

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

The Methodist Ladies Aid Society will meet next Wednesday afternoon September 26 with Mrs. Oscar O'Bannon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. O'Bannon has arranged for special entertainment for the afternoon and all members and friends are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. E. C. Whetstone, of Casper, Wyoming, was a week-end visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Merritt. She was on her way home from attending a family reunion at Esira, Iowa. Mrs. Whetstone left Sunday night.

Spencer Griffith, daughter and grand daughter of Thermopolis Wyoming were Alliance visitors here Monday between trains, being on their way east for a visit with relatives. While here the Griffiths were guests of W. H. Swan and W. W. Norton homes. Mr. Griffith is an old resident of Alliance, having been one of the pioneers of the city. He at one time, owned the Harve Ellis property here. Mr. Norton took the Griffiths about town in the car and they could not help but marvel at the wonderful growth and advancement of the city since the time they left here. Mr. Griffith is running an apartment house at Thermopolis and is doing well.

Sam Smith and son Robert left Wednesday night for Kinmudy, Ill., for a visit with Mr. Smith's mother and sister of a couple of weeks. Mr. Smith lives southeast of Alliance on his rail. Mrs. Smith will visit in the city during their absence.

W. M. Wilson of Wilson Bros., furniture dealers, returned to Alliance Saturday noon from Kansas City, following a week spent there in purchasing two car loads of new furniture for their store here.

Miss Eva Laurence goes to Torrington, Wyoming this week to visit her uncle, Alfred Rodgers, who is in the navy and will leave for China next week. Miss Laurence's mother will return to Alliance with her.

People who have oil stoves which use wicks should look to their wick supply. Local dealers find it increasingly difficult to secure these wicks. The little coal stove which sits in the corner of the room on a cool fall day and emits clouds of greasy smoke (if the wick is not trimmed) is a welcome friend.

Paul H. Patton, division engineer for the Nebraska Telephone Co., and W. A. Johnson, engineer, both of Omaha, were in the city Tuesday. They drove from here to Ellsworth to make a preliminary survey of the proposed toll lines between here and Ellsworth via Haffland, Antloch and Lakeside. The telephone service from these towns at the present time is unsatisfactory owing to the fact that it is over farmer lines and carries with it many inconveniences of trying to get continuous service for towns over country lines.

Dr. Morris will speak at the Methodist church Sunday morning on "The Silence of Jesus," and on Sunday evening on "Practical Christianity." There was a rousing good league meeting last Sunday evening. It is hoped the meeting this week will be even better. League meets at 7 o'clock. Praching at 8 o'clock.

A Hawk and a Hymn.
Charles Wesley, brother of John Wesley, who founded the Methodist church wrote some 6,000 hymns. "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," was the most popular of any he wrote. He got the idea for this one day as he was sitting at his desk. A bird pursued by a hawk flew in at the open window. The hawk afraid to follow, flew away, and Wesley, struck by the incident, was at once inspired to write a song, applying what he had witnessed to our spiritual life.—Kansas City Star.

"I've been hugging myself to distraction ever since dad gave me a pearl necklace for my birthday."
"If you need any assistance you know where to come for it."—Town Topics.

"Don't you think that young folks ought to be taught how to spend money?"
"Humph! I see you never sent a boy of yours to college."—Baltimore American.

FALL TIME

Is The Time To Build

- Garage A valuable car will depreciate very rapidly in value and use unless it is properly protected from the cold weather.
- Granary Thousands of dollars are lost to the farmers of this state by poor granaries and insufficient storage facilities.
- Hog House Well protected hogs fatten quicker and are a better improvement.
- Chicken House Do not allow your chickens to roost all over the farm. Give them a building of their own.
- Coal House Coal slacks very rapidly when exposed to the elements. Save dollars and get better service by storing your coal in a well built shed.
- Implement Shed An implement shed is a necessity on every farm and ranch. They quickly pay for themselves in saving machinery from rust and decay.
- Spud Cellar Hold your spuds for the high prices in the winter. Protect them by a well-built cellar. We have the heavy timbers needed.
- Cattle Shed The modern ranch protects its valuable stock by building of sheds. Lumber is much cheaper than beef.
