

The WEEK'S DOINGS

Mrs. Charles Gregg of Marsland was shopping in Alliance Wednesday.

Mrs. M. E. Coleman left Thursday morning for Deadwood, upon receipt of a telegram telling of the death of her mother.

Mrs. Eva Hockenberry of the Marsland schools spent Saturday in Alliance.

Walter Marcy of Lakeside was in Alliance Friday.

George Purdy spent Sunday at Antioch.

Lester Cross entertained a few of his friends Sunday at dinner in honor of his thirteenth birthday.

E. L. Clements, formerly of the Alliance high school but now connected with the Chadron Normal, spent Friday in Alliance.

$10.00 a month will buy you a Dwelling Lot. See Snoddy & Mollring, agents for the Nebraska State Building and Loan Co.

Mr. Hillis of Pacific Junction has been visiting his daughter Mrs. H. P. Toohy.

Mrs. James Walker returned Monday from Sterling.

John McCoy, M. D.
Offices and Hospital
Reddish Block Telephone 21

Charles Anderson left Saturday for Tabernash for a sixty days' vacation.

Art Robinson resigned his position with the Burlington.

Ben Mulane will leave next Monday for a few days at his homestead in Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bogue returned Monday from New York city.

Mrs. Jerry Madden left Monday for her home at Sheridan, Wyo., after a week spent with friends in Alliance.

List your Farm, Ranch or City Property with us. We will sell it for you. Snoddy & Mollring.

Mrs. Agnes Duncan left Monday morning for her home at Gordon after spending the week-end with friends at Antioch.

Mrs. Edith Zediker left Tuesday for Antioch where she has a weekly music class.

Miss Frances Yanders left Tuesday for a few days' visit at Minatare.

Miss Agnes Delsing of Hemingford spent Saturday in Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herron of Deadwood returned to their home Monday after visiting friends and relatives in Alliance.

Mrs. O. D. Hobbs of Hoffland spent the week end in Alliance.

Guy Ogle of Blockton, Iowa, has been a guest the past week of his sister, Mrs. E. C. Drake. He will go to Montana from here, where he is thinking of locating.

Charles Orr, general merchant of Kenoni, Nebr., was in Alliance Saturday on business. Kenoni is a new post office in Sheridan county, forty-two miles northeast of Alliance.

Norman Honea of Ellsworth returned to his home Friday following a business visit here.

C. B. Rechert of Chadron, in the employ of the Northwestern there, is in town today working subscriptions for the Chadron Chronicle. He is soliciting subscriptions in order to make votes for Miss Leppla, daughter of the assistant superintendent of the Northwestern at Chadron.

J. H. Wehr was here from Ellsworth Monday.

Ferd Trenkle of Ellsworth was in town the first of the week on business.

Miss Freda Danbom of Hemingford was an Alliance shopper Friday.

Mrs. Belle Brown of Hemingford came to Alliance Monday and entered the hospital. She is taking treatment for her eyes.

Miss Irma Lotspeich was a week-end visitor with friends at Hemingford.

Byron Fosket was here from Hemingford Sunday. He visited with Mrs. Fosket, who is at the hospital here.

Mrs. E. U. Shepherd was down from Hemingford a part of Tuesday.

Mrs. Mabel McClung of Hemingford was an Alliance visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Peterson, who has been nursing at Hoffland, returned to Alliance Saturday.

T. P. Furman was here from Marsland Saturday.

Alice Enycart of Marsland was a week-end visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Lotspeich, here.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Pool and little son, Linn, who had been here for about ten days, returned to their home at Marsland Saturday.

Mrs. C. Dove of Angora and little daughter arrived in the city Saturday. The little girl is suffering from enlarged tonsils and was brought here for medical attention.

Mrs. Josie Marsh of the Letan neighborhood was a week-end visitor in Alliance.

Frank Carroll returned to Chadron Sunday after spending a few days in the city visiting his sister.

