Colds Coughs Catarrh

A trinity of evils, closely allied, that afflict most people, and which follow one on the other, in the order named, until the last one is spread through the system, leading to many evils. But their course can be checked.

PERUNA CONQUERS

It is of great value when used promptly for a cold, usually checking it and overcoming it in a few days. Ample evidence has proved that it is even of more value in overcoming chronic catarrh, dispelling the inflammatory conditions, enabling the diseased membranes to perform their natural functions, and toning up the entire system.

The experience of thousands is a safe guide to what it may be expected to do for you.

Banks-Cunningham Nuptials Celebrated Last Night

Last evening, Wednesday, March 21, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Banks, on the Banks ranch, twenty-eight miles from Alliance, the wedding of Miss Leora Bell Banks to Day H. Cunningham was solemnized by Rev. H. J. Young of the Christian church of Alliance. The bride, who was gowned in a dress of white, was attended by Miss Dora Cunningham, sister of the groom, and by Miss Evelyn Gove of Lincoln, Nebr. Both of the bride's maids were dressed in gowns of pink chiffon. The groom was attended by Messrs. Henry Rust and Kern McConahay.

The bride is one of the well-known young ladies of this section and has attended school in Alliance. The groom was at one time employed in the offices of the Burlington here. Following a honeymoon trip to New York City, Niagara Falls and other points in the East, the happy couple will be at home to their friends on a ranch located not far from the former home of the bride. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

Catholic Ladies Realized $265.85.

The bazaar, supper and musical program given by the ladies of the Catholic church Saturday evening at the Drake hotel netted them a total of $265.85. The menu was excellent, as was the service. The Misses Kate Kniest and Florence Williams pleased all with their musical numbers.

Last evening at the Methodist church occurred a social given by the Sunday school in honor of Miss Edna Benedict's class of girls, who were winners in a contest which closed recently. The main feature of the evening was a stereopticon lecture by Prof. Holch. After an interesting talk on the birds of this country, pictures were shown of several kinds, and a brief explanation being given of each, the slides being loaned by the Audubon society. Records were also played on a Victrola giving the songs of birds. Pictures of the members of the winning class were also shown upon the screen. After this entertainment the guests were served with refreshments in the basement of the church.

DECLAMATORY CONTEST HELD MONDAY NIGHT

Oral Harvey, Grace Spacht and Ethel Clary Declared Winners in Three Divisions

A fair-sized audience was in attendance at the Phelan opera house Monday night at the high school declamatory contest to determine who will represent the Alliance high school in the district declamatory contest to be held at Sidney, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, March 28 and 29.

The judges were from out of the city, being Miss McCann of Sidney, Rev. Smith of Crawford and Rev. McDougal of Bridgeport.

A total of fourteen were entered in the contest in the three divisions, being oratorical, dramatic and humorous departments. Oral Harvey, who recited "Toussaint L'Ouverture," was afforded first place in the oratorical division, and Homer Barnes, who recited "Sparticus to the Gladiators," was awarded second place. In the dramatic division Miss Grace Spacht was awarded first and Miss Frances Collins, second. The former recited "Pro Patria," and the latter, "The Sign of the Cross." Miss Ethel Clary was awarded first in the humorous division, and Miss Corinne Mollring, second. Miss Clary recited "Cupid and the Cadillac," while Miss Mollring recited "The Animal Show."

The program opened with a piano duet, "Rhapsody March from second Hungarian Rhapsody," by the Misses Edna Bowman and Dorothy Smith which offering was highly appreciated by the audience. At the close of the contest while the audience was awaiting the decision of the judges the Minstrel Show quartet, composed of Messrs. Crawford, Holch, Truman and LaMon, favored with a vocal selection, "We Meet Again Tonight, Boys." They were called back and responded with an exact imitation of a Scotch bagpipe. That even was not enough to satisfy the pleased audience, and the quartet was again persuaded to appear and give another number.

