Smith-Ostenberg Wedding Wednesday.
The marriage of Miss Dorothy Smith to William H. Ostenberg, Jr., took place at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith, 928 Box Butte avenue, Alliance. Dr. J. B. Carns performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate friends and relatives.

The house was decorated in pink and white, with American Beauty roses, forming a beautiful background for the wedding party during the ceremony. "Lohengrin" wedding march was played on the piano by Miss Edna Bowman. The bride was dressed in a three-piece traveling suit of blue serge and wore an embroidered waist of Georgette crepe.

Following the ceremony an elaborate breakfast was served in courses, at which were present Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ostenberg, Sr., and daughters Catherine and Virginia, of Omaha, parents and sisters of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Show and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Davis of Hoffman; Mrs. Clifton Brown Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rousey, Mr. and Mrs. John Rhein, Mr. B. J. Sallows, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Standard, Miss Bowman and Edna Bowman, Miss Charlotte Mollring, Dr. J. B. Carns, of Alliance; and the parents of the bride.

The happy bridal couple left at noon for an extended eastern trip of three weeks, going first to Omaha, and from there to far eastern points, after which they will make their home at Hoffman, where they have already prepared for them a beautiful, new furnished bungalow.

Mrs. Ostenberg is an Alliance girl. She was educated in the Alliance public schools and is a graduate of the high school. She is an accomplished musician, securing her education in this art at the Alliance School of Music. She was well known and extremely popular in Alliance, numbering her friends by the hundreds.

Mr. Ostenberg is an Omaha young man, educated in that city and at the state university at Lincoln. A young man of ability and promise, he holds a responsible position with the Polish Products Company at Hoffman. Since coming west last year and taking up his work at Hoffman he has made a wide circle of friends who wish him and his beautiful bride many years of happiness.

The wedding presents were many and valuable. The Herald joins in extending congratulations and wishes them a long and happy married life.

Announcement has been made by Mr. J. F. C. Markham of the marriage of his daughter Addie Mae to Mr. Gilbert Franklin Kays, Thursday evening, June 28, at Edgemont, S. D. At home to friends after August 1. Both young people are well known in Alliance. Mr. Kays is employed by the Burlington.

Monday afternoon Mrs. J. J. Vance was hostess to the members of the P. E. O. society. Mrs. Tillett and Mrs. E. A. Hall, delegates from the local chapter to the convention held at Fremont last week, gave reports of the convention. Refreshments were served following the business session. The meeting held at the home of Mrs. Vance was the last for the summer. The following state P. E. O. officers were elected at the Fremont convention: President, Mrs. Ruelling of Wymore; vice president, Mrs. Spuss of Lincoln; second vice president, Mrs. Killian of Kearney; recording secretary, Mrs. Cooper of Omaha; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Waterhouse of Fremont; and organizer, Mrs. Kemp of Fullerton. On October 16, 17 and 18 the supreme chapter of the P. E. O. will convene at the Scottish Rite cathedral in Omaha.

Last night the first of a series of three dances given by the T. P. A.'s was held at the opera house. These are bowery dances and the public is cordially invited to attend. The Wilker orchestra furnishes the music. Dances will be held tonight and Friday night.

Mrs. J. S. Rhein was hostess Friday afternoon at a most delightful five-course luncheon. The color scheme was in black and white and was carried out in a very striking manner. The porch was beautifully decorated with flowers and the flag. Following the luncheon the guests spent the afternoon on the porch at bridge. Mrs. M. M. Reynolds won the high score, a pretty Japanese tray. Mrs. W. W. Buckley won low score, and was given a crepe de chine handkerchief. Mrs. W. E. Rousey was awarded a silk flag for the low cut. The guest list included Mrs. W. E. Rousey, Mrs. J. E. Hughes, Mrs. C. E. Hershman, Mrs. L. L. Smith, Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Mrs. M. W. Buckley, Mrs. A. V. Arnold, Mrs. M. M. Reynolds, Mrs. W. T. Quick and Mrs. W. Niemann.

Saturday evening Mrs. J. H. Standard entertained at a progressive slumber party in compliment to Miss Dorothy Smith, who on Wednesday of this week became the bride of William Ostenberg, Jr. The idea of the progressive slumber party was unique, the guests progressing from one bed to another, spending two hours in each bed. Those in attendance were the Misses Dorothy Smith, Kate Kniest, Hannah Keane, Ruth Morris, Cynthia Davenport, Edna Bowman, Charlotte Mollring, Irene Rice and Teresa O'Donnell.

The Alliance chapter, American Red Cross, makes an appeal to all Alliance women, whether members of the local chapter or not, to take part in the work of the organization. There is need of women to sew, and all who will do this are urged to call at headquarters in the Masonic temple after 2 o'clock any week day.

Little Friends Surprise Harriet Hamilton.

