

The WEEK'S DOINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Cole of Kansas City, former Alliance people, came in Saturday afternoon and visited until Tuesday morning with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fleming. They are making an overland trip by auto, having visited Idaho, Colorado and other western points.

M. Walsh, of Mazoon, Ill., representing one of the largest firms of cattle feeders in the country, purchased seven hundred head of feeders the first of the week from Chas. Avery and Everett Eldred, through the agency of Feagins & Son, Alliance commission firm. Delivery of the feeders will start soon and finish by October 1.

W. J. Hamilton, J. F. Tiller, J. B. Kennedy and Kack Partow spent from Saturday until Tuesday on the lakes north of Whitman, fishing for bass. Reports say that they were successful and returned heavily laden.

A. S. Crane, father of Mrs. James Keeler, an old Box Butte county settler, arrived the first of the week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Keeler. Mr. Crane has five daughters living. He arrived in time to help "Jim" Keeler celebrate the latter's forty-eighth birthday, Wednesday of this week. Jim is a lover of the great outdoors and a genuine sportsman. For years and years it has always been his custom to spend his birthday in the shade of trees with running water nearby. Jim came near missing it yesterday on account of the pressure of business, but along in the afternoon the lure of the funny tribe became too strong and he and his father-in-law gathered up their fishing traps and spent the balance of the day at the Kilpatrick lake.

A most successful sale of cattle was held in Alliance Saturday, and at Hemingford Monday, under the direction of Auctioneer H. P. Coursey of Alliance and Fred Kibby of Kansas City. The cattle were sold for Dick Jacobs. Between four and five hundred head were sold. Another interesting sale coming is announced in The Herald this week for Feagins & Elliott, to be held at Hemingford Friday, August 24.

George W. Calvert, representing the St. Joseph Stock Yards Company, of South St. Joseph, Mo., was a caller at The Herald office the first of the week. Mr. Calvert is doing missionary work for the St. Joseph yards among the stockmen of western Nebraska and advertising the Stocker and Feeder Show to be held in St. Joseph September 27 and 28. The St. Joseph people were well pleased with the showing made a year ago at the 1916 Stocker and Feeder show and are expecting a like representation again this year. Mr. Calvert left for the sandhill country east of Alliance early in the week. He will return to Alliance before he completes his trip.

Mrs. John W. Thomas is expected to arrive in Alliance Friday noon from Gordon, where she has been visiting her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Thomas. She will visit with her children here and friends for some time before returning to Lincoln.

Harry Mollring, who for two years has been associated with his brothers George and Will in the large dry goods business operated by George, left this noon for New York City, where he expects to engage in the silk and dry goods business, representing jobbers. For eighteen years Harry was a traveling salesman in the dry goods line and is one of the best posted men in this business in the West. He has a host of friends in this section of the state who regret to see him bid himself to the far East but who realize that he will be able to fill the responsibilities placed on his shoulders in the business which he has been in so many years.

W. B. Wilson, secretary of the department of labor at Washington, has announced that the Alliance post office is now supplied with blanks for use in the work now being done by the government to provide unemployed persons, both skilled and unskilled with jobs and to provide employers with help. Those desiring work can secure assistance by calling on the postmaster and securing the blanks to fill out.

Local lovers of athletics report themselves as being much disgusted with the showing made by "Battling Nelson" with the Yankee-Robinson shows last Friday. They are of the opinion that the former champion gave a punk exhibition of the manly art of self-defense while here.

George H. Miller, contractor, left Wednesday noon for Angora to take up active construction of the new schoolhouse for which he recently received the contract. The basement cement work is about completed and it is expected that the building will be pushed rapidly to completion.

Another civil service examination for first grade or clerical postoffice assistants is to be held in Alliance on September 6. This is due to the fact that there were an insufficient number of applicants at the examination on July 20.

When asked if there was any news in the marriage license end of his business, Judge Tash replied this morning, "Nothing doing, I haven't issued a license so far this week and there were none issued last week."

