

Eleven State Officials of the Faith Inducted into Office-Hold Reception

NEVILLE DELIVERS MESSAGE practical.

Governor Says, "We Will Keep Faith With the People," Referring to Ammendment

The triumph of Democracy became complete in Nebraska on Thursday, January 4, when eleven state offic ials, elected on the Democratic ticket were inducted into office.

Keith Neville of North Platte, youngest governor ever seated in the history of Nebraska and the first native son so honored, headed the list. Besides him were Lieutenant governor Edgar Howard of Columbus. Secretary of State Charles Poole of Hyannis, Attorney General Willis Reed, Auditor Williaam Smith, Railway Commissioner Victor Wilson of Stramsburg, Land Commissioner Gram manuscoy of Scottsbluffs, Treasuror George Hall of Franklin, State Superintendent W. H. Clem-mons of Fremont, Regent P. L. Hall of Lincoln and Regent Harry Landis of Seward.

Chief Justice A. M. Morrissey of the state supreme court administered the oaths of office. The proceedings were short and simple. Members of the legislature in joint sesion looked on as did hundrers of relatives and friends.

A reception was held Thursday night at which incoming and outgoing state officials were in line and at which the legislative members and their wives were made welcome. The legislature adjourned until Tuesday noon of this week.

Governor More' cad, in his valedictory message, urged the continuance of the policy of business economy, establishment of good roads, and use of convict labor on them. He ney complete the complimented the printing commission and suggested certain regula- COUNTY COMMISSIONtion; pointed to the necessity for a better capitol building, and urged a shorter ballot. He again urged the selection of the chief justice from the state at large and the associate justices by districts, criticized the primary law, discussed the schools and ad vocated the teaching of the life and works of Lincoln in the public schools Conservation of water power, discussion of veto power and new legislation were other features.

Governor Keith Neville in his message to th mmbrs of th Thirty-fifth assion of the legislature of Nebraska made the following rcommidations: PROHIBITION-"Our duty is obvious; we must keep faith with the people; we must honestly, conscientiously and intelligently endeavor to prohibit the sale and manufacture of intoxicating liquor with the state after the amendment becomes offec-