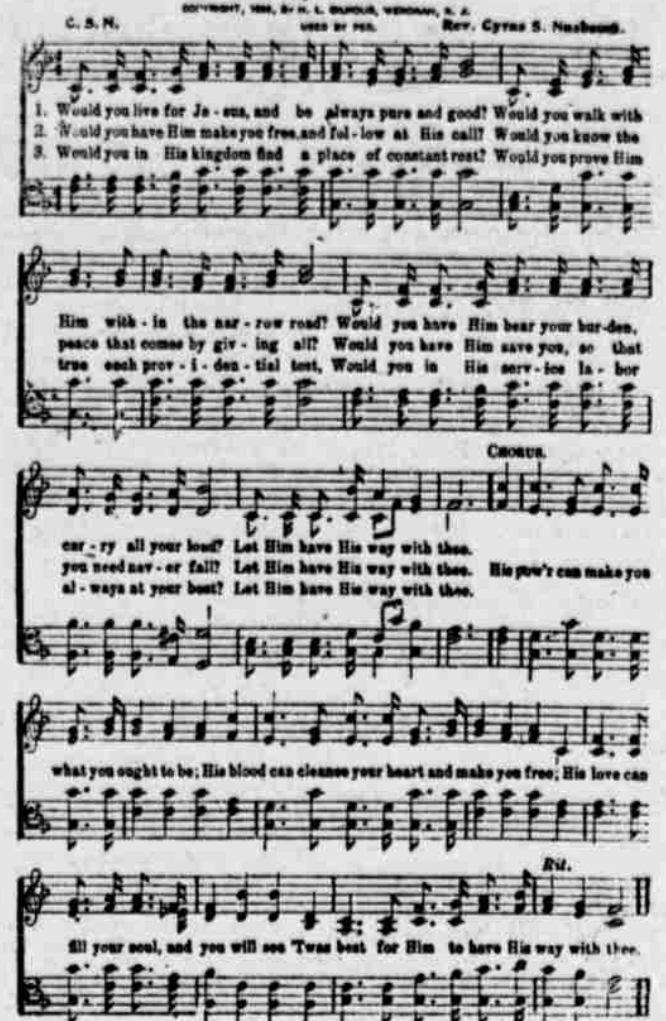

The work of the contestants is deserving of high praise and shows careful preparation and much work, both on the part of the students themselves, and of their instructors. Mrs. Ray Stansbury was instructor in charge of the dramatic and humorous divisions, and Prof. Crawford was in charge of the oratorical division. The following is the program as given Monday evening:

EVANGELIST, LECTURER, POET, MUSICIAN

Versatility of Evangelist Who Will Conduct Revival Campaign at Methodist Church Commencing Next Sunday

His Way With Thee.

It is as a preacher and lecturer that Rev. C. S. Nusbaum, D.D., is best known, but he is also a poet and musician of no mean ability, being a composer of music and singer. Although he does not conduct the singing in his revival meetings, he is well able to do so and would if it were necessary, in connection with all of his other work.

The above song, "His Way with Thee," is one of Dr. Nusbaum's most popular productions. Both words and music were composed by him. It is commonly considered one of the best of modern songs for social and revival meetings.

This announcement will be the last to appear in The Herald prior to the opening of the revival campaign, which begins next Sunday.

Hence we again print a photograph of the evangelist, and for the first time one of Prof. Folsom Jackson, the talented and devoted young man who will have charge of the singing and conduct the chorus choir, of which it is expected there will be about fifty members. Mr. Jackson will arrive tomorrow and will hold the first rehearsal in the church Friday evening.

On Sunday next, the first day of the revival meeting, Dr. Nusbaum will preach at 11 a. m., following Sunday school, and at 7:30 p. m., and will conduct a special service in the afternoon. Revival services will be held at 7:30 p. m. during the week, and such day meetings as may be arranged for will be announced Sunday.

- The Night Run of the Overland . . . Viola Smith
Pro Patria . . . Grace Spacht
Humorous
Cupid and the Cadillac . . . Ethel Clary
The Aspiring Dishwasher . . . Mildred Dobry

The Animal Show . . . Corinne Mollring
Biff Perkins' Toboggan Slide . . . Wilma Mote
The Garden Plot . . . Clarissa South
Vocal selections—Minstrel Show Quartet.
Decision of judges.

BOY SCOUTS MAKE PLANS FOR COMING SUMMER

About twenty Boy Scouts of Alliance met at the high school gymnasium last Tuesday night, and talked over plans for the coming summer season. Prof. Fats had charge of the meeting, after which the boys of the First Patrol played a game of basketball with the boys of the Second Patrol, the latter being winners. A meeting will be held next Wednesday at the home of Art Feagins, at which time a "tenderfoot" examination will be given to the boys.
