

In Society

Boris-Campbell Nuptials Celebrated

A very happy occasion was witnessed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis, seven miles northeast of Alliance Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock when their daughter, Nora Marie, was led to the hymeneal altar by Ray Campbell. Only the relatives of the families were present. Rev. A. A. Layton of the Baptist church of Alliance performed the ceremony. Then such a wedding supper was served was fit for a king. The bride wore a gown of crepe de chine and carried pink and white chrysanthemums. The decorations were all in pink and white. These with the wedding bell and festoons made a beautiful picture. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will spend their honeymoon on the homestead he has fled on in Wyoming near Morecroft. They are splendid young people and are deserving of a long and happy life together.

Music Students in Recital Tonight

This (Thursday) evening the students of piano and voice of the Alliance School of Music will appear in a recital at Reddiah hall. The recital will start at 8:30 o'clock. The public is invited. There will be no admission charge. One of the special features of the recital will be the trio for violin, cello and piano composed by R. R. Unlacke, of the school faculty. This is the number the trio was unable to give at the community concert Sunday afternoon because of an accident to the bass viol.

Entertained at Theater Party

Miss Elsie Carroll entertained at a theater party Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Jane Close of Sheridan, Wyoming who is here visiting her brother, Ray Close. The invited guests were: Misses Jane Close, Florence Williams, Ruth Morris, Katherine Kniest, Teressa O'Donnell, Irene Rice, Charlotte Mollring, Edna Bowman, Dorothy Smith, Marie Buchstein, Cynthia Davenport, Agnes Kniest, Helen Schott, Hannah Kniest, Ruth Reed, Eunice Eldred, Hannah Keane and Helen Carroll.

Woman Club Meets With Mrs. J. G. Dole

Tomorrow (Friday) the Woman Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. G. Dole. At this time the following program will be given: Roll call, home economics, home life in foreign countries; (1) Comparison of National Dietary, Mrs. W. R. Pate, (2) Effects, Mentally, Mrs. Lester, (3) Physically, Mrs. Slagle; Music on the Columbia graphola.

Theater Party for Miss Fenning

Monday evening, Miss Nellie Maycock entertained at a theater party in honor of Miss Christina Fenning, who shortly will leave for Gering, her home. The guests were the Misses Christina Fenning, Julia Collins, Alfredda LaMon and Agnes Aylward.

Caesar Class Entertained The Latin Club Friday

The Caesar class of the Alliance high school entertained the Latin club of the same school Friday evening at the home of Miss Mabel Young. About thirty were in attendance. Latin games were played and a delightful two course luncheon served.

Ladies Choral Club To Sing At Reception

The Ladies Choral Club has accepted an invitation to sing and assist at the public reception to be given at the Baptist church Friday night for Hon. Lloyd C. Thomas, representative from this district in the state legislature.

Baptist Ladies Held Patriotic Meeting

Yesterday afternoon the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church held a patriotic meeting at the home of Mrs. J. S. Corp, 902 Missouri avenue.

Christian Ladies Met
With Mrs. H. A. Gribble
The Ladies Circle of the Christian Church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. H. A. Gribble, 206 East Third Street.

Story Telling At Library Saturday

Saturday afternoon the regular weekly story telling hour for the children will be held at the Alliance Public Library. These periods are becoming highly interesting to the children and the attendance is increasing.

W. C. T. U. To Give Reception for Rep. Thomas

Tomorrow (Friday) evening the W. C. T. U. will hold a Christian Citizenship meeting at which Mrs. Layton, newly appointed state organizer will give a talk. This is to be followed by a public reception in honor of Hon. Lloyd C. Thomas. The Ladies Choral Club will sing and a pleasant evening is assured to all who attend. The public is invited to attend.

W. C. T. U. Meets Today With Miss Mable Young

This (Thursday) afternoon the W. C. T. U. meets with Miss Mable Young at her home on Sweetwater avenue. The meeting starts at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Holsten Hostess To Womans Guild

Mrs. F. E. Holsten was hostess to the Womans Guild of St. Matthew's Episcopal church yesterday afternoon at the Parish house.

The Gantz' Entertained At Chill Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gantz entertained in a most pleasing manner Sunday evening at a chill supper. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Modisette, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Jeep, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Wac, Miss Doris Young and the Messrs W. R. Metz and H. M. Bushnodd, Jr.

Mrs. Mitchell Hostess At Luncheon and Cards

Mrs. William Mitchell pleasantly entertained Monday at a one-thirty o'clock luncheon. Cards followed the luncheon. Mrs. Robert Reddish made the high score.

G. I. A. Ladies Will Be Entertained Tonight

The G. I. A. Ladies will be entertained this (Thursday) evening at a Kensington and kitchen shower to be held at the Odd Fellows hall. All members are most cordially invited.

Mrs. Shaw Entertained Friday Afternoon

Mrs. William Carson Shaw was hostess Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Victor Jeep and Mrs. Carl Modisette, who recently returned from a visit in the east.

Miss Irene Rice Entertained Friday Eve.

Miss Irene Rice entertained Friday evening at a pleasant Kensington and card party at her home on Laramie avenue. The guest list included Miss Hazel Bennett, Hannah Keane, Ruth Morris, Cyuthia Davenport, Bernadine French, Tresse O'Donnell, Florence Williams and Mrs. Frank Abege.

M. E. Ladies To Hold Sale Saturday

The ladies of the Methodist church announce that they will hold a sale of home-made aprons and baked goods on Saturday of this week at the L. O. O. F. hall, one door west of Darling's. The sale will be in progress all day and lunches consisting of sandwiches, cake, pie doughnuts and coffee will be served. Aprons should be left with either Mrs. Acheson not later than this evening.

