

Items of Community Interest

Dr. C. E. Herschman was called to Hoffman on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Barnes and wife came down Tuesday noon from Crawford, returning home Wednesday afternoon.

Some fine Photos of the Indians on Post Cards, 5c each, at The Alliance Art Studio.

Mrs. Guy Kennicutt is quite ill at this time with bronchitis. She is being attended by Dr. O'Bwan.

Arnold Jacobson has returned from a business trip to Denver. He is at present employed at Kidd's Cafe in this city.

Miss Bess Reid of Lincoln, formerly of Alliance, passed through Saturday noon on her way to Scottsbluff to visit friends.

The new fire hose, recently ordered for the fire department, has arrived and was used for the first time at the Drake Hotel fire last week.

H. A. Gribble has been appointed first sergeant of the Box Butte Home Guards. He is an ex-soldier and well qualified to fill the place.

A marriage license was issued from the office of County Judge Ira E. Tash on Monday of this week to Henry Meyers and Kate Wright, both of this city.

Mrs. G. F. Dill has returned from a visit to Broken Bow where she visited friends and relatives for a few days. Her little daughter, Dorothy, accompanied her.

Miss Jessie Everetts, who is employed at the office of J. H. Vaughn & Sons as bookkeeper, has made arrangements to visit her home at Millen during Thanksgiving week.

J. M. Miller, who resigned his office as deputy sheriff some time ago, has gone to Hoffman where he has accepted a position with the Potash Reduction Company of that place.

Mrs. Jno. Liveringhouse of Wayne, Nebraska, mother of Mrs. Lloyd Thomas and C. E. Liveringhouse of Alliance, left Wednesday afternoon for her home after a visit here of a couple of weeks.

State Representative Charles Naylor of Chadron was an Alliance visitor Wednesday, stopping over on his way to San Diego, California, where he has interests. Mr. Naylor expects to return home before Christmas.

The fact that the authorities have caused all raffles and punch boards and the like to be discontinued in Alliance is not disconcerting. Games of chance are rapidly being put on the taboo all over the country, and to the best interests of all concerned.

W. D. Kidd, of Kidd's Cafe, was somewhat ill last week and was forced to remain away from the business for several days. We are pleased to report, however, that at this time Mr. Kidd is much improved and has returned to his duties.

Dr. E. Mead Wilcox of Lincoln, well known to western Nebraska people through his activity in the advancement of the potato industry, arrived in the city Wednesday morning and will be in the city over Friday, when he appears on the program at the potato show.

The committee in charge of the preparation for the North Platte Alliance foot ball game to be played here tomorrow (Friday) are very busily engaged in their efforts to make the game a successful one from an attendance standpoint. Several new players have been added to the local line-up, and it is commonly known that the team is stronger than heretofore. Admission to the game has been placed at 50c.

The Alliance Lodge of Elks will give what will be known as Hallowell's Concert and Dance at the Elks' home here on November 19th. The concert will commence at 8 o'clock and continue until 10, when the dancing will start and continue until 1:00 a. m. An admission of $2.00 per couple will be charged, that amount to include the admission to both the concert and the dance. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Clarence Schafer of Scottsbluff and daughter, Mary Maxine, are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Keeler.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. James P. Hansen of York, Nebraska, on November 9th, a baby girl, Marilyn Janice. Mrs. Hansen will be remembered by Alliance friends as Lelah Reid.

S. B. Howard, director of immigration for the Burlington railroad, spent Wednesday afternoon in the city. Mr. Howard had planned to stay over for the potato show but was called to Omaha unexpectedly. He had been on a trip into Wyoming and Montana.

Pete Manewal, well known Alliance young man, has bought out his dad. Pete will now operate the restaurant and bakery business at 111 Box Butte avenue. He is a hustler and will make good in the business which he has purchased from his father, E. G. Manewal.

Dr. Lynn Cantwell of Alliance has been appointed assistant state veterinarian with headquarters at Alliance. Dr. Harry Cline of Chadron has been appointed assistant with headquarters at Alliance and Dr. George Mikezell has been appointed assistant with headquarters at Morrill.

The "spud corner" of town is reported to have been the scene of an interesting fistic bout Friday evening of last week when "Fug" Armstrong, the potato buyer, and "Penny" Wilson, the potato grower, were reported to have had an interesting encounter. The difficulty started over frozen potatoes, according to reports.

O'Bannon Brothers, the local potato commission men, have shipped sixty-six cars of potatoes to date this season. This is a record and is evidence of the large amount of business being done through the local market. Add to this the number of cars shipped through other firms and the total would be surprising.

Examinations for a charwoman at $300 per annum for work in the new Alliance postoffice building will be held in Alliance from November 23rd to December 8th. Examinations for a fireman-laborer at a salary of $680 per annum will also be held on December 8th. Particulars can be secured from F. W. Hicks at the Alliance postoffice.

Dr. G. E. Condra, director of the Nebraska Conservation and Soil Survey, who is in the city today, has received a telegraphic request from Louis W. Mach at Washington, director of the division of films, for the use of the film made by Dr. Condra showing the story of the making of butter. Mr. Mach wired that he wished the film for use in foreign countries.

T. J. O'Bland of Council Bluffs, Iowa, manager of the Scottsbluff branch of the Jackson Automobile Company, spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday in Alliance on business with the Rumer Motor Company, distributing agents for western Nebraska, Wyoming and part of South Dakota. Mr. O'Bland has made an enviable record in the automobile business and has the fullest co-operation of such successful automobile agencies as the Rumer Motor Company.