The Misses Julia and Matilda Frankle returned home Monday following a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends in Denver.

Charles Howe of Hoffland entered the hospital Saturday to be treated for blood poison. His father, J. W. Howe, accompanied him to Alliance.

William Robertile, foreman of the Van Tassel Co.'s ranch near Cheyenne, was an over-Sunday visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. J. Hodgkinson. He was on his way home from Omaha after taking a good sized shipment of cattle to the South Omaha market. He reports that two of the steers weighed 2,940 pounds and brought $13.50 a hundred.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wiker left Monday for a visit at Douglas, Wyo., with relatives.

Four rooms with private bath have been added to the Drake hotel. These rooms occupy the space formerly occupied by the dining room.

G. W. Lowry, on special invitation of the women of the Baptist church, occupied the pulpit at both services Sunday during the absence of the pastor.

A. T. Mounds of Halsted, Kans., is visiting at the home of his son, County Clerk W. C. Mounds. He arrived in Alliance Monday.

J. H. Carroll spent the week end with his family on their homestead in Sioux county.

George Schiller of Hoffland, employed at the potash plant, was brought here Thursday with a severely injured right foot. His foot was caught under a loaded wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole of Kansas City were in Alliance Sunday enjoying a visit with old friends. Mr. Cole preceded Mr. Tinkoom as agent for the Adams Express here. They were making an overland tour.

Denny Landrigan, J. B. Kennedy and Jack Berry of Ellsworth were in town Friday to take in the circus.

Mrs. Epler and three children arrived from Lincoln last week to make their home here with their husband and father, Rev. Epler, of the Christian church. The family is living at 823 Box Butte avenue.

Captain Vincent Taylor is expected in Alliance Sunday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. A. S. Gerde, and other relatives. Following the completion of a course of training in the first officers' reserve corps he was appointed captain and has been assigned to Fort Sheridan, Ill. He is coming here for a visit before taking up his duties at Ft. Sheridan. Captain Taylor is a graduate of the Alliance high school, class of 1908, and for five years past has been attending the University of Wisconsin at

Miss Ella Moravek of Hemingford was an Alliance visitor Friday, being on her way to her home at Hemingford from Denver, where she had been attending a business college.

The Nebraska Land Company has secured several hundred colored picture post cards, showing the Harris rye field, one-half mile from Alliance. The picture was taken June 22 of this year and shows the rye up to the shoulders of several men, with the Harris farm buildings in the background. This field was one of the finest ever seen in this section of the West, yet was only one of many such excellent fields in Box Butte county.

Theodore Johnson was in Omaha several days last week where he went with his sister, who underwent an operation for the removal of a cancer.

Rev. A. A. Layton and family will return this week from an auto trip through Colorado. Rev. Layton will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday.

RIDDANCE SALE

DISHES, PLATES, PLATTERS, SETS, ETC.

We have accumulated a quantity of dishes consisting of white plates, a number of complete small sets, platters, and a variety of odd pieces. Every article is just what someone has been wanting. These are

TO BE PLACED ON BARGAIN TABLES
IN OUR SHOW WINDOW AND BE PUT ON SALE

Commencing, Saturday, August 18th

The dishes offered in this RIDDANCE SALE are not new purchases. If they were we couldn't sell them at the prices you will pay for them, because new dishes these days cost us, in many instances, as much as we used to sell for formerly. But a dish is a dish. It doesn't make any difference to you whether we bought them this year, a year ago or two years ago, so long as they are real dishes.

And the best of it is these Plates, Platters, Small Sets and Odd pieces are just the kind of dishes every ordinary family uses every day. They are what you use and we're selling many of them at

ONE-HALF PRICE

As prices are now. Dishes that we used to sell at ten cents we must sell at twenty cents. But we bought these some time ago. There are plates here—and dandy ones, too—at 10 cents.