M. E. Ladies Aid Met With Mrs. Thiele

Yesterday afternoon the Methodist Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Thiele, 512 Emerson

Satisfaction . . .

—it's sewed into every garment we sell

No matter what the price may be, you're assured of one thing—your money is always ready if you are not satisfied. It should be keen satisfaction for you to know—YOU TAKE NO CHANCES WHEN YOU PURCHASE ANYTHING FROM US.—

Capps 100% Pure Wool Clothes
$15.00 to $30.00

—the Suit or Overcoat

ACCESSORIES IN KEEPING THE BEST AT THE PRICE

E. G. LAING

"Modern Clothes for Men"

avenue, which was along home mission lines. The meeting was also a birthday meeting and those who had birthdays this month brought a penny for each year of their age. The meeting was a great success, being both instructive and full of fun for all.

Miss Doris Young Entertained Tuesday

Tuesday afternoon Miss Doris Young entertained in compliment of Mrs. Victor Jeep and Mrs. Carl Modisette.

Reception For New Members At M. E. Church

A reception was held at the Methodist church Thursday night in honor of the members who have recently affiliated themselves with the church. Games were played and a general good time had. The Epworth League presented a most pleasing program.

Married at M. E. Parsonage Thursday

On Thursday Goldie A. Bennett of Marsland was united in marriage to Milton A. Patrick of Ansley, the ceremony taking place at the M. E. church. Dr. J. B. Carns performed the ceremony. The bride has been organist at the Methodist church in Marsland and is one of the leading young ladies of that town. The groom is an operator at Ansley.

Mrs. H. A. Cunningham and daughter went to Hot Springs Sunday.
Mrs. Malcom MacDonald and little daughter Margaret are planning on an extended visit with relatives at St. Louis, Mo., and Chicago, Ill. They left Monday morning.
Mrs. Charles D. Reed, of Torrington, Wyo., passed through the city Saturday on her way to Chicago for a short business visit there.

Mrs. Jas. W. Gaddis and daughter Miss Naomi are getting ready to move to Hot Springs where Mr. Gaddis makes his headquarters since he was transferred to a passenger run out of there.

D. F. Kibble of Indianapolis has been visiting in Alliance the past week.

Mrs. H. P. Toohey, who had been visiting at Pacific Junction returned to Alliance Monday.

Mrs. Ed Morrison and son of Crawford were Alliance visitors between trains. They were on their way to Kansas City.

Regular weekly story telling hour for children at the Public Library Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

According to the Scottsbluff papers Archib Gregory is going right out after business since he opened up his shop as a registered optometrist at the Bluffs. An advertisement appearing in the Republican of that place is headed, "Oh, That Headache!" Mr. Gregory has located his office in the Opera House block.

Mrs. Shans and daughter returned from Ravenna Saturday.

The Arthur Feagins home, 422 N. obrara, is quarantined for scarlet fever.

George E. Burke is at Denver this week on business.

Chase Feagins arrived home Friday from Denver where he had been for several days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bronkhurst have moved into the Betebonner property at 611 Big Horn.

Miss Jean Close is here from Sheridan, the guest of her brother, Rou Close.

Band practice Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. J. L. Roseberry and daughter were here from Mullen the first of the week.

Dr. H. A. Copsey is home from Omaha where he went to attend surgical clinics in the Cook County, Mercy and Augustina hospitals.

Alliance was well represented Sunday at the tabernacle at Scottsbluff, a number from her going over to hear Evangelist Knowles who is conducting a series of revival meetings there. The Christian church, where the meetings were originally held, was not large enough to accommodate the attendance, so a tabernacle was built on a lot adjoining the church. Reports from Scottsbluff are to the effect that Rev. Knowles is meeting with great success in his meetings there.

Everett O'Keefe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Keefe, who has been attending Creighton University at Omaha, arrived home Monday. He came to Alliance to be operated upon for appendicitis, at St. Joseph hospital.

Services will be held at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening at the usual time.

LLOYD WILL ARRIVE HOME THIS AFTERNOON

Hon. Lloyd C. Thomas and Mrs. Thomas are expected to arrive in Alliance this afternoon on No. 43 from Omaha, following a day spent there after the adjournment of the legislature. The legislature adjourned late Tuesday afternoon after a session lasting eighty-six days. A public reception will be held for Lloyd at the Baptist church Friday evening.

BAPTIST CHURCH WILL OBSERVE RED CROSS DAY

Next Sunday, April 29, is Red Cross Sunday for the Baptist Sunday school. The entire collection on that day will go to the Alliance division of the Red Cross. An excellent program has been planned, one of the features of which will be a cornet solo, "America," by Verne Laing, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Laing. The general public is invited to the Baptist church at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. All who contribute a dollar or more are entitled to membership in the Red Cross.

New Shipment of Bungalow
Aprons
Kimonas and
Fancy Work

Just Received—
NIFTY THINGS FOR WOMEN
ALWAYS A LITTLE DIFFERENT
You Should See This Showing

Mrs. A. Simmons
First door south
Herald office

Alliance Junk Company

OLD IRON _____ $5.00 PER TON
BONES _____ 10.00 PER TON

EXTRA BIG PRICES FOR OLD COPPER AND BRASS.

L. Kulakofsky, Prop.

PHONE 222

309 LARAMIE AVE.

Mrs. LaBeth Edick, Modiste
313 East Third Street, Alliance
Afternoon Dresses, Party and Evening
Gowns, Alterations
Telephone 287 for Appointment

1000 New Victor Records

The largest stock of new records ever received in a single shipment
COME IN AND HEAR GALLI-CURCI, CARUSO, McCORMICK, KREYALER AND THE SCORE OF VICTOR ARTISTS
SELECTION IS NOW AT ITS BEST COME IN!

The Wiker Music House
OPPOSITE POSTOFFICE