

BOYS ON THE BORDER NOW

 B, over on the east side of the Union Pacific bridge, had planned a trip to Omaha for the day.
 All Orders Changed
 Suddenly all orders were countermanded. Company C hurried about town to get its suitcases and bid its friends a really final farewell. Company G at Fort Crook was halted as it was swinging out of the gates for the hike. Company B had been forwarded and packed two days ago, so it marched in a body up to Omaha for a final hour of business and shopping.
 At 1 o'clock Company C marched in a body from the Auditorium down to the Burlington station. There it found its brothers of the Fourth, Companies B and G, awaiting it. Company G boarded its train at Fort Crook and its cars joined the troop train in Omaha. Company B likewise jumped on some Burlington coaches over across the Union Pacific bridge and crossed to the Burlington station in Omaha.
 Early Friday morning a Burlington train consisting of two passenger coaches and a baggage car pulled into Fort Crook immediately back of the barracks. Members of Company C were told to pack up and be ready to start at any moment. All the other companies in the fort went out for their usual Friday morning hike, but Company G was retained in the post. A short leave of an hour or two was granted some who had urgent business to settle in Omaha before they left.
 Came As Surprise
 The coming of the train to Fort Crook was a surprise to everyone in the company, from Captain Miller to the youngest private.
 "Well, they always said we'd get about an hour's notice," said one man. "But I could hardly believe it."
 Inside the barracks men were hurrying rapidly packing personal effects, while in the office all important papers and belongings were being sorted and put in safe places. No one seemed to know just when the train would go, or where it was taking them.
 There was a hurry call at the Young Men's Christian association tent for stationery and soon a dozen at a time crowded the writing tables, sending farewell messages to friends and relatives far and near.
 "Guess we are going to start—the captain wrote a letter to his wife," said one lad.
 "But maybe we won't leave today," suggested another.
 "Bet we will," hazarded one. "There's ice water in that train—doesn't that look as if we are going?"
 Gets Another Shot
 At the Auditorium Company C was getting its second dose of typhoid inoculation before it left.
 "My, we do hope you boys aren't going to France so soon," said someone to Captain Miller of Company G, when the train came into Fort Crook.
 "I hope we are," replied the captain quickly. "That's what we enlisted for."
 There was great joy at being at last on the move in the ranks of both

C and G. All the men are hoping their stay in Deming may be short and that they will soon be at the front. Not a sign of nervousness was noticed, not a bit of reluctance, not a hope that the stay in the safe training camp at Deming would be long. All were eager to get it fighting as soon as possible and show what Uncle Sam's men can do.
 "We don't know where we're going but we're on our way," whistled the boys merrily, as they wrote letters and packed up.
 Some hoped it would be France, while others held out for Russia. "Gee, that would be pretty cold for this crowd," grinned one man. "This summer uniform is all the duds I've got. If we don't get some winter clothes I speak for Deming."

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble—Neutralizes acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.
 Eat less meat, drink lots of water; use got from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.
 Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

SEIDELL BUSY APPRAISING FOR FEDERAL LAND BANK

F. M. Seidell, land appraiser for the Omaha Federal Farm Loan bank, returned to Alliance Saturday following his first week spent appraising lands for the bank. Mr. Seidell spent the week in Arthur and Garden counties. The Arthur County National Farm Loan Association at Arthur has about thirty-five members. The Goodland association in Garden county has about seventeen members.
 Mr. Seidell remained here over Sunday with his family and after attending to certain clerical work in connection with his office left Monday night for Whitman where he is appraising land of members of the Whitman association in Grant and Hooker counties this week. There are about sixteen members in this association.

 Land Appraiser Seidell states that he enjoys his new work immensely, but says there is one bad feature in connection with the work, and that is the fact that he is compelled to be away from his family so much of the time.
Just the Thing for Diarrhoea
 "About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Many druggists recommend this remedy because they know that it is reliable. Obtainable everywhere.

POTASH COMPANIES USING MUCH WOOD PIPE NOW

John M. Gaynor of the American Wood Pipe Co., of Tacoma, Wash., was in this section last week in the interests of his company. He sold 25,000 feet of wood pipe to the Potash Products Company of Hoffman and when seen by a Herald representative at Antioch last week was on a deal for a large shipment to the American plant. Mr. Gaynor was not sure, at that time, whether the company would be able to deliver enough pipe within the time desired—thirty days—in order to secure the American contract.
 Iron pipe has become so high in price that many manufacturers have taken up the wood pipe idea. The United States government is using it now, to a large extent, in the new army camps.

The Government needs Farmers as well as Fighters. Two million three hundred thousand acres of Oregon and California Railroad Co. Grant Lands. Title revested in United States. Some Higher, None Lower.
 "Mary, New York seems to be an awful town in which to buy groceries. Aren't there any stores where they sell things lower than the others do?"
 "No, mum. I don't know of any. There's some stores where they sell 'em higher than the others, but they ain't none where they sell 'em lower."
