

The WEEK'S DOINGS

Real Estate, Loans and Insurance. F. E. REDDISH, Reddish Block. 15-4-6727

Mrs. A. V. Gavin and two daughters returned this week from California where they have been for the past two months.

A nine pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Herbison Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. McMann who was a guest at the J. W. Hamilton home returned to her home at Crawford last week.

L. S. Adams was here from Lakeside Thursday on business.

A new Empire milking machine is now in operation on the R. L. Harris dairy farm east of Alliance. The machine was installed Friday. The milking machine will take care of the milking of some twenty cows. It is operated by a gasoline engine. Mr. Harris deemed it advisable to do his milking by machine owing to the fact that reliable help is hard to get.

John McCoy, M. D. Offices and Hospital Reddish Block Telephone 81

W. R. Harper made a business trip to Denver the first of the week. He left Monday night.

William Johnson living west of this city left Monday night for Kerwin, Kansas to attend the funeral of his brother, John W. Johnson, who died Sunday night at a hospital in Rochester following an operation for the removal of stomach ulcers.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Clark, living near Bingham, accompanied their son, who had been a patient at the local hospital, home last week.

Following an absence from the city of twelve years John Carmichael, formerly of this city but now living at Casper, returned last week for a visit with old friends.

William E. Edwards has been appointed bugler for Company "G." He is a former member of the local band.

Ross Shafenberg of Ellsworth was a week-end visitor in Alliance.

W. M. Weidenhammer and G. J. Dole, who were at Deadwood on business, returned to Alliance Thursday.

Miss Emma Hoke and little Miss Steadman of Marsland were shopping in town Saturday.

The Potash company at Hoffland is erecting a new picture show at that place. The company is also putting in a new sidetrack which, when completed, will enable them to dump the coal into the boiler room.

Ernest Panwitz has added to his holding to the extent of a quarter section located two miles south of his ranch. He purchased the quarter of E. T. Kibble.

Mrs. C. M. Dove and two children of Angola and Mrs. J. M. Perkins of Bridgeport were Alliance visitors Friday. The two ladies are sisters.

The Eagles will hold a very interesting smoker for members at their club rooms Monday evening, April 30. Secretary Hicks states an effort is being made to make this the best smoker the Eagles have ever had. A large attendance is desired and anticipated.

George Darling has been at Denver this week on business. He left Sunday night.

Miss Hazel Bennett left Monday night for a visit at Walla Walla, Washington, Portland, Oregon and other points on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Grebe of Scottsbluff are the parents of a nine pound baby boy. The father was at one time associated with his brother, M. E. Grebe, in the Grebe art studio here.

Fred Allen of Broken Bow has purchased 640 acres west of Alliance and will move to the place soon where he expects to operate the place E. T. Kibble sold the land.

Captain Max Gerber, U. S. A. was a visitor in Alliance Sunday. He is stationed at Boise, Idaho but for the past two weeks had been at Douglas.

Dean William Carson Shaw of the Episcopal church left Monday night for a stay of two weeks in the east. Rev. Arthur Jones will supply him during his absence.

Charles Evans of Marsland sustained injuries recently while on his way to that place from his ranch. He was sitting on a gasoline barrel which tipped with him and he was thrown to the ground, lighting on his head.

Miss Alice Enyeart of Marsland was an over Sunday visitor in Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Olog were here from Marsland over Sunday.

Miss Sue Snow of Marsland was the guest last week of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Spencer.

Thursday, twenty-nine cars of southern cattle passed through this city on their way to the eastern part of the state.

Miss Helen West and Miss Dolly Shepherd of Hoffland were Alliance visitors last week.

Several couples from this city were at Hoffland Saturday evening, where they went to attend the regular company dance.

Miss Marion West of Hoffland was a guest of Mrs. F. W. Myers the last of the week. Miss West was here taking the eighth grade examinations given the last of the week by County Superintendent of Schools Opal Russell.

Jay O. Walker, cashier of the First State Bank, left yesterday to attend the state convention of the bankers of Nebraska being held at Grand Island.

Charles Brennan, employed at Newberry's has had a new artificial limb fitted at Omaha.

S. B. Otto and F. M. Stanley of Aurora, Ill., the last mention being an attorney of that place, were here the first of the week in connection with the affairs of an estate of which Mr. Otto is the executor.

Everett Winch is now night caller, taking the place of F. W. Gross who resigned. Mr. Gross has gone to Lincoln.

Mrs. S. C. Davis of Spokane, Wash. a former Alliance resident, spent Saturday here at the George Davis home she was on her way home in Spokane.

Ruth Wilson was operated upon at St. Joseph's hospital Thursday. She is a daughter of J. E. Wilson.

Fred Mollring was a business visitor at Lakeside Monday.

James Burlington arrived in Alliance Monday following a short visit with relatives at St. Joseph, Mo. Mrs. Burlington accompanied him and will remain there for probably another week.

Charles E. Ford of Chicago president of the First National Bank of Alliance made a short business visit here last week.

