Dan Hoppas received word Monday that his brother Manly was dead. The cause of his death was not known. Mr. Hoppas and mother left immediately.

Song of the Birds

Caged chaffinches are celebrated for their eagerness to compete with one another in singing. They deliver their songs alternately until one is exhausted and unable to take up his turn. He is vanquished. So excited do the birds become that it occasionally happens that one of the competitors drops down dead. The originating and directive causes of the particular song of different kinds of birds is not understood, but it is well known that they have a great gift of imitation. Parrots, pipit, jays, ravens and other such birds are familiar instances, while little birds, such as bullfinches, can be trained to whistle the melodies which human beings have invented.—Exchange.

Great Help

"My children are very fastidious about their eating. Sometimes I envy the mother birds."

"Why so? They have to work very hard to feed their young."

"Yes, but there's no kicking about this and that. The youngsters don't know what they are going to have for dinner until it is halfway down their throats."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

LIVESTOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Cattle Active at Steady to Stronger Prices

HOGS GENERALLY STEADY

Moderate Receipts of Sheep and Lambs and a Strong, Active Market for Both Killers and Feeders. Demand for Feeder Lambs Exceptionally Keen and Top Price $17.50, the Highest of the Season.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb., Sept. 4, 1917.—The week opens out with a fair run of cattle, about 9,500 head, and a steady to stronger market for beef steers and cow stuff. Demand was good and best natives brought $14.00. Western range heaves ruled strong and feeder buyers paid as high as $12.25 for fleshy grass steers. Despite the fact that it was Labor Day, the demand was broad and trade active at steady to stronger prices all round.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice heaves, $15.50@15.55; fair to good heaves, $12.25@13.25; common to fair heaves, $9.00@12.00; good to choice yearlings, $13.00@15.00; fair to good yearlings, $12.00@13.00; common to fair yearlings, $9.00@11.50; prime heavy grass heaves, $12.50@13.50; good to choice grass heaves, $11.00@12.50; fair to good grass steers, $9.50@10.75; common to fair grass steers, $7.50@9.25; good to choice heifers, $7.50@9.00; good to choice cows, $7.25@8.25; fair to good cows, $6.50@7.00; canners and cutlers, $5.00@6.50; veal calves, $5.00@12.25; beef bulls, $7.00@8.25; hogan bulls, $5.50@7.00; prime feeding steers, $10.00@12.25; good to choice feeders, $8.00@9.00; fair to good feeders, $7.00@8.00; good to choice stockers, $7.75@8.75; fair to good stockers, $6.75@7.50; common to fair grades, $5.50@6.50; stock heifers, $6.50@8.00; stock cows, $6.00@7.50; stock calves, $6.00@9.00.

Not Much Change in Hogs. Receipts of hogs were very light, about 2,100 head, and with a fair demand from both shippers and packers the trade was reasonably active and prices in substantially the same notches as on Saturday. Tops sold at $18.50 and the bulk of the trading was at $17.50@17.85, about $1.50@2.00 higher than a week ago.

Feeder Lambs Sell Higher. A fair Monday's run of sheep and lambs showed up, 16,500 head, and while packers were slow in taking hold the demand from feeder buyers was very keen and as high as $17.50 was paid, the high price of the season. Fat stock did not sell very much better than last week and the strength in the market is entirely due to the competition from feeder buyers.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, fair to choice, $16.75@17.40; lambs, culls, $14.00@16.00; lambs, feeders, $16.50@17.50; yearlings, fair to choice, $11.50@12.50; yearlings, feeders, $11.50@13.00; wethers, fair to choice, $10.50@11.75; ewes, fair to choice, $9.75@10.75; ewes, culls and feeders, $7.00@10.00; ewes, breeders, all ages, $10.50@17.00.