J. B. Meyer, assistant deputy hotel commissioner for the state of Nebraska, one of our efficient state officers, came to Alliance the first of the week to investigate the Burlington Hotel, against which complaints had been made. After a complete investigation Mr. Meyer issued an order Wednesday morning for the cleaning up and renovating of the hotel, the work to be done within thirty days. If this is not done within the stated length of time the building will be closed by the authorities and the license revoked.

NOTICE TO RED CROSS MEMBERS
If members of the Red Cross who have subscribed for the magazine and are receiving more than one copy and those who are not receiving the magazine will report to Red Cross Headquarters their subscriptions will be taken care of.

Society Notes

Mrs. Frank Abegg very delightfully entertained the T. A. A. Club on Tuesday of last week.

Mesdames James and Chas. Fogans have issued invitations for a Kensington on Thursday and Friday afternoons.

Mrs. James Keeler is entertaining at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Eunice Eldred tonight. Miss Eldred is soon to become the bride of James Rhein.

The T. A. A. Club met with Mrs. Lloyd C. Thomas Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent at bridge, after which a dainty two course lunch was served.

Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will give a harvest home dinner November 22nd, to be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. The menu will be creamed chicken, mashed potatoes, baked beans, cabbage salad, hot rolls, pumpkin pie and coffee.

Hemingford News

A. M. Miller was an Alliance visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell are Omaha visitors at present.

Ira Phillips was an Alliance visitor Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Mabel McClung visited in Alliance the latter part of the week.

Sheriff Cox and the children were up from Alliance Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. U. Shepherd were in Alliance one day the last of the week.

Charles Moravek, of the Canton neighborhood, marketed spuds here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Melick are up in Wyoming at present fixing up their homestead.

Davie Crist and Jim Wilson went up to Newcastle Sunday. Mr. Crist returned Tuesday.

Miss Dessie Grimes returned from Lincoln Sunday where she spent the last four or five months.

Mrs. Rustin of Chadron visited with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Ward, the latter part of the week.

George Franks left Wednesday night for his home in Iowa, where he expects to visit for a few weeks.

George Gabus departed Saturday for his old home in the eastern part of the state for an indefinite visit.

Mrs. Robert Curry and the babies arrived Sunday for a visit with her parents and other relatives.

Mrs. Dr. McEuen returned Monday from a two months' visit with relatives in Arkansas and Missouri.

Mrs. Fred Melick was an east-bound passenger Friday night, going to Bennet, Nebr., for a visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wanek of Lost Springs, Wyo., are the guests of relatives in and around this place at present.

G. F. Hedgecock and N. Rockey were incoming passengers Thursday morning, returning from a short trip to Lincoln.

Miss Devona Dickenson, formerly employed in our city schools, came over from Chadron Saturday and visited with friends until Sunday.

Mrs. Alex Muirhead and daughter, Miss Ruth, left on No. 42 Wednesday for Rochester, Minn., to consult the Mayo Bros. in regard to Mrs. Muirhead's health.

Mrs. Charles Shindler very pleasantly entertained the ladies of the Rebekah Circle Friday. A very pleasant time is reported. Mrs. Shindler served very dainty refreshments. All report Mrs. Shindler to be a royal hostess.

George D. Darling SPECIAL PRICE PRIVILEGES EXTENDED TO INCLUDE TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20TH

Two days longer time given to accommodate Pay Day purchasers who want to take advantage of the low prices on what is left of that
Car of Furniture

Farmers' Institutes

Conducted by Local Institute Organizations; Women's Clubs; Box Butte County Farm Bureau; Nebraska Colleges of Agriculture, and the United States Department of Agriculture co-operating.

November 19 to 23, Inclusive

- MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19—JOE REIMAN'S
1:00 P. M.—"Clothing Materials" Miss Margaret Sherwin
"The Home Demonstration Agent" Miss Mary Rokahr
Home Economic Extension Specialists
"Grading Potatoes" Prof. Hoppert
Extension Specialist, Department of Horticulture
- 7:30 P. M.—SCHINDLER'S HALL, HEMINGFORD, NEBR.
"Food and the War" Miss Mary Rokahr
"Selecting Seed Potatoes" Prof. Hoppert
Refreshments will be served.
- TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20—REED SCHOOL
7:00 P. M.—"Herbert Hoover's Helping Hints" Miss Mary Rokahr
"Potato Seed Selection" Prof. Hoppert
- WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, W. J. LORANCE'S
1:00 P. M.—"Clothing Materials" Miss Margaret Sherwin
"The Home Demonstration Agent" Miss Mary Rokahr
"Selecting Seed Potatoes" Prof. Hoppert
- THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22, JOHNSON SCHOOL
1:00 P. M.—"The Home Demonstration Agent" Miss Mary Rokahr
"Clothing Materials" Miss Margaret Sherwin
"Potato Seed Selection" Prof. Hoppert
- FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23—T. A. GREEN'S
1:00 P. M.—"Clothing Materials" Miss Margaret Sherwin
"The Home Demonstration Agent" Miss Mary Rokahr
"Selecting Seed Potatoes" Prof. Hoppert

Everybody is invited to attend these lectures, they are free to the public, and a profitable time is in store for all those attending.

The South Bend Malleable Range No. 818 Cabinet Range with 15-gallon Copper Reservoir, as illustrated. Price $83.50

Malleable Ranges are made proof against Rust, Coal Gases and Corrosion by the patented Keystone Copper-bearing Aluminum Fused Flues.

We don't ask you to buy it because we say it's good, but because you can see with your own eyes why it is better than others. Look it over and you will agree with us that—

No Range made of Grey or Cast Iron can possibly be as good—and no other Malleable Range is made so well.

NEWBERRYS HARDWARE CO., Alliance, Nebr.