Miss Jose O'Donnell has taken a position at Port Huron, Mich., in the millinery department of one of the Port Huron stores. She works under the direction of Fisk & Company of Chicago.

Mrs. A. H. Groves returned from Kearney on Monday. She had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis Sheddon, who had been very ill for a number of weeks. She was accompanied by her father P. H. Zoebel.

Mrs. Lulu M. Harper has filed a petition by her attorney asking for a decree of divorce from her husband, Howard L. Harper. The grounds upon which the divorce is asked allege non-support and cruelty.

Arrah L. Hungerford and daughter Miss Gladys Hungerford, of Crawford were in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Hungerford is the head of the Hungerford Potato Growers' Association during business out of Omaha. The association is selling five acre tracts of land near Marsland and Berea and other points and contracts with the buyer to farm it for them, giving the buyer a per cent of the crop.

On Sunday, March 4, the Women's Choral Club will give a community concert at the Imperial theatre. The program will start at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. There is no admission charge. The Imperial Orchestra will assist with special selections. This will be the second community concert staged. The one staged two weeks ago was a great success and was greeted by a packed house. The first concert was under the auspices of the band.

According to word received here Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Shields are at Havana, Cuba. It is understood that they expect to return this week to the states.

Mrs. Lindley Ellis left on Sunday for Vancouver, Washington her home. She spent a week in this city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ellis. Mrs. Ellis will stop enroute at Missoula, Montana for a short visit.

On Saturday Mrs. J. C. Rosso and daughter, Eugenia, arrived from Kearney where they had been visiting for several months.

Mrs. J. T. Biedermann of Casper, Wyo., is here visiting with her sister Mrs. H. F. Thiele.

Dave Kauffman returned last Friday from Havzeloock where his wife has been seriously ill.

Mrs. C. E. Matthews of Marsland was shopping in Alliance Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spacht came down from Hemingford Wednesday on 44 returning the same day on 43.

Mrs. Tom Katen left Wednesday for a visit at Scottsbluff.

Misses Dora Coker, Nellie Wright, Alta Dye, Cloe Miller, and Thelma Wesley and Mesdames Robbins and Laing spent Monday and Tuesday in Bridgeport representing the Baptist Sunday School and Young People at the Association Baptist Rally held at Bridgeport the 19th and 20th.

Four of the Junior classes of the Baptist church will have a party in the church parlors Friday night. Will be a Valentine and George Washington party combined.

The Association Baptist Sunday School and B. Y. P. U., rally was held at Bridgeport Monday and Tuesday of this week. Rev. J. D. Collins of Lincoln conducted the services. The evening services of the rally joined with the union revival services at the Presbyterian in charge of Dr. Long.

The Iowa State College at Ames has awarded Alex Jonson now of Sioux City but a former employer of the Alliance Creamery here, a medal of honor for efficiency in ice cream making. He has been elected president of a club devoted to the discussion of ice cream subjects. At the present time Mr. Jonson is with the Penn Brothers creamery concern at Sioux City.

Earl Gilliard of Oshkosh has bought Frank Wilson's Buick "six" roadster.

Henry Brandt was here from Fort Morgan last week on business and visiting friends.

Miss Ruth Rust is again working at the Van Graven studio.

Logget & Herbert have leased the Gaddis ranch south of Alliance that has been rented by H. H. Brandt.

F. D. Campbell has the smallpox.

J. G. Dole is quarantined with the smallpox.

Edgar Benoit who gets possession of a picture house at Mitchell the first of the month goes to Mitchell this week. He will move there.

J. F. Porter was here from Deadwood on business the last of the week.

Mrs. Abe Isaacson is visiting in Omaha this week. She went to Omaha on Sunday with the intention of remaining probably a couple of weeks.

Arthur Feagins returned from a business trip to Omaha on Saturday. He was in Omaha about a week.