Secretary H. M. Bushnell, Jr., of the Alliance Commercial Club has been in Lincoln this week in attendance at a special meeting of in connection with the effort put forth to secure proper proportion of the state road funds for Box Butte county. While there he was the guest of his parents.

A. V. Gavin and two sons went to Denver Saturday where they met Mrs. Gavin and two daughters, who were enroute to Alliance following the spending of some two months in California.

A. W. Newberg has moved here from Edgemont, S. D. Mr. Newberg is an engineer on the Burlington and will make his home here in the future.

N. A. McCorkle was a week-end visitor in Omaha.

R. R. Ryan, an attorney of Gillets visited Harry Gantz last week. Mr. Ryan was on his way to Cheyenne.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Was arrived home Thursday from a visit at Omaha and Chicago.

Dean William Carson Shaw of St. Matthew's Episcopal church is the proud owner of a new Buick automobile purchased from the Keeler-Courtesy Co. The car is the gift of friends.

Dr. L. W. Curtis, who for some time has been on the night shift of the Alliance police force, has resumed his practice as a licensed veterinarian and is responding to calls at any hour of the day or night.

George Barrett of the United States naval recruiting service, son of F. G. Barrett, a former pastor of the Baptist church in Alliance, spent Sunday in this city with friends. He went to Bridgeport Monday. Mr. Barrett was in the navy at the time his father was pastor here, but visited here several times during that time.

E. C. Lumley of Denver visited with friends here over the week end.

Captain R. E. Frith, recently returned from the island service, but now assigned to the recruiting service of the regular army, was in Alliance last week inspecting the local recruiting station and accepting recruits held here for inspection. Before being recalled to the States, Captain Frith was in command of Company "I" of the 27th U. S. Infantry stationed in the Philippine Islands. Prior to coming to Alliance Captain Frith inspected the stations at Lincoln, Hastings and Grand Island. He will visit Alliance about every ten days from now on. Captain McKinley, stationed at Omaha, and a nephew of the late martyred president, is the officer in charge of this district, but found the territory so large that he could not cover it as often as necessary. Captain Frith has been appointed to assist him. The district is composed of the states of Nebraska, Iowa, a part of Minnesota and South Dakota.

BIG CATTLE SALE—Monday, April 30th, of 125 cattle, mostly all cows, 2 registered Durham Bulls, 11 miles northeast of Hemingford, at Hopkins Ranch. For particulars, Calvin J. Wildy and F. L. Potmesil of First National Bank, Hemingford, clerks. Ralph Hopkins, Owner.

Lowry & Henry have sold Chester Ross a Case tractor. Mr. Ross plans on breaking considerable land this season with the big tractor.

The Lady Macabees will hold a dance this (Thursday) evening at Hamilton's hall. Tickets are fifty cents. Mrs. J. T. Wiker will supply the music for the occasion.

On tomorrow (Friday) evening the W. C. T. U. will hold a Christian Citizenship meeting at the Baptist church. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Layton, newly appointed state organizer, will speak, following which a reception will be given for Hon. Lloyd C. Thomas, of this city, representative from the 73rd district, comprising Box Butte and Sheridan counties, in the sessions of the state legislature just closed. The public is cordially invited.

Following a visit of several weeks here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hill, Mrs. Mary Johnson has returned to her home at Sheridan.

Mrs. F. W. Harris and daughter, who had been enjoying a short visit with relatives at Mitchell, returned to Alliance Sunday.

Max Wilcox was here from Bridgeport Tuesday on business.

John Guthrie was at the potash plants on business Monday.

D. E. W. Jones was an over-Sunday visitor at Lincoln.

Services of the Christian Science society of Alliance are held regularly in the old Masonic Hall, in the Adler block. Sunday school is held at 10 a. m., to which all up to the age of 20 years are admitted. The regular Sunday morning lesson sermon is at 11 o'clock. On Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock is held a service at which experiences, testimonies and remarks on Christian Science are given. All are welcome to these services.

The regular weekly story-telling hour for the children will be held at the public library as usual Saturday afternoon commencing at 3 o'clock. The story telling period is becoming quite a feature and the children who have attended look forward to it with eager interest. Parents who desire to provide something of good, wholesome interest for their children will do well to afford them the opportunity of attending these story telling hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Shane and daughter left last week to make their home at Scottsbluff.

Rev. F. Herin was down from Hemingford Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Looney attended the T. P. A. convention at Grand Island. They went down Thursday.

Mrs. Steve Brewer was here from Scottsbluff Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson left for Denver Sunday night for a short visit.

George A. Shaul has been here a part of the past week looking after his interests in connection with the construction work on the new federal building. He lives at Seneca, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Thompson attended the T. P. A. convention at Grand Island. They left here Thursday.

Mrs. H. A. Low of Antioch was taken to Denver last week to receive treatment. Mrs. Low sustained injuries when she fell into one of the vats at the plant of the Nebraska Potash company. Mr. Low is manager of the company. Miss Blanche Kibble, secretary of the company, accompanied Mrs. Low to Denver.

Miss Edna Bowman was at Temingford Friday. She has a class in music at that place.

