WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach.

Says Inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean. sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do.

For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty ing to produce liquor on request and have billous attacks, acid stomach or chop sucy was not brought within constipation are assured of pro-nounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

Why He Needed Her

John McIntosh and his daugnter. Janet, from Canada, visited relatives in Detroit recently. Day after day Janet and her father went sight-seeing, always together.

The girl's aunt, noticing this one day, suggested that she let her father go down town alone occasioanlly, and added, jokingly, "Men do not like to have women always tagging along."

"Ay, auntie, but he wahnts me," explained Janet, earnestly. canna thole to stir oot o' the hoose his lane. Ye wadna' believe foo fasht he is onywhere wi'ooot me. -Lloyd's Column-Humerous New Yorkers

New Yorkers have always seem to the outsider as a humor provoking depended upon to bring back the natural bunch in the aggregate. Now the leading city of the world in population, wealth and conceit, this city harbors within its borders people of all kinds. That a few of them have a vein of humor is shown by the following article, taken from the New York correspondence of a leading daily paper:

The rights of delicatessen dealers which have at no time compared in scope with their wrongs-yesterday morning were reviewed briefly in the Jefferson Market Court. It was there established, to the satisfaction of every one present except Johann Unger that delicatessen products are to be delivered into the hand rather than he eye of a customer.

Mr. Unger, whose salesroom and coookery is at No. 41 West 14th St., was arrested on the complaint of Nathan Berkowitz, a pickle purchaser, who stated that he had been killed outright by the defendant shortly after sunrise yesterday morning. He declared he had bought a side of when he received the pickles right between the eyes. For a moment everything went sour before him and when he recovered himself he found to state that if every customer who known as the "family show," wher bought a dime's worth of digestion the children and attendants are as ruiner in his place thought he could carefully looked after as at a concert

He made it clear that the presence nine miles, little Amy shall see the of Mr. Berkowitz on earth was annoy- parade," replied the boss. ing in the extreme and warned him ! without even ascertaining just what from her malady. the trend of the war argument was, but it was obvious that if Mr. Unger had responded with words instead of pickles the debate would still be in Anyway the magistrate, after observing the briny eyes and florid neck of Mr. Berkowitz, decided that Mr. Unger could easily spare $10 from the day's receipts in exchange for the alleged Prussian frolic.

It is apparent that those persons who deride the Chinese army and believe it incapable of actually fighting never have met Kong Fat. Certain it is that such persons never have waved their fists under the amp le nose of Kong and assured him that another moment of delay regarding the chop sucy would bring about an oriental casualty. That is one thing which Kong Fat will not submit

In the Harlem court August Latz, manager for a taxicab company, explained thru pneumatic lips that K. Fat packs a punch and uses it without warning. He asserted that the only signal for a muscular romp by Mr. Fat is that he suddenly feels strong, drink, before breakfast each day, a and that during such periods all vicglass of real hot water with a tea-spoonful of limestone phosphate in it, garded as targets. Mr. Latz stated garded as targets. Mr. Latz stated that he entered the Far East rink at No. 501 West 162nd St., and that soo after encountering Monsieus Fat he had been knocked galley west. There had been na altraction or explanation he declared. All that he knew for sure was that Mr. Fat did not taks to him.

Mr. Fat rose in court to explain in Peking slang that he has been walked all over for years. He stated wake up with a dull, aching head or that Mr. Latz kicked his slats for failbreath, sallow complexion, others who that he was then assured that if the two brief moments the Fat family would have the trouble and inconvenience of burying another son. It was at that juncture that Konk leaned back so that his ear touched the menu on another table and swuag. The results, to say the least were gratifying to the loyal Chinese.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURI

Bat less meat if you feel Backachy or have Bladder trouble-Salts fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment: the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear.