J. E. Rice and daughter, Ruth Rice, returned from a week's visit at Omaha Sunday.

Mrs. Al Wiker and Mrs. Susie Frazier left Sunday for Galeburg, Ill., being called there by the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. Hartman.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Johnson accompanied by Dr. Coppernoll left Sunday for Kirksville, where Mrs. Johnson expected to undergo an operation.

The Misses Pauline Dowd and Nonie O'Neil of Hemingford were Alliance visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Agnes Duncan of Gordon has been visiting Mrs. Monfort this week.

Marie Frazier sprained her arm Sunday. She fell from a step at her home.

Charles Brittan left Monday night for a short business visit at Denver.

The school board granted the students and teachers Washington's birthday as a holiday.

The roller skating rink that has been in Alliance for some time expects to move to a different location the first of March.

Rev. Worthmann of the German Lutheran church and his bride arrived in Alliance Wednesday from Chicago where they were married a few days ago.

Mrs. H. Hier and Mrs. Grace Mischke came up from Antioch Wednesday for a few weeks' stay.

The operetta "Arcteania" or Columbia's Trip to the North Pole will be presented by the pupils of the Emerson school tonight at the Phelan opera house. The proceeds will be used to make final payment on the school piano. Admission, 35 cents for adults, and 25 cents for children.

Mrs. C. M. Empson returned to her home at Lakeside Tuesday after spending several weeks in Alliance receiving medical attention for her little child, who has been seriously ill.

M. M. Brandt, formerly of Alliance but now of Broadway, expects to leave soon for Kooakia, Ida., where he intends to locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Adams of Ellsworth came up to Alliance Wednesday. They returned the next day, taking with them their daughter Naomi, who was operated on at the hospital for appendicitis a week ago.

George Brandt is expected to arrive Saturday from Michigan to visit his daughter Mrs. E. Adams of Ellsworth.

There will be Bible study at the City Mission Sunday afternoon. This is to be an interdenominational meeting.

W. L. McKillip and D. J. Foley, both of Hemingford, were in town the last of the week. They have leased the Tom Hopkins ranch, some fifteen miles from Hemingford, and intend to farm and raise stock. They have already stocked the ranch. Both Mr. McKillip and D. J. Foley are from Iowa, the former being recently from the Hawkeye state, while the latter has been here about three years.

John Shay, conductor, has taken a thirty-day layoff and is visiting in Chicago. He had been working out of Ravenna for a number of months.

Miss Zola Cole was in the city Thursday enroute to Billings, Mont. She came from King City, Mo., and was on her way to take up her duties in a department store in Billings.

The pastor of the Baptist church reports that the Baptist Sunday school has been making satisfactory progress the past year in the special "Keystone Graded System" in the primary and junior grades of the Sunday school.

"The Relation of Education to the Church" will be the subject of the sermon at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Young people's service will be held at 8:30 in the evening, with preaching as usual, at 7:30.

Fred Mollring, secretary of the Alliance National Farm Loan Association, is in receipt of a communication from the Federal Farm Loan Board which states that the local association will be one of the first associations to be considered when the Omaha land bank is ready for business. It is expected that the Omaha land bank will be ready for business some time the first part of the coming month.

B. O. Riggs, a former engineer working for Burlington out of this city, is, according to reports, now operating a ten-cent store at San Pedro, N. M.

Owing to the fact that today, February 22, is Washington's birthday and a legal holiday, the usual discount on city light bills will be allowed until tomorrow night, Friday, February 23.

Dean William Carson Shaw returned to Alliance Tuesday from McCook, Nebr. He had been holding mission services at that place.

Office supplies at The Herald office. Phone 340.

Wednesday of this week was what is known in the church calendar as Ash Wednesday, and the commencement of the season of Lent. Easter comes this year on Sunday, April 8.

Otto Becker has shipped his household goods from Belgrade, Nebr., to this city. He will locate on the Fred Pahlow place near Alliance.

H. H. Bush of Sheridan has been in town this week attending to business matters.

H. R. Leech has been here from Sheridan a part of this week on business.

Alice and George Burton were here from Bingham the last of the week looking after business matters.