J. K. Alexander appeared in police court Monday morning, not of his own accord by the way, and was fined five and costs by Judge Roberts. Alexander was somewhat under the weather Saturday night. He couldn't produce the necessary coin and so was provided with an opportunity to work out his fine on the streets.

The local lodge of Knights of Columbus has been notified that members of that order will enlist to fight for the United States will be charged no extra premium on their insurance. Any member of that order in the United States who fights or enlists to fight for any other cause is liable to immediate suspension.

The ladies of the Methodist church will hold an apron and baked goods sale on Saturday of this week at the I. O. O. F. Hall, one door west of Darling's. The sale will be conducted all day and lunch will be served at all hours. The lunch will consist of sandwiches, cake, pie, doughnuts and coffee.

E. E. Young, general superintendent of the Burlington, has been at Casper this week on business.

Mrs. E. H. Boyd has been visiting relatives and friends in Omaha the past week. She left Alliance Thursday.

Thos. Burchell, who had been visiting in California, returned to Alliance Sunday.

A. J. Welch left for Red Lodge, Montana Tuesday. He was called as a witness in a suit brought against the Burlington. Mr. Welch is a dispatcher for the Burlington as well as one of the councilmen for the city of Alliance.

The C. H. Hughes family left Saturday for a visit with relatives at Belvidere.

F. R. Edwards returned to his home at Scottsbluff Friday following a visit of several days in this city.

Jack Stanton has been here from St. Joseph, Mo., a part of the week on business.

Bruce McDowell left the first of the week for a short visit at Canton. Mrs. McDowell will accompany him home on the return.

MONEY TO LOAN ON MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Those who think of building, this spring, should see us at once.
F. E. REDDISH & SON, 202 1/2 Box Butte Ave. 8188-16-6t

High Test Gasoline and Kerosene

Don't ruin your auto starter by using low-grade gasoline in your motor when you can get the best. Our gasoline starts quickly.

WE SELL FEED

CORN, OATS, WHEAT and CHICKEN FEED

If you are figuring on doing some painting this spring it will pay you well to investigate our most complete line of—

MARTIN-SENIOR PAINTS AND VARNISHES

We have a paint or a varnish for every purpose. Your satisfaction will be complete when you have painted with paint from—

VAUGHAN & SON

PHONE NO. 5

Herbert Butler was at Sheridan over Sunday.

Charles Hamilton was an over Sunday visitor at Sheridan.

A. V. Arnold left Saturday for Crawford.

B. T. Prout, manager of the western department of the Haddorf Music company, was at Casper and Scottsbluff last week looking after affairs at the factory stores located in those cities. The fact that this company has recently established a number of new branch stores in this section speaks well for the prosperity of western Nebraska, it being generally conceded that pianos and player pianos are more or less of a luxury.

M. O. New was here from Gordon the last of the week on business.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 19, 20 and 21, are the dates set for the annual convention of the diocese of western Nebraska. The convention will be held in this city at that time.

John W. Guthrie left the first of the week for Kearney, where he is in attendance at the state convention of Nebraska insurance agents. Mr. Guthrie is the only agent in the state on the program, which certainly is a distinction for not only Mr. Guthrie, but for the city of Alliance as well. Mr. Guthrie's wide experience and exceptional knowledge of insurance matters especially qualifies him to talk on subjects pertaining to this line of business. Men of national prominence in insurance circles are on the program. An effort will be put forth to land the next state convention at Alliance.

Mrs. Cora Basye, mother of County attorney Lee Basye, has been seriously ill for the past couple of weeks.

Miss Bess Kibble has been assisting in the office of the Nebraska Potash company at Antioch during the absence of her sister, Miss Blanche, who is secretary of the company.

S. F. Spray was here from Crawford on business the last of the week.

The Robert Driscoll family have moved onto their homestead.

Miss Stella Gill enjoyed a short visit at Rushville last week.

Mrs. Hood, aged seventy-five, who lives fourteen miles north of this city is reported to be recovering well as could be expected from injuries sustained last week.

Rev. A. A. Layton, pastor of the Baptist church here, has been assisting Rev. Colter at Bingham the past week in conducting special services at that place.

Mrs. J. H. Herman and Mrs. I. W. Herman returned home Thursday following a visit in Denver.

Miss Alice Nichols returned to her home at Henry the last of the week following the spending of some time at the local hospital.

Ernest Brower, night yardmaster for the C. B. & Q. here, has purchased the H. J. Ellis property on 508 Big Horn, the consideration being $2,500.

Mrs. A. R. Reynolds has been visiting in Omaha this week. She left Monday morning.

Cheap and big can Baking Powders do not save you money. Calumet does—it's pure and far superior to sour milk and acids.

TO-NITE Big Double Program

I M P E R I A L

Alliance Odd Fellows Present
Motion Pictures of the Odd Fellows
Home at York, Nebraska
Showing many views of the home and a vivid idea of the good being accomplished.

Pathe Presents Lois Meredith in
"SOLD AT AUCTION"

This is a Pathe Gold Rooster Play—a picture for every woman forced to fight her own way

Also--Hearst-Pathe Weekly News

ADMISSION: 25c and 35c

Proceeds Go To Support of the Home At York