Miss Alice O'Neill of Crawford spent a few hours in Alliance Monday, being on her way to San Francisco, Calif.

There was a large crowd out Friday night to attend the masquerade at the skating rink. A number of novel costumes were in evidence.

Mrs. George Flaherty returned to her home at Curly Monday after spending a few days in this city. She was here to have some dental work done.

Mrs. M. Tulle, a former resident of Alliance, arrived in the city Monday for a visit with her mother and daughter and to attend to business matters.

Wilson C. Stanley has submitted final proof of settlement on 9-21-55. Louise L. Van Buskirk has been allowed a claim on a homestead 10 and 15-27-16.

Mendeline Thelmer was granted a patent for a homestead this week. The land is located eight miles south and west of Alliance. This piece was contested a short time ago.

John King is now managing the King Billiard Parlor. Hank Kelson, the former manager, has come to Wyoming in the hope of finding a desirable homestead location for himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tully are now located for the winter at Tampa, Florida. Their mail there goes to postoffice box 172. Lloyd Tully is at Lincoln attending the university of Nebraska.

Charles Schafer was at Scottsbluff over Sunday. He went there to install some electric wiring in the new bungalow being built in that city by his father, J. C. Schafer. The new bungalow will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000. Mr. Schafer returned to Alliance Monday.

Miss Florence Ralls left Thursday night for Des Moines, Iowa, to enroll for a three year course in the study of chiropractic in the Palmer school of Chiropractic, which is the "fountain head" for all chiropractors. Miss Ralls became interested in the study of this science through Drs. Jeffrey & Jeffrey of this city.

The William Russum family and the Ed Bishon family expect to leave Friday of this week for their new home at Scottsbluff. Mr. Bishon is employed as a salesman at the A. T. Crawford garage in Scottsbluff, and Mr. Russum is a carpenter, working at his trade. The household goods have already been shipped.

E. W. Ray returned Monday from a business trip of several days at Scottsbluff. Mr. Ray, who recently sold his florist shop and greenhouses here to Mr. Tatro, has purchased an acre and a quarter of land at Scottsbluff and will go into the chicken-raising business, together with truck gardening. The Rays will move to Scottsbluff the last of the week.

Corporal Booth, in charge of the Alliance recruiting depot, returned to Alliance Wednesday following a week spent at Chadron, Harrison, Rushville and Crawford in the interests of the United States army service. The corporal interviewed the postmasters at those places in an effort to secure their co-operation in the recruiting work. A postmaster is allowed five dollars for each applicant for entrance into the army who successfully passes the tests and is admitted, that is, when the application comes through the postmaster.

Miss Rosalind Merk is now employed at the First National Bank in the position formerly held by Miss Margaret Bell. Miss Bell and her mother will leave shortly for California.

The Baptist people have had a picture of their church and notices pertaining to services and church work neatly framed and hung in outstations about the city, one of which can be seen at the post office.

W. E. Ashbaugh, for many years a rancher some ten miles west of Alliance but who now lives at Scottsbluff, was in the city last week attending the Odd Fellows convention and calling on old-time friends.

Mrs. E. D. Mallery and small daughter left Tuesday noon for Florida. They expect to remain in Florida for the balance of the winter, going in the hopes that the daughter's health may be benefited.

Hardly a day passes but what the Herald has from one to three calls for furnished and unfurnished rooms and rooms for light housekeeping. A want ad in the Herald will prove a great investment for you if you have rooms to rent.

Harry Clark, who until coming to Alliance was in the employ of the Tri-state Telephone Company, is now employed by the Nebraska Telephone Company, taking the place of Frank Palmer, who has been promoted to a position at Kimball, Nebr.

Mrs. George Duncan has purchased the George Hand residence property located at the corner of Laramie and Sixth. Mrs. Duncan paid $5,000 for the property. She expects to add another story and remodel the interior of the residence.

The revival meetings at the Christian church are still in progress. The meetings are held each night starting at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Harry G. Knowles who is conducting the services is a man who knows how to talk straight from the shoulder and who does it. Special music and illustrated songs each night.

The McCorkle building was sold Tuesday at public sale for the sum of $13,750. G. P. Moorehead of Lincoln was the highest bidder. The building was sold once before, the price at that time having been $10,000, but the bid was not ratified by Judge Westover and as a result it was re-advertised and re-sold.

The Nebraska Telephone Company is considering the proposition of building a line from Alliance to include Ashby, Bingham, Ellsworth, Lakeside, Antioch and Hoffland. P. D. Gelason, manager of the Alliance exchange, left Thursday for a visit to these towns on business connected with the proposed extension.

Do you know the best way to find competent help? Good, reliable help is as difficult to find as a needle in a haystack. An efficient method of seeking properly qualified help is through the want-ad columns of the Herald. We find the needle in the haystack. We take your message and deliver it into the hands of not only one, but of dozens of people who are competent in the particular line of work you desire done. Put a Herald want ad to work for you.

Representatives from the Hope school near Minatare were in Alliance Sunday and while here purchased a high-priced Kurtzman piano from the Wiker music house. They stated that they had been looking at pianos in a number of cities, including Chicago, and that they could find nothing to suit them better than the Kurtzman. Mrs. J. T. Wiker, manager of the Wiker Music House here, will give a concert at the Hope school Friday night of this week.

Services at the First Baptist church are announced for the coming Sunday as follows: Bible school at 10 o'clock in the morning. Preaching at 11 o'clock, following Bible school. Meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union at 6:30 p. m. The subject for the morning sermon will be, "Personal Influence." The junior choir will sing and a special song will be rendered by the Ladies' Quartet, entitled, "His Plan." Miss Ruth Layton will sing at the evening service, "Holding Thy Hand." A cordial invitation is extended to attend these services.

Joe Smith's cafe has certainly taken on a different appearance during the past few weeks or since he has completed the installation of his handsome new lunch counter and back bar. The counter is twenty feet long and is made of white marble. The work board is made of German silver throughout. The back bar is two feet wide and sixteen feet long. The woodwork is of light mission oak and the back is trimmed with stained glass decorations while the six large frosted lights have many pointed stars cut in them. Joe maintains a clear counter service, the back bar and work table taking care of all materials. The tables are also in white with onyx tops. The chairs have patented backs and are nickel plated. Joe has a fine place now, and one he can well be proud of.
