senior class of the Alliance high school. The happy couple will make their home in the future at Omaha where the groom has secured employment.

Miss Myrtle F. Hemby of this vicinity and Joseph W. Tourecheck of Wayside, Nebr., were united in marriage Monday at the home of James Skinner in this city. Rev. J. B. Carns of the Methodist church pronounced the words that made them man and wife. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of beautiful white tulle with trimming of lace. A sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to the near relatives and friends immediately following the ceremony. The bride is well known here, having taught school the past two years. The groom is a well-to-do rancher living near Wayside. They will be at home at Wayside, Nebr., to their many friends.

The men of the Christian church held a social session Tuesday evening that was a success from start to finish. Representative-elect Lloyd Thomas gave a talk on proposed prohibitory laws and others made short talks. The general discussion was interesting to all in attendance. These meetings are increasing both in attendance and interest from week to week.

Money-saving specials in ladies' ready-to-wear clothing during the Thanksgiving Sale at The Fashion Shop. Read the ad in this paper.

Miss Mildred Campbell was hostess Thursday evening at a most delightful Kensington. A pleasant and tasty three-course luncheon was served. The guests were as follows: Misses Ruth Morris, Cynthia Davenport, Charlotte Mollring, Hannah Keane, Teresa O'Donnell, and Hazel Bennett.

Don't forget to take advantage of the Standard's big Anniversary Grocery Sale which closes Saturday night.

The members of the P. E. O. society were very pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Tully in compliment to Mrs. Albert Killian, the state organizer for the order. A special business session was held and at 6 o'clock Mrs. Tully entertained the members at a well-appointed dinner party. The entire afternoon was a great success.

Mrs. W. B. Barnett was hostess Sunday evening at a dinner party given in compliment to her guest, Mrs. Culver of Denver. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Was, W. B. Metz and H. M. Bushnell. This afternoon Mrs. Barnett gives a 1:30 luncheon in honor of her guest.

Don't forget to take advantage of the Standard's big Anniversary Grocery Sale which closes Saturday night.

On Friday Miss Katherine D. Denring of Grand Island, Nebr., and Joseph Whalen of Douglas, Wyo., were united in marriage at the Episcopal church, Dean Shaw performing the ceremony. The couple left the same day for Douglas where they will make their home.

Miss Elsie Carroll was hostess on Tuesday evening to a number of her friends, the entertainment being in the form of a theatre party. Luncheon was served to the guests at Brennan's following which the guests were entertained at the home of Mrs. M. E. Coleman. The guests were Mrs. M. E. Coleman, Dorothy Bicknell, Florence Williams, and Emma and Ethel James.

Don't miss the first great Thanksgiving Sale at The Fashion Shop, commencing November 25th. Read the ad in this paper.

THANKSGIVING

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving

An appropriate time for showing our appreciation of the good things that have been our lot to share; Enjoying the peace, comforts and good cheer that reign supreme in this our "Country."

A new suit or overcoat from our superb line of pure wool clothes will aid the inner man on "Thursday" the 30th, to enjoy his annual feast. These splendid garments are the epitome of style and cloth quality—models to please every taste and fit every figure—priced at $12.50, $15.00, $20.00, $25.00

Excessories that are in keeping we have too—

Shirts, Ties, Hose, Shoes

No matter what your wardrobe needs, you will find it here at a price you'll like,

E. G. LAING
"Modern Clothes For Men"

Consign Your Shipments to the Blain Horse & Mule Commission Co.

Grand Island, Nebraska

Our Motto: "Service and a Square Deal"

Auction Every Tuesday and Wednesday. Private Sales, Daily
For Information write or wire us

WANT AD DEPARTMENT

LOST—Pair of gold glasses between Central school and Nebraska Rooming House. Finder leave at Herald office and receive reward. 50-11-78223

FOR RENT

Furnished room for rent in modern residence close to downtown business district. Furnace heat and both. Phone 175.

FOR RENT—3 modern rooms over fashion shop. Call Ash 3091. 50-11-7811

ROOMS FOR RENT—132 Cheyenne Avenue, Alliance, Nebraska. 44-11-7682

FOR RENT—Two furnished rooms, 321 Big Horn. Phone Walnut 8992. 48-21-77983

WANTED

LADY COOK WANTED, without children. For ranch work. Phone 471. 39-11-

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Ranch within ten miles of Alliance. 1900 acres, including some farm land suitable for alfalfa. Will sell part interest or whole ranch. A bargain and a money-maker. Address Box 7823, care Alliance Herald. 50-11-7823

Good second-hand Sewing Machine for sale cheap. See at Keep-U-Neat Tailor Shop.

FOR SALE—One lot. Situation, Lot 10, Block 3 of Hitchcock, Hills and Snedeker's addition to Alliance, Nebr., to highest bidder for cash. Write Mrs. Della S. Dalton, Bartlett, Iowa. 51-51-77933

FOR SALE—Heating stove in good condition. Cheap. Phone 349. Lloyd Thomas, Herald office. 50-31

MODERN nine-room house, located in choice residence district in Alliance, for sale at reasonable price. Phone 349 or inquire at Herald office. 42-11-7686

THREE good organs for sale. Practically new. Taken in exchange on pianos. For sale at bargain prices. Wiker Music House, Alliance, Nebr. 1-11-6554

MISCELLANEOUS

MONEY TO LOAN—On Box Butte county land and ranches in the same hills. No delay in making the loan. We inspect our lands and furnish the money at once. J. C. McCorkle, McCorkle Building, Alliance, Nebr. 1-11-6554

LOST—Female Scotch collie dog, seven months old. Had leather collar with ring in it. Reward for return to Lloyd Thomas, at the Herald office or 915 Box Butte avenue. 51-11-

PARTIES WISHING SINGER

SEWING MACHINES should phone 15 or leave word at Snyder's Cigar Store. Phone and the local agent, D. G. Bates, will call on you. 51-31-78283

RECORDS FOR TRAINMEN Railroad men can secure a very useful book at The Herald office. It is a daily time book for trainmen and engineers. The price is reasonable. 4-11-6728

MOVE FURNITURE SAFELY

We have equipped our dray wagons and auto truck with the latest appliances for moving furniture without marring or scratching or damage. Up-to-date wagon pads will be used by us on all moving jobs. JOHN R. SNYDER, Phone 15 37-11-5950

Money to loan on real estate. No unnecessary delay in getting loans. Apply to H. M. Bullock, Room 4, Reddish Block, Alliance.

Silk petticoats in the latest styles in varied fabrics. Prices are very low during the Thanksgiving sale at The Fashion Shop. Read the ad on page eight.

BIG DANCE AT STAR RANCH
Chris Mosler, of the Star Ranch, in Sheridan county, will give a dance at the ranch on December 11, at which it is expected that several hundred people will be present. The Alliance Orchestra, of which Mrs. J. F. Wiker is manager, will furnish the music for the dance. A large number of Alliance people are expected to attend the dance and enjoy the festivities.