It is now generally known that The Herald office receives bulletins from the International News Service whenever there is anything of extraordinary interest happening anywhere in the world. Alliance Herald free bulletins brought the first information to the people of Alliance of the United States' breaking diplomatic relations with Germany. This news was spread a bout town through the medium of the bulletins fully twenty-four hours before the daily papers from Denver, Omaha and Lincoln arrived telling of the news. Bulletins were received until late Saturday night. Again, yesterday afternoon the bulletins arrived telling of the sinking of the Anchor liner California in the barred zone by a German submarine. A second bulletin told of the report made by Consul Frost of Queenstown in which he stated the California flew the British flag. All day Monday, Tuesday and yesterday the telephone kept ringing and people inquired if there were any late developments. This is but another example of Herald service.

Mrs. Clara Albro and daughter, Miss Vera Albro, were visitors at Edgemont Sunday with friends.
