Lamb Trade Rather Slow—Not Much Business Done Up to Late Hour. Bidding Lower Prices—Looks As Though Handy Stuff Would be About Steady. Sheep Are Draggish, Too. Demand Not Quite As Good As Last Week—Few Sold Show Little Change—Good Feeder Demand, Top, $14.25.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb., Feb. 20, 1917.—The week opened up with a moderate run of cattle, some 273 loads, about 7,200 head. Packers all complained about the shortage of refrigerator cars, and while they seemed quite interested in the more desirable, weighty heaves, they were rather indifferent bidders on the general run of steers, and wanted them lower where they wanted them at all. Competition, however, was fair from the shippers for the good to choice heavy cattle, and they sold at $10.50@11.20, or anywhere from about steady to a dime lower than the latter part of last week. The fair to pretty good 1,000 to 1,200-pound heaves sold at $9.80@10.40, and the common to fair warmed up and short fed grades went at from $8.25@9.75 and on down.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice heaves, $10.40@11.25; fair to good heaves, $9.75@10.35; common to fair heaves, $8.25@9.50; good to choice heifers, $8.25@9.25; good to choice cows, $7.50@8.50; fair to good cows, $6.50@7.50; canners and cutters, $5.25@6.50; veal calves, $9.00@11.50; bologna bulls, $6.00@7.00; beef bulls, $7.50@8.50.

The supply of hogs for Monday was comparatively moderate, arrivals counting out 133 cars, or about 9,600 head. On early rounds packers talked 10c declines and this enabled shippers who did not have very urgent orders to get some hogs that were around 5@10c lower. While some of the first hogs packers got showed 5@10c declines, the bulk of the offerings did not start moving until bids had been raised to a 5c lower level.

A fair run of sheep and lambs put in its appearance here Monday, some 57 cars, or 12,700 being reported in. Not much business had been done in the sheep barn up to a rather late hour in the morning. One load of light and handy lambs sold at $14.20, being just a shade lower than at the close of last week. Demand for feeders was very broad and one four-car bunch sold at $14.25, looking to be a little higher than last week.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, light and handy, $14.00@14.35; lambs, heavy, $13.25@13.90; lambs, clipped, $11.50@12.50; lambs, feeders, $12.00@11.15; yearlings, good to choice, $12.75@13.50; yearlings, fair to good, $11.50@12.75; wethers, fair to choice, $11.50@11.75; ewes, good to choice, $10.75@11.25; ewes, fair to good, $9.50@10.75; ewes, plain to culls, $6.00@9.00.