T. R. Nelson of Basin, Wyo., was in the city Monday calling on friends. He was on his way home from Florida where he had been visiting.

Harriet, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Gavin, who in company with her mother is at Long Beach, Calif., is considerably improved following an attack of pneumonia, according to word received by Mr. Gavin.

On Tuesday afternoon the funeral of Norman Denny Merrick, two-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Merrick who died Monday evening, was held. Burial was made in Liberty cemetery. The Merrick family live some thirty-five miles northeast of Alliance, in the Joy neighborhood.

A new set of buildings are to be built this spring on the J. B. Johnston farm. The lumber and material has been purchased from the S. A. Foster Lumber Company of this city. A. S. Mote will do the work.

Charles Feagins left Tuesday for Colorado on business.

The contract for four car loads of cement to go into the new warehouse to be built on Box Butte avenue by John Snyder has been awarded to the S. A. Foster Lumber Company.

Mrs. Nancy O'Brien was here from Mullen Saturday consulting a physician.

Eugene E. Ford of Chicago has been here this week looking after business affairs at the First National Bank.

Mrs. Sedgwick and Mrs. Giles returned to their homes at Deadwood Monday night following a very pleasant two weeks spent here.

Dr. W. J. Mahaffy went to Omaha Monday on business.

H. F. Thiele left Tuesday for Omaha and is attending the state jew-

Don't Buy Coal ---Buy Heat

WE SAY OUR COAL IS THE BEST BY ACTUAL TEST

There is no such thing as dissatisfaction when you burn—

KOOI NUT—KOOI LUMP—GKBO NUT
GKBO LUMP—HARRIS NUT—OR HARRIS LUMP

High test GASOLINE and KEROSENE

VAUGHAN & SON

Phone No. 5

elers' convention in session there this week.

FOR SALE—Herald Want Ads Spend fifteen cents and see what a want ad will do for you.

E. J. Hensley, Burlington fireman, last Saturday broke his finger while shoveling coal into the fire box. He has been off duty this week and last night went to Lincoln for a few days' visit.

Mrs. C. E. Amsherry has been visiting at Scottsbluff the past week. She is expected home tomorrow.

A. T. Lunn left Tuesday for Cheyenne, Wyo., to attend a meeting there called for the purpose of making an adjustment of freight rates, if it can be done, that will overcome certain discrepancies as affecting rates to Lakeside, Hoffland and Antioch. He went as a representative of the Newberry Hardware Company and also for the Commercial Club.

W. R. Pate has filed a complaint in the county court charging V. M. Byrne and William Crane with permitting minors to play in their billiard parlors on the evening of February 12. The hearing will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock before Judge Tash.

County Agent F. M. Seidell has issued Volume 11, No. 1 of the Box Butte Farmers' Exchange Bulletin. This is the first bulletin issued since last winter. It contains considerable information, besides listing live stock, implements, etc., for sale or wanted by many of the farmers of the county.

Old papers for sale at the Herald office. Papers are done up in bundles at five and ten cents a bundle.

Advance Showing of Baby Carriages, Go-Carts, Park Cars, Collapsible Carts and Sulkies.

Makes Every Side Walk Smooth Better for Baby and for You. Sturgis Luxury Springs Smooth out the Bumps.

Gondola design—fibre body and hood—in oak finish. Hood and body upholstered in tan corduroy, tan gear. A characteristic Sturgis design.

Full collapsible carriage—one motion. Adjustable reclining back, quick detachable wheels—improved locking device, opens or locks with a touch of the toe—Sturgis, of course.

Sturgis Featherweight Sulky. Fully collapsible—one motion. Back adjusts to three positions. Roomy, comfortable and neat in appearance.

Reed Sulky, Sturgis made. Distinctive in appearance and very comfortable. Particularly light and easy riding—semi-collapsible.

Compare Sturgis Carriages with any other make

George D. Darling