When the morning of June 26 dawned the world did not look particularly bright to little Harriet Hamilton, at 519 Laramie avenue, whose tenth birthday it was, for with a quarantine card on the house that proclaimed "no admittance" it was impossible to celebrate in any way. Things changed at 3 p. m. when sixteen of her little friends silently trooped, as near as allowed, and placed a dainty feast, composed of fruit in dainty baskets entwined with green leaves and wild roses, plates of sandwiches, a pitcher of lemonade, ice cream, and to make it all complete, an immense angel cake all snowy white with icing and ten red candles in red candle holders, right on the very top, out on the lawn in front of her house for her— they stood across the street to greet her when she appeared, awed at what she beheld. The feast and gifts were accompanied by the following very appropriate verses written by a bright little mother in the neighborhood for the occasion:

When we learned that ten years ago today,
The stork visited Hamilton's and left you to stay.

We thought we would the event celebrate
And in planning this party our joy has been great.

We'd like, each one, to be with you today,
But that card on your house sure scared us away.

Don't think it was fairies who have left this surprise,
For fairies aren't real like friends that you prize.

And we have woven our love into each little treat
And, in spirit, we will be there with you to eat.

So please act like you had lots of company,
A host of your friends "in your mind" you must see.

From a distance we greet you and wish you much pleasure
And hope your happiness may be far beyond measure.

And may you have a whole lot of birthdays more
With each one nicer than the one just before.

NON-GLARING LIGHTS ON ALL AUTOMOBILES

The Nebraska motor vehicle registration law, as amended by the Nebraska legislature of 1917, takes effect in July. This law is changed from the former law in several provisions which must be observed by auto owners.

The section which refers to the headlights of autos and which will compel the changing of lenses on most cars now in use provides as follows: "It shall be unlawful to use on a vehicle of any kind operated on the public highways of this state any lighting device of over four candlepower equipped with a reflector, unless the same shall be so designed, deflected, or arranged that no portion of the beam of reflected light, when measured 75 feet or more ahead of the lamps, shall rise above 42 inches from the level surface on which the vehicle stands, under all conditions of load. Spot lights shall not be used except when projecting their rays directly on the ground and at a distance not exceeding 30 feet in front of the vehicle."

The new law also makes the penalty for stealing autos more severe, providing a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $300 and imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months, nor more than six months, with liability for double the amount of injury sustained by the car stolen.

It is made the duty of every public garage to keep for public inspection a record of the license numbers and engine numbers of all motor vehicles stored, repaired, sold or rented, the record containing the name and address of the owner of the car. Severe penalties are provided for anyone violating this provision of the law or for anyone who defaces a car by obliterating the number of the engine.

AUTO TRUCK IS SERIOUSLY DAMAGED

The big Vaughan & Son auto truck was seriously damaged at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon by fire, the woodwork and upholstery being badly burned before the fire department got a length of big hose trained on the conflagration. Joe Vaughan, who was cleaning the motor, was singed about the arms while trying to put out the fire. The fire was caused by a spark from the starting crank which struck a piece of metal. The loss was covered by insurance.

The Eagles' God-speed

Alliance, Nebraska, June 27.—To the Editor of The Alliance Herald: Time after time the writer has seen suggestions from various people as to the ways and means to care for the dependents and families of our brave boys who may lose their lives in this war. Permit me to submit a plan that will be presented to the Grand Aerie convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles to be held at Buffalo this coming August, and which, no doubt, will be enacted into law.

At Kansas City, May 29, twelve members of Grand Worthy President Rex B. Goodsell's administration determined to recommend to the coming grand aerie a proposition that will surely prove the greatest patriotic movement that has ever been put forth in fraternal history. Briefly, it is this: That those of us that are not called to the colors shall, during the war, each pay the sum of 10 cents per month into a common fund, under the control of the grand aerie, for the purpose of insuring for $1,000 the life of every man who serves in the army or navy from the date of his enlistment until the war is over. If he loses his life during the period of enlistment the face of the policy shall be paid to his dependents or to his beneficiaries.

To illustrate: The premium on $1,000 for a man of 26 years, under the American experience table, the most conservative table, is $14.57. To this must be added the war risk of $37.50, making a total annual premium of $52.07. Now, 10 cents a month from our 400,000 members, exempting, of course, our enlisted members, will net approximately $480,000 a year. In other words, we can insure between 9,000 and 10,000 members of this order each for a $1,000 life insurance policy if each will pay 10 cents a month—the value of a fair cigar, the price of a moving picture show.

The premium for this policy will not cost our enlisted members one cent. It is to be the gift of those of us who remain behind. It is to be our "God-speed and good wishes" to the man who goes to the front. Could anything be more patriotic or more necessary? Is it not fraternalism actually transformed into something concrete and encouraging? Should it not also promote the growth and prosperity of the Fraternal Order of Eagles? It should also stop lapses, if anything will; for who would sever his connection with an order carrying its effect such a movement? It should increase our membership, for men now outside will in patriotic approval wish to put the seal of their manhood on what we are doing. Out of a wide fraternal experience I say this is the high-water mark in our fraternity. How does it appeal to you, Mr. Reader?

F. W. HICKS, Secretary.
