ANNUAL CONVENTION AMERICAN N. L. S. A.

To Be Held at Cheyenne, Jan. 18, 19 and 20, With a Splendid Three Days' Program

The twentieth annual convention of the American National Live Stock Association will be held at Cheyenne, Wyo., Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 18 to 20, 1917. The doings really begin Wednesday evening, January 17, when a banquet in honor of the officers and executive committee of the association will be given at the Plains Hotel.

First Day, Thursday
The sittings of the convention will be held in Masonic Temple, the first meeting to be held at 10 a. m., on Thursday. After invocation and address of welcome and responses, will come the annual address of the president by Hon. Dwight B. Heard of Arizona. A paper on "Organization," by Julian M. Bassett of Texas, and one on "Live Stock Conditions in Australia," by Prof. Elwood Mead of Berkeley, Calif., will complete the first forenoon's program. The afternoon program will include the following: "Grazing Fees on National Forests," F. Potter, Washington, D. C.; report of National Advisory Board and Committee on Forest Reserves and Grazing Lands; discussion, national forests, etc.; "Plans for Extirmination of Predatory Wild Animals," Dr. A. K. Fisher, United States Biological Survey; report of committee on predatory wild animals report of attorney; discussion of any subject presented by members; committee meetings after adjournment.

Second Day, Friday
Besides music, the introduction of resolutions and discussions, the second day's program will include: Federal market reports on live stock, report of Market Committee of American National Live Stock Association, "Possibility of Controlling Contagious Abortion on the Range," "Present and future of the Live Stock Industry," "Cost of Producing Beef," "Fattening Cattle on Hay," "Cotton Seed Products and Their Uses as Feeds," "Sanitation and Quarantine Regulations," "Reminiscences of Old Range Days."

Third Day, Saturday
The final meeting of the convention will be held Saturday forenoon, the following being the program: Music. Discussion of the 640-Acre Raising Homestead Bill. Consideration of reports of committees. Consideration of resolutions. Election of officers. Selection of next meeting place. Unfinished business.

Entertainments
Besides the banquet above mentioned, there will be the following entertainments for members of the association their wives and visitors: On Thursday afternoon a trip to inspect the herd of Hereford cattle on the ranch of the Hereford Corporation of Wyoming, five miles from Cheyenne. Automobiles leave the Plains Hotel at 1 p. m., returning at 2 p. m.

On Thursday, 3 to 5 p. m., a reception and tea will be given the visiting ladies by Miss Alice Smith, secretary of Wyoming Stock Growers' Association, at 821 East Seventeenth street.

On Thursday evening, a reception will be given at the governor's mansion, at 8 o'clock, and a dance at the Elk's Home, commencing at 9 o'clock.

On Friday, 8 p. m., there will be a smoker at the Elk's Home for the men, and entertainment for the ladies at theatre.

WILL HOLD CHRISTMAS CLUB OPEN UNTIL FIRST

The First State Bank will not close its Christmas Savings Club this year until the 1st of February. The bank has secured an increased number of members this year and believe that the already large total can yet be increased, that others may be afforded the pleasure of receiving their Christmas Savings check about the 20th of next December. Almost everyone who was in the club last year has joined again and many have joined this year for the first time.

LIVE STOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Cattle Market Strady to 10c Lower; Moderate Receipts

IF REGULAR ADVANCE IN HOGS

Killer Lamb Market Rather Slow; Not Enough Done at 11 O'Clock to Make a Market. Liberal Supply. Feeders Active, Higher—Buyers Take Advantage of First Good Run Here in Weeks—One String Brings New Top of $12.70.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Nebraska, January 9th, 1917.—Receipts of cattle were tolerably liberal with a broad demand for desirable grades. As a result, buyers were somewhat bearish on the opening rounds and while they picked up the more desirable cattle at prices that compared favorably with the latter part of last week, their bids were mostly a dime lower on corn fed steers. The fair to good 1,050 to 1,450-pound heaves sold fairly freely at $9.50@10.25, while the common to fair warmed up and short fed grades were slow and irregular sellers anywhere from $8.90 to $9.25, and on down. The market for cows and heifers was practically the same as for beef steers, desirable offerings finding a broad outlet at steady prices.

Quotations on Cattle: Good to choice yearlings, $10.25@11.50; good to choice heaves, $10.00@11.00; fair to good heaves, $9.50@10.00; common to fair heaves, $7.75@9.25; good to choice heifers, $7.00@8.50; good to choice cows, $7.00@8.00; fair to good cows, $6.00@7.00; canners and cutters, $4.50@6.00; veal calves, $7.50@10.25; bologna bulls, $5.50@6.00; beef bulls, $6.00@7.75.

The week opened out with a pretty liberal run of hogs, arrivals counting out 151 cars, or something like 11,300 head. The shipping demand for hogs was not quite as urgent as most days of last week, and order buyers did not take a very large share of the offerings, but packer requirements were large. Bulk of the offerings sold at $10.10@10.50 and a top of $10.65 was reached. These are the highest prices ever before in January.

The fat lamb market for Monday was a rather slow affair. When packers came out and bid prices as much as 25c lower in extreme cases, sellers balked and up to a fairly late hour nothing of consequence had been done. Feeder buyers made short work of the first run they have had in weeks, paying prices that were as much as 10@15c higher for range feeding lambs.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, $13.00@13.75; lambs, fair to good, $12.25@13.00; lambs, clipped, $10.50@11.25; lambs, feeders, $11.00@12.50; yearlings, good to choice, $11.00@11.75; yearlings fair to good, $10.00@11.00; wethers, fair to choice, $9.00@10.25; ewes, good to choice, $8.00@9.45; ewes, fair to good, $7.50@8.90; ewes, plain to culls, $5.50@7.50; ewes, feeding, $5.00@7.50.

The Habit of Taking Cold
With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get out of bed—not ice cold, but a temperature of about 90 degrees F. Also sleep with your window up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.

Ten Days' Mid-Winter HOLINESS CONVENTION

To Be Held in REDDISH HALL Alliance, Nebraska

January 26th, to February 4th, 1917

In charge of Rev. A. L. Whitcomb of University Park, Ia., assisted by Rev. S. B. Williams of Greenwood, Nebr.

This will be the first convention of the kind to be held in this locality. The object is to deepen the spirituality of Christian people and secure the conversion of sinners. Emphasis will be placed upon the doctrine of the Holy Spirit's work in redemption thru Jesus Christ. It will be a meeting of "old time religion."

REV. A. L. WHITCOMB

The man who will have charge of the convention was formerly, and until recently, a college professor. As a member of the National Holiness Association, interdenominational, he is now devoting his time to evangelistic work. Realizing the need of deeper spirituality among Christian people and being a spiritual preacher, he devotes special attention to a line of teaching that will be interesting and beneficial to members of all churches. He is widely known as an able expositor of Bible doctrines.

REV. S. B. WILLIAMS

Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Greenwood, Nebr., who will assist Rev. Whitcomb during a part of the convention, is secretary of the Nebraska State Holiness Association. He was raised a Roman Catholic but does not manifest a rancorous spirit towards the communion of which he was formerly a member. His references to Catholics, as well as to members of other churches, are made in a kindly spirit. It is worth attending the meetings to hear him relate his conversion and tell of his life prior and subsequent to that event.

Day and Night Services

A service will be held in Reddish Hall each evening, and day services will be held during most or all of the time, in the hall or elsewhere, definite announcement of which will be made in the printed program.

A Cordial Invitation

To attend these services is extended to the people of Alliance, the surrounding country and neighboring towns.

Please Don't Jiggle the Receiver Hook

It Hurts Your Telephone Service

When you lift the telephone receiver from the hook, a small electric light signal glows in front of the operator.

While the hook is up the light burns. If you press it down the light goes out. Move the hook up and down SLOWLY and the light flashes.

This little signal on the switchboard is the same as any other electric lamp, a trifle sluggish in lighting up. You can turn the switch on the electric light over your desk or in your home so fast it will not burn. Try it.

When you "jiggle" the telephone hook rapidly the result is the same, the tiny globe will not light up and consequently the operator does not get your signal.

If the operator fails to answer in a reasonable length of time on your first call, or if you wish to recall her to get another number, move the receiver hook up and down VERY SLOWLY.
