

HEMINGFORD DEPT.

Fred Melick returned Monday from a business trip to Casper, Wyo.

Mrs. Todd Robbins and daughters from over in the Ridge country were doing some shopping here Saturday.

E. E. Ford from near Marsland took 44 from here Monday going east on a visit.

Little Lois Haynes was quite ill the first of the week.

Miss Belva Geiger visited with friends in Alliance last week.

Mrs. Ira Phillips suffered an attack of tonsillitis this week. At this writing she is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Melick, Miss Grimes, Jess Melick and Bud Kinley returned Thursday from a few days' stay in Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Frohnappel were in Alliance Friday. Mrs. Frohnappel was having some dental work done.

H. R. Olds was a business visitor in Alliance the latter part of the week.

Miss Emma Lyon arrived Saturday from Bridgeport for a week's visit with her parents and brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hueke departed Tuesday for Montana where they will visit relatives. They went by auto route.

Public sales seem to be the craze at present. On Monday Wendell Johnson had a sale; on Tuesday one at John Warn's, and still more to follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Warden of Minneapolis, Minn., daughter and son-in-law of William, came the middle of the week for an indefinite stay with relatives and friends.

The auto polo exhibition given by the Savidge Bros. at this place Saturday brought out a big crowd.

Little Christina Melick had a very narrow escape from serious injury Friday evening. The hind wheel of an auto passed over her. At first it was thought that she was seriously hurt. A doctor was called but could find no injury, and at present the little girl is apparently all right and none the worse for the experience.

The ball game at this place Sunday between an aggregation from Alliance and the home team was a farce comedy from start to finish, with a little bit of vaudeville interspersed, resulted in a change of umpires in the eighth inning, and not much ball game at any time. Most of the boys seemed to enjoy themselves in various ways—some played ball, others tried to, while some took up the time chewing the rag.

O. E. Phillips left here Tuesday for a trip to the coast. While gone he will visit Frisco, Seattle, Vancouver and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sump were over-night visitors at the Shepherd home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller and Mr. and Mrs. F. Nagelschneider are sightseeing up in Wyoming at present.

Died, at the home of his parents, near Curly, William, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ball, from pneumonia. Funeral services were held from the M. E. church at this place Friday, interment being in the Hemingford cemetery. To the sorrowing family and friends we extend our sincere sympathies.

B. U. Shepherd is in Antioch attending to business matters this week.

Mrs. Wahl, who is in the Alliance hospital, mention of which was made last week, is reported to be recovering rapidly and will be able to return to her home and family here in a few days.

Norbert Frohnappel is moving his stock of merchandise into the K. L. Pierce building, one door south of Cory's confectionery, this week.

COL. EVANS IS NOW ON THE WAR PATH

Wiljard M. Evans, better known throughout this section of Nebraska as "Colonel" Evans, has filed a complaint in the juvenile branch of the county court asserting that a 14-year-old lad is incorrigible and asks the court to restrain the lad from molesting the colonel. The parents of the lad have been summoned to appear in county court at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Col. Evans, as he is called, has been having considerable trouble for some time past. It seems that the boys are in the habit of calling him "Bryan", which amounts to the same thing as shaking a red flag in front of a mad bull. The colonel has a habit of chasing the lads with his crutch and judging from the way he swings that crutch around, anyone that is unlucky enough to come in contact with said crutch is going to need medical attention.

The boys do bother the old man, but, in the opinion of the writer, Mr. Evans places himself in a position, many times, to receive undue attention.

NATIONAL TRADERS LIVE STOCK EXCHANGE

Young But Vigorous Organization Held Annual Meeting at South Omaha Friday and Saturday

The second annual convention of the National Traders' Live Stock Exchange was held in South Omaha at the Exchange building Friday and Saturday of last week. The meetings were presided over by President James H. Bulla, who is president of the Omaha exchange as well as the national.

After two days of business and pleasure, during which time important business was transacted and a resolution passed commending President Wilson on his stand in the world war proposition, and pledging the support of all members at this time, the election of officers was a compliment to President Bulla and Charles H. Huntzinger, secretary, both of whom were re-elected.

Vice presidents were elected as follows: From Chicago, C. H. Martin; from Sioux City, L. D. Hudson; from St. Louis, W. E. Hilton; from Kansas City, John B. Reese. After an invitation extended by R. S. Mosley of Kansas City, the next meeting of the exchange was scheduled for that place.

Mayor Dahlman's address Friday naturally took a patriotic turn and it was here the cowboy mayor appeared at his best. His tribute to the live stock interests for their steadfast upholding of the hands of President Wilson in the present crisis met with a hearty response from his auditors. The president can count on every man engaged in the live stock business to do his whole duty at this time.

The annual banquet in the evening on the roof garden of the Blackstone hotel was a most enjoyable affair in every way. Beautiful appointments, a tasty menu, good music and a paucity of after-dinner speeches added very materially to the pleasure of the occasion. The talks by "Hattie" Block of the Ak-Sar-Ben board, of governors and of Stockman-Lawyer Farrar of Kansas City furnished an agreeable exception to the rule.

Haven't you got a spare room you could fix up and rent or maybe two or three rooms you could rent for light housekeeping? There is a great demand for rooms of this kind—a demand far greater than the supply. If you could rent a room or rooms for light housekeeping you will not alone be adding to your own revenue but you will be rendering a real service to Alliance. People are coming to Alliance every day, and they must be taken care of. The Herald has requests every day for rooms of this kind. Order a room-for-rent ad in The Herald and the chances are you will have your room rented before the paper comes out. That's just a part of Herald service